THE LAST APPEAL.

Grant Attempts to Save San Domingo.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE NEWS]

WASHINGTON, March 28. The President was informed to-day by several senators that an actual count showed that the San Domingo treaty would fail to be ratified. In order to give the Senate an opportunity to change its mind, the President has sent in a special message announcing that the time for the ratification has been extended for thirty days longer. A proposition to recommit the treaty to a committee and send a new commission to the island, will, it is thought, prevail.

The official notes and evidence in the proceedings of the naval court martial as to the collision between the Onelda and Bombay, have been received. The court in its decision says, in regard to Captain Eyro: "We recognize the fact that he was placed in a position of great difficulty and doubt, and in circumstances under which he was called upon to decide promptly; but we regret 10 have to record it as our opinion that he acted hastily and ill-advised in that, instead of waiting and endeavoring to render assistance to the Oneida, he, without having reason to believe that his own vessel was in a perilous position, proceeded on his toyage. This conduct constitutes, in our opinion, a breach of the 23d section of 63d chapter of the Merchant Shipping act, and we therefore feel called upon to suspend Mr. Eyre's certificate for six calendar months from this date." The evidence of many of the witnesses repeated the thrilling details previously published.

The Executive Council of the National Board of Trade had an interview with the President to-day. It consisted of the following gentlemen: Farley, of Philadelphia, president; Hill, of Boston, secretary; and vice-presidents Brown, of Portland, Plummer, of Boston, Taylor, of St. Paul's; Trenholm, of Charleston; and Gano, of Cincinnati. They stated that their object was to present their views upon the following subjects: Interior ports of entry, creation of a department of commerce and civil service, and the American shipping interests. In response, the President, in general terms, alluded to his own appreciation of the important consideration the subjects demanded. CONGRESSIONAL.

" SCOTT AND WHITTEMORE.

SHUFFLING THE CARDS FOR A NEW DEAL.

An Ingenious Programme.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

WASHINGTON, March 27. Governor R. K. Scott, who has stood "upon the picket line" so long, thinks it worth while to bother Congressmen, during his presence here, with the insignificant details of the Radical politics of the First Congressional District if the House will receive back, as a member. one whom it has declared to be unworthy as the representative of the people. The situation which troubles Scott's mind is that of "the party," and to serve his friend Whittemore-his God and Mamr on on the same day he proposes to divide up the election in the first district. He says if he issues a writ for Whittemore's election now, that the more decent Republicans will run a negro, thus splitting the party-for Whittemore is determined to run- burned yesterday. and giving, the Democratic or third candidate the sent. If Scott, however, finds that the Radical members will agree to allow Whittemore to come back next fall, the matter is to be fixed up in this wise: No election will be ordered for this session, but the vacancy will be allowed to run along until next fall, when it is agreed that Whittemore shall be elected for the balance of this Congress, and a new man elected for the 42d Congress. This will satisfy the insatiate cadet-seller, and preserve intact the party. Probably "your Governor" will deny this impeachment, but he furnished his plan of campaign to the editor of the administration organ here, who very innocently puts it into print, and thus confirms all I have written. I have not learned that Scott has bought a cargo of Winchester rifles for his voters, which he was so kind to commend to them in his speech here the other night. But here is the article alluded to from the Washington Republican of vesterday: "Governor Scott, of South Carolina, hesitates about ordering an election to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Representative Whittemore, on account of a strong inclination on the part of the voters of the district to run a colored man, while the friends of Mr. Whittemore insist that he shall be the candidate, in which event a Democrat would be elected. If the election can be postponed until the regular fall election takes place, it is believed that both parties can be satisfied by running Mr. Whittemore for the unexpired term and a colored man for the succeeding term. It is understood that Mr. Whittemore is not fully satisfied with this arrangement, although his opponents in the party say he could not be elected, as the Democrats would go for his Republican opponent, and thus insure the election of the latter." By the way, speaking of Winchester rifles, it looks as though the Republican party in Congress was backing up the military theory for the Southern elections next fall. A bill has already passed the Senate, and is now pending in the House, providing that the quota of arms due to each of the States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas, under the statute of April 28, 1808, shall be allowed to those States in the same manner as if that act had not been modified. The chief of ordnance is, on requisition in the usual form, to deliver to the several States named the arms or their equivalent in ordnance stores from January, 1861, to January, 1865. The appropriation of $20,000 for rebuilding passed the House last week, is now pending in the Senate Committee, who are disposed to favor it, though Morrill, of Maine, the chairman, is a rank Puritan and is opposed himself to voting a dollar. The Globe has printed a three column speech purporting to have been delivered by C. C. Bowen, in the House, in support of this appropriation. No such speech was ever delivered. In fact, the bill was put through under the previous question, without word of discussion.

NEWS AND GOSSIP BY MAIL.

From the Northern papers we take the following paragraphs of news and gossip:

FINANCE.

The Banking and Currency Committee do not seem to be in any haste to obey the order of the House, passed several weeks ago, requiring that they shall report a bill providing for an loarease of the currency to the extent of fifty millions. The committee had another meeting to-day, but did not decide to report the bill to the House. The committee see very plainly that there is no use in submitting a measure of this kind in the face of so important a one as the Funding bill, for the House evidently prefers to first test its financial views on the latter. The Committee of Ways and Means have decided nothing, and will not till they hear the bank interest next week. Additional memorials are coming to members from the West in favor of the abolition of the national banks, and the issue of the legal tender notes in lieu of the bank notes, and the redemption of $200,000,000 of the five-twenties by the issue of the legal tenders.

egal tenders. COIN AND CURRENCY. COIN AND CURRENCY.

The coin balance of the Treasury to-day was large, the total amount being nearly $103,000,000. Over forty millions, however, are represented by coin certificates. The currency balance was quite low, being less than five millions. From the latter fact there does not seem to be any doubt but that the Secretary will increase his currency balance by continuing the sales of gold during April, and possibly by increasing the gold sales, though by a rebate on the May interest on the 5-20s, which amounts to $25,000.000, he may avoid the necessity of increasing such sales. It is estimated that the coin balance on May 1st will be $118,000,000.

TROOPS FOR TENNESSEE REPUSED. TROOPS FOR TENNESSEE REFUSED.

The application made by the Governor of Tennessee to the President for troops to suppress alleged disorders in that State has been refused, on the ground that the fourth article of the constitution prohibits the sall for troops when the Legislature can be convened in cases of invasion or domestic insurrection. It is maintained that the Tennessee Legislature can be convened, if necessary, when therefore, there is no legal ground for the interference of the government.

RALEIGH, March 28. The General Assembly adjourned to-day. The Conservative members have published an address to the people, in which they say : "The Chief Magistrate of this State, who is the head and front of Radicalism, has seen fit to declare one of our counties (Alamance) in a state of insurrection, and to call upon Congress to suspend the writ of habeas corpus thoughout the State. We declare there is no sufficient cause for this extraordinary action of Governor Holden. There is and has been no armed resistance, no uprising of the people, no outbreaks to disturb or hinder the full administration of the civil law. We assert that there is not a county in the State in which any process of law may not be executed. It is true that murders and other outrages have been committed, but they have not been confined to any particular locality or any political party; and when Governor Holden represents to the President and Congress that these acts are evidences of disloyalty, he is guilty of a wilful libel upon a people whose rights he has sworn to protect.'

Debate on the Irish Bill in the House of Commons.

EUROPE.

London, March 25. The proceedings in the House of Commons last evening, on the bill for the protection of life and property in Ireland, were very interesting. After the rejection of the amendment for reducing the terms of imprisonment for carrying arms, from two years to one year, the House proceeded to the consideration of the clause enabling magistrates to call and examine witnesses where the defendant is unknown. A warm discussion ensued, atter which the House divided, and the clause was adopted.

The clause looking to the closing of inns at sunset also provoked a long debate, but was at length adopted. The bill was proceeded with, clause by clause, until the part relating to press prosecutions was reached, when an amendment was offered for striking out these particular clauses.

Daniel O'Donohue, member for Tralee, spoke at length against the bill. He declared that the measure was a continuation of the system of legislation which had absolutely maddened Ireland, by substituting local despots for legal protection. He particularly denounced the press clause, which he affirmed aimed at law-abiding journalism in Ireland, and was alone sufficlent to prompt him to resist the bill to the Right Hon, Gathorne Hardy, member from Oxford University, favored the bill. He sald the powers it gave were safe in the hands of any ministry answerable to Parliament.

The clause for press persecutions, however, was a waste of ammunition where the press was so worthless. Sir R. Palmer, member from Richmond, eloquently denounced the Irish press as treasonable and unscrupulous, and the source of all the delusions blighting that unfortunate country.

After further debate the amendment was rejected by 315 majority, and the House adjourned at a late hour.

THE ŒCUMENICAL COUNCIL.

The Article Concerning Infallibility.

The article relating to infallibility (an addition article of the Schema distributed on the 7th instant,) is drawn up in the following terms: Chapter to be added to the decree on the supremacy of the Roman Pontif, stating that the Roman Pontif cannot err in the definition of matters of the new control of t ters of faith and morals.

The Holy Roman Church possesses the highest R USSEL COE'S ters of faith and morals. The Holy Roman Church possesses the highest and complete supremacy and predominance over the whole of the Catholic Church, which she truly and humbly recognizes to have received with the fullness of power from the Lord Himself, through St. Peter, Prince of Apostles, whose successor is the Roman Pontif, and as she is bound to defend before others the truth of the faith, so also any questions which may arise regarding faith mist be defined by her judgment; because, moreover, the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, saying. "Thou art Peter," &c., are not to be passed over. These words have been confirmed by subsequent events, for the Catholic religion has ever been preserved immaculate, and its doctrine has ever been celebrated in the Apostolic Sec.

Hence we teach, with the approval of the Holy Council, and define as a dogma of faith, that by the Divine assistance, the Roman Pontif, of whom, in the person of St. Peter, it has likewise been said by our Lord Jesus Christ, "I have prayed for thee," &c., cannot err when, acting as the highest teacher of all Christians, he authoritatively defines what should be adhered to by the whole church in matters of faith and morals; and that this prerogative of the incapability form or infallibility. The Memorial Diplomatique states, upon the authority of its correspondent at Rome, that upon receiving from Cardinal Antonelli a copy of the dispatch from Count Daro, claiming for France the right of being represented in the council by an ambassador, the Pope summoned a moning of the chief members of the Sactet College, including the five presidents of the Council at Congregations, in order of the chief rivers as to the answer to be returned to the Court of France. The correspondent adds that he is in a position to affirm that the assembly unanimously approved the admission of a French ambassador. The Pope even declared that if it had been his desire that the Catholic Powers should be represented at the Council, and that in the original plan of arrangement of the Basilica his desire that the Catholic Powers should be represented at the Council, and that in the original plan of arrangement of the Basilica places in proximity to the Bench of Cardinais had been reserved for the representatives of the powers, and that these places were only omitted from the second plan after it had been ascertained that the powers would not send representatives. The same journal publishes a telegram from Rome, dated March 10, stating that the reply of the Pontifical Court to the last dispatch of Court Darn had just been dispatched to Paris, where it would be handed by Monsignor Chigi to the Minister of Foreign Affairs. The Pope readity accodes to the desire of the French Court to be represented at the Council. The Papal Nunclo is also charged with the assurance that the representative of France will be received with all the consideration due to the nation he represents.

The great difficulty generally has been that in the desire for success, unnecessary and damaging concessions have been made; but we trust that no such thing will be the result of this meeting. We already stand as near the line of separation between the right and the wrong of social and political theories as we can well afford to do. All that is wanted now is to declare and consistently maintain the views we hold and the object we seek to accomplish, and to assure all who are concerned that our efforts are directed to the purgation of our State government from the purgation of our State government from the corruption which Radicalism has brought into it, and the establishment of strict and equal justice and rigid economy in its administration by comparint and honors of the strict and examined the state of the strict and equal justice and rigid economy in its administration. by competent and honest officers.

Not dreaming of any harm he stopped, and when the negroes came up and asked him if he had any money, he replied that he had none. The scoundreis then said that they wanted him to divide with them. Two of the negroes, seizing Mr. Wright by his arms, led him into the woods, about three hundred yards from the road, the other following, when they threatened that if he made any noise they would hang him. The third immediately commenced to search Mr. W. while the others held him, and took his pocket book containing $43 60. After taking his money, they ordered him to open his carpet-sack, and, if he did not do so, it would be cut open. Mr. Wright, fearing for his life, opened it, when they took from the sack a pair of new pauts, two new shirts, and two pair of socks. As soon as they had taken everything from Mr. W. that they desired, the negroes told him that he might go, and if he made any report, or caused them any trouble, the next time they met him on the road they would kill him. Two of the negroes were armed with muskets, and one with a double-barrelled gun.

About three weeks ago, Mr. David Lesner, a merchant of Waynesville, while riding in his buggy from Jef fersonton to his home, was halted on the same road by four armed negroes, who came out of the woods. As soon as the horse was halted, the negroes demanded of Mr. Lesner his pocketbook, threatening that if he did not comply with their demand, they would kill him. Being unarmed and alone, he of course complied, and handing them his pocketbook, the negroes took out eighty-three doilars in money, and papers of the value of three or four thousand dollars. After examination of the papers, and finding that they were of no value to them, they were thrown into the buggy. The negroes then ordered Mr. L. to go about his business.

REDUCTION OF NEW YORK RENTS.—Mr. A. T. Stewart has reduced the rents upon all of his New York City property. The reduction is from ten to thirty per cent. In all cases the reductions were made without the solicitation of the tenants. Much of Mr. Stewart's property is occupied by boarding houses. The past winter having been a hard one for boarding house keepers, and their funds having been depleted in proportion, Mr. Stewart has made a considerable reduction in the rents of this class of property, the rate of reduction varying from 12 to 25 per cent. With regard to the better class of Mr. Stewart's property, the reduction in the rents has not, necessarily, been to the better class of art. Stewarts property, the reduction in the rents has not, necessarily, been so large as in the other cases. His property in Broadway has been reduced about 10 per cent. in rent. The reduction of rent in some cases far exceeds 25 per cent.

GAYETY IS TO GOOD HUMOR AS animal perfumes to vegetable fragrance; the one overpowers weak spirits, the other recreates and revives them.

Good humor seasons all the incidents and oc currences of our daily existence and is a defence against the infirmities of ill-health and other evils of life.

The humors of the body have a stated and reg ular course to perform, which impels and imper ceptibly guides our will, exercising a secret in fluence over all our actions, without our being able to know or appreciate it.

To preserve then this desirable position or state to goodness, the condition of the humors of the body, the incentive to good or bad actions, have to be kept up to a healthy standard, by a remedy that will alter the character of the fluids of the body, when in a morbid state-know ye, then, that this alterative is SOLOMON'S BITTERS.

Largely used by the French physicians in treatment of consumptive and scrofulous diseases, it was introduced by the Court Physician of Berlin, MAX ERNST HENRY, into Prus sia, and from thence to the United States. No thing else of the present day can equal HEN RY'S SOLULION OR CARBOLIC CONSTITUTION RENOVATOR. Patients get better after only one dose has been taken, and we cordially recommend it to the public .- [Editor "Argus." jan17 lyr

THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE LIVER .- The liver has a very important part to perform in the animal economy. Its function is two-fold. The fluid which it secretes tempers the blood and regulates the bowels, and upon the quantity and quality of the secretion depends, in a great degree, the adaptation of the blood to the requirements of the system and the due removal of the refuse matter which remains in the intestines after the work of digestion has been accomplished.

One of the principal uses of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is to tone and control this somewhat unruly organ. The anti-billous proper ties of the preparation are scarcely secondary to its virtues as a stomachic. Its operation upon the liver is not violent like that of mercury, but gradual and gentle. Instead of creating a sudden tumult in that sensitive gland, it regulates its action by degrees. Hence, it is a safe remedy for billious disorders, while mercury, being a tremendons excitant, is not. The more naturally and quietly a diseased organ can be restored to its normal condition the better, and it is the pecular property of this harmless vegetable alterative to reinforce and regulate without exciting or convulsing. The success which has attended its use as a remedy for affections of the liver is proverbial. Persons of a billous habit who take it habitually as a protection against the attacks to which they are constitutionally liable, pronounce it the best liver tonic in existence. The symptoms of an approaching fit of biliousness can hardly be mistaken. A pain in the right side or under the shoulder blades, a saffron tinge in the whites of the eyes, sick headache, a feeling of drowsiness. low spirits, loss of appetite, constipation and general debility are among the usual indications of a morbid condition of the liver, and as soon as they appear the BITTERS should be resorted to in order to ward off more serious consequences.
