The Bill to create a Sterling Fund Bill, now before the House of Representatives, one of the most important measures before the body, is not, as is generally supposed, a mere duplication of the Fund Bill before the Senate. It is, however, a distinct measure, made necessary by the impossibility of raising the necessary funds for the public debt in the Senate. The bill is now before the House of Representatives, and the present measure is to be considered as a separate measure, and not a mere duplication of the bill before the Senate.

The bill creates a fund for the purpose of enabling the State to pay its debts. The fund is to be created by the States, and is to be paid into the several counties for the purpose of paying the debts of the State. The counties are to have the power to create a fund for the purpose of paying the debts of the State, and the counties are to have the power to create a fund for the purpose of paying the debts of the State.
