The Jardin des Plantes has suffered severe ly during the bombardment of Paris. The whole collection of fere plants has been destroyed. Bismarck, the Prussian diplomtist, finds reward in promotion; Von Moltke takes his in a decoration. The new rank of Bismarck is the highest a Prussian subject can hope to attain; the fewel of Von Moltke is the richest a German soldier can win. The empire which he created makes the arch diplomatist a prince of the realm. The empire which he cemented and consolidated gives the great soldier the grand cross of its older order, of knighthood—a decoration presented exclusively to winners of decisive battles and captors or defenders of

-We get excellent reports of the Chinese shoemakers employed by Mr. Sampson, at North Adams. Mass. Their shoes are said to be of a superior quality, owing to the faithfulness of the workmanship, and they turn out as much as an equal number of American Chinese blouse, and refusing to part with the queue, in other respects they have adopted the ordinary dress of this country. As operatives, Mr. Sampson says that "they are absolutely unexceptionable." Several benevolent persons teach these foreigners on Sunday, and they have shown great aptness for the acquisition of the English language. Facts like these demonstrate the utter wickedness of maltreating a perceful and harmless class of immigrants. -A Washington letter of Thursday says "The daughter of Chief Justice Chase was married to-day, at St. John's Church, to Mr. Sprague Hoyt. Dr. Lewis, the pastor, de performing the ceremony on account of his high church scruples in regard to such matters in the time of Leut, but Bishop McIlvaine, of Ohio, who is a low-churchman and a friend of the family, officiated to the satisfaction of all concerned. The ceremony took place after the usual morning prayer, when the congregation had retired, the wedding gnests immediately filling their places. In a short time the chancel railing and font were. covered with moss and blooming flowers. The purple covers, were removed trom sitar and reading desk, and white was substituted. Bishop Mclivaine, in full canonical robes, entered, and, after a few moments in prayer, took his seat, and the organ sounded forth low music. There were four ushers-Hamilton Fish, Jr., Fred May, Baron von Alvensieben and Captain Ward. There were four small boys, who had charge of the white cabbens dividing the church. The ushers, groom and groomsmen wore what is styled the English morning dress. The President did not attend

Court could not adjourn in time for the ceremony. All the ladles best known in society were present, among them Mrs. Fish and her others. Misses Rathbone, Harris, Parker and Vail acted as bridesmalds. The bride came in on the arm of her father, the Chief Justice, and lastly Mrs. Sprague, with Mr. Hoyt, the groom. The dressing was of course elegant. Afterwards there was a reception from 3 to 5 P. M. at Mrs. Sprague's.

-Dennis Gunn, who killed his sister's se ducer, in San Francisco, has been acquitted.

The verdict was wildly cheered. -It is stated that by the opening of the Pacific Raliroad the Importation of teas destined for the Atlantic ports will be attracted to San Francisco. Thus the freight from China to San Francisco on a pound of tea is one cent, and thence to New York three and one-half cents, making four and a half cents for the entire distance. The freight via the Cape of Good Hope to New York is two cents a pound, but three months additional time will be required for the transportation. Considering the tea to be worth a dollar a pound, the interest on this value for three months, at eight per cent. per annum, will amount to two cents, and the additional insurance will amount to one and one half cent, so that the expenses are brought up to five and a half cents, or one cent over th charges on the San Francisco route.

The President's Proclamation

The proclamation of President Grant commanding "the persons composing the un-"lawful combinations" in South Carolina to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within twenty days," is intended to be a very serious and clemn document. But those who know the truth about South Carolina treat it as a grim joke, when the President of the United States-cajoled, as usual, by Radical tufthunters-proposes to accomplish the impossible, and "to disperse" a set of men who can as easily be reached as the dwellers in other worlds than ours. We do not pretend to deny that "unlawful combinations" of citizens did, upon two occasions, break open the jail in Union, and did shoot to death the negroes who were accused of murdering Mr. Martin. These "armed men," however, do their work speedily and secretly. It is not known where they come from, or where they go to. They never meet in public. The people, at large, are ignorant as to who and what they are: For this reason, President Grant's ukase will be as effective as a bull against a comet. *

There is a weightier reason behind. The evils under which South Carolina groans, and which make Ku-Kluxism possible, are not charged directly to the account of the United States; nor is there, in this State, any rebellious feeling against the National Government. Upon this point we cannot do better than quote Senator Sawyer who, last week, in his place in the Senate, said:

"Much had been said, here and elsewhere, as to the inclination of the Southern people to enter into another 'rebellion.' But he would tell senators there was not one word of truth in it. In the face of their maimed sons, their desolated hearthstones, their ruined homes. their devastated fields, no such foolish idea could be entertained by them for a moment. He did not think that any of the disturbances in the South originated from hostility to the General Government, but that they were inspired by disaffection to the local governments. And why? Because the men who were most fitted by education and position to take part in the affairs of State were excluded from all participation. Through this cause, it could not be thatied that men of an inferior moral and intellectual stamp had been elected into public

No one will accuse Mr. Sawver of a preju dice in favor of this people. The acknowledgment that the disturbances in the South do not originate from "hestility to the Gen-"eral Government" is wrung by the hard acts from Mr. Sawyer's lips. Equally significant is the confession that the outbreaks in the South, and especially in this State, are indefinite tax until the assessment is made; inspired by "disaffection to the local gov-"ernments," which disaffection is caused by the exclusion "of the men most fitted, by "education and position," from "all parti-"cipation in the affairs of State." Mr. Sawver never uttered more pregnant or more truthful words. We say, then, that the President's procla mation is a waste of ink and paper, because it cannot reach the so-called insurgents whom it commands to retire to their homes. Nor will the presence of United States troops-though the whole army be sent heregive to South Carolina a real and lasting peace. If United States troops be stationed in every village and at every Cross Roads, there will be no armed resistance to the State laws or the State officials. And, even without the presence of the Federal soldiery, there have been but two cases of active interference with the courts, or with the Radi cal rascals who are doing their best to give the coup-de-grace to the people. At Chester the whites took up arms, as it was their duty to do, to defend themselves from the attacks of the marauding negro militia. The alleged robbery at Yorkville is not proved to have been the work of the so-called Ku-Kiux. Only in Union has Judge Lynch held his court, and this was induced by the belief that the negroes who murdered Mr. Stevens would be acquitted, or be pardoned, unless the whites, or their allies, took the law into their own hands. The vast majority of the white citizens of South Carolina do not contemplate, or desire, any armed hostility to the State goverument. They, therefore, do not fear the presence of United States troops. What is proposed to be done, in the nature of resistance, does not involve any violation of the laws, and can be accomplished as thoroughly in the midst of the soldiery as at a distance of a hundred miles from their camps. Nor do the people fear martial law, if that martial law is to relegate South Carolina to the position which she held before the completion of Reconstruction. What we are battling against is the rule of an irresponsible negro majority, who bar out the prop-erty holders from all participation in the affairs of government; who till the State offices with ignorant and venul men; $4,000,000 in one year, the impoverished perpetrate the infernal deed in such a manthe sentiments of the majority of the people when we say that, we had rather a thousand times be governed by the unprincipled not secure with his own race here. Sickles or the sullen Gamby, than by the blockheads and knaves who, every session, hold high carnival in Calambia. It would

more merty, for whites and blacks would then be treated allies. The beyonet would puncture equally all men, whatever the color laughter, Mrs. Webster, Lady Thornton and of their skin. Give us Camby or Sickles, or Terry. One tyrant is better to be borne than a thousand!

We repeat, then, that all the "horse foot and dragoons" of the United States army will not make South Carolina permanently tranquil, nor give stability to the government of the State. The property holders demand that they be repre sented in the Legislature, and in the Municipal councils which make taws and levy taxes. They demand that the arming of one race for the oppression of the other be ended in fact as well as in name. They demand that only capable and honest men be appointed to effice. When these things are lone-and sooner or later they must be done—the people will pay the taxes and sustain the government. Until then, the whole power of the property holding classes must be thrown en bloc against the corrupt crew who have thrust South Carolina deep down in the slough of poverty and despair.

Shall the Taxes be Paid

The Barnwell Sentinel says that every day the question is asked, How are we to pay the taxes? And the question cannot be answered, because the people have not the money, and there is nobody to buy the land. A large owner of real estate advises the people to refuse to pay, and to aid and assist each other in resisting the Confiscation of their property. Upon this the Sentinel savs: "Honesty demands it, and self-preservation compels it. His counsel is, that the people of each township peaceably assemble, organize themselves into committees of safety, and resolutely determine, that if the treasurer of this county attempts to collect a dollar of the second and third tax, ordered to be collected this year, he will be resisted. No Ku-Klux in this, no disguise, no masks, no dominoes, but a patriotic combination to assert the principles upon which we went to war in 1776, and gained our independence-Resistance to Taxation wilhout Representation. This may be called REVOLUTION. Be it so. It is the only means of safety left. These are strong words, but we have said more than once 'THE PROPLE WILL NOT SUBMIT TO BE TAXED OUT OF THEIR LANDS!"

In another place, the same paper says : "We are not alarmists. We have had war, bloodshed and suffering enough to make the heart sick. We deprecate violence, but we say to the men in authority, BEWARE! The last feather is about to be placed on the camel's back; when that attempt is made, furthe endurance will be pusillanimous; an outraged people will rise in their might and sweep every tax-gatherer, with his books and his posse, from the face of the earth."

The Union Times warns the people that another draft upon the finances of the people will be presented next November. It

"However willing the people may be to carry heavy load of taxes, they cannot and we behere will not stand under another load this year, and the government officials might as well make all they can out of what is paid into the treasury this spring. There is, very evidently, a general determination to resist the payment of the November draft, from the simple reason that the taxpavers will not be able to meet it. We suggest that the taxpayers of each county hold a mass meeting, at their respective courthouses, at some early day, and determine what they will do in the premises."

A correspondent of the Rose discusses, at some length, the whole question of State and county taxation. His conclusions are contained in the following para graphs:

"We believe that two mills for the county and four for the State will be enough for all legitimate expenses, and the property put down fifty per cent, from the last unreasonable and illegal valuation. Any number of mills is an for if an arbitrary and fabulous price is the the rule, the poor taxpaver may be sold out with the two or four mills as the maximum.

"And why this change of time for collecting the taxes? Or, it changed, why not divide the amount so that the people may pay only one tax for one year? . It may be that they discern in the signs of the times a coming change in the political atmosphere, and are preparing for it. There is to be a general election next year, and their next session may be their last, and they want all the money in Columbla before its close. Judging these men by their conduct, we believe this inference not far-fetched, and feel it our duty to suggest it and not advising a course known as resis tance, take Republican ground, and stick to Republican principles. The people constitute the State; they make the laws and they can unmake them. They gave no authority to a few, who pay no tax, to take money from the dance to supply themselves. If the people refuse to pay these unreasonable taxes imposed by their faithless servants, what then? Why, hey won't be paid, and no violence to the law lone, for the people are a law unto themselves. By the joint resolution the seven mills for the State and the three mills for the countles are the highest authorized, and one-fourth of this or less can be levied; and as soon as it is ascertained that the amount fixed is over, the people should meet in the townships throughout the State and resolve that they do not intend to furnish any more money for such use as they make of it in Coiumbia.'

The Wolf at the Door!

The Greenville Mountaineer is of opinion that the State taxes for the present year can never be paid. Many have not paid for last year, and cannot do it. It says: "We have seen delicate women and decrepit old men selling the provisions which were ab-'solutely needed to keep their children from starvation, in order to obtain money to pay their taxes, whilst others were going from friend to friend to borrow money." And we doubt whether Greenville is in a worse plight than the rest of the State.

THE Unionville Times has authority for saying that a number of colored people have threatened to murder Jhn Hardy, one of the colored witnesses who testified against the who grow rich by taxing, to the tune of murderers of Matt Stevens. The plot is to white citizens of the State. This is our ner and at such a time as to make it appear trouble. And we believe that we express that the Ku-Klux did it. Charley Near, another colored witness in the trial, has left. the State under the belief that his life was

THE Greenville Enterprise calls upon Goverbor Scott to refuse to negotiate the Sterlbe cheaper, for we should be spared the ing loan authorized last session, and invites the press of the State to speak out "plainly at the church, and the judges of the Supreme the order of the day. It would give us "and emphatically" upon the subject.

THE PUREST AND SAFEST .-The efficacy of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS as a specific for recruiting the enfecble I body and cheering the desponding mind, has passed into a proverb. In the United States, where this marvellous tonic has borne down all opposition, and eclipsed all rivalry, the femand for it has annually increased in a heavier and heavier ratio for years, until at last, the regular sales of this preparation exceed those of al other stomachies combined. Eminent members of the medical profession and hospital surgeon- without number, have candidly admitte, that the pharmacopoela of the faculty contains no prescrip. ion that produces, such beneficial effects in dys pepsia, general debility and nervous diseases, as, Hostetter's Bitters. To use the language of a venerable physician of New York, "the Bitters are the purest stimulant and the safest tonic we have." But the uses of the great vegetable antidote are much more comprehensive than such praise would imply. As a preparatory antidote to epidemic disease; a genial stimulaut, a promoter of constitutional vigor, an appetizer, a stomachic and a remedy for nervous debility, no medicinal preparation has ever attained the reputation of Hostetter's Bitters. It is the household tonic of the American people, and in all human probabilis will be so for centuries to come. The mag-
