THE UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER .- Mr. John F. Porteous, United States commissioner, returned on Saturday from Greenville, and will be ready to attend to business at the United States Courthouse this morning.

NEW CAROLINA RICE. - A cargo of 650 bush els new Carolina rough rice arrived here on Saturday last, per sloop Mary, from Pon Pon. It was from the plantation of E. M. Barnwell, Esq., and was consigned to Messrs. Ravenel

NEW SEA ISLAND COTTON .- The first bag o new sea island cotton received this season from Edisto Island came to hand on Saturday last. It was from the plantation of Messrs. B. J. and E. C. Whaley, and was consigned to Messrs. Fraser & Dill.

WM. E. JOHNSON .- We learn from the Camden Journal that this gentleman, so long and so extensively known as the able, efficient and worthy president of the Bank of Camden, died at his residence in Kirkwood on Sunday last, in the seventy fifth year of his age, lamented and respected by all who knew him.

MACHINERY FOR COTTON MILLS.-Thre was landing on Saturday, on Brown & Co.'s whart, from the schooner W. L. Bradley, from Boston, about two hundred and twenty large boxes containing machinery for the Langley cotton mill, near Aiken, and the Augusta cotton mill, Augusta, Ga. The machinery was from the Lowell Machine Works, Lowell, GADSDEN GREEN .- Some excitement was occasioned in this out-of-the-way locality, yesterday afternoon, by the attempt of a policeman to arrest a boy. While this was going on the father of the boy made his appearance and wrested the club from the pollceman, who, he alleged, was drunk. Another policeman, however, arrested the man and took him to the Guardhouse. The case will be examined this morning.

CRUMBS .- An album, containing a number of photographs, which was found in the possession of a thief, is at the Detective office. Trial Justice Brennan has gone to Columbia. We learn that the Wilmington, Columbia of Columbia. Mr. J. S. Lumsden, an expert, is in charge of the Columbia office of the Southern and Atlantic Telegraph Company.

and Augusta Railroad is now within six miles

Governor Scott has returned and re-occupled his office in the capital.

RESCUE OF THE SCHOONER MARION.-It will be seen by the following paragraph that the schooner Marion, from Liverpool for Charleston, which was ashore on Body Island, has been taken off and towed to Noriolk, Va. She is leaking two feet of water per hour and Journal of Friday last says :

The schooner Marion, from Liverpool, reported ashore heretofore, arrived in port yesterday in tow of the wrecking steamer Resolute, belonging to those indefatigable and zealous workers to the interest of "those who go down to sea in ships," B. & J. Baker. She is in the hands of the underwriters agents, who will do full justice to all concerned.

CARRYING THE WAR INTO AFRICA .- On Friday afternoon a colored woman named Jane Williams entered the premises of a lady in Tradd street, and, after firing off a volley of abuse at a colored servant who lived there, challenged the latter to a fair and square settlement of the difficulty on the spot. Before the preliminaries could be settled Jane was ordered to leave the yard, which she refused to do, until a gallant policeman, who had been sent for, came in and offered her his arm, and club if pecessary. Gracefully accepting the courtesy of her cerulean escort, the virago was conducted to the Guardhouse and locked up. She was brought before the Mayor on Saturday, and after an examination was released with orders not to intrude upon the premises

DIED PROM HER BURNS -- Louisa Johnson the colored girl who was badly burned by the explosion of a can of kerosene oil, with which she was attempting to kindle a fire on Monday morning last, expired on Saturday morning from the injuries then received. During the five days her sufferings were fearful. An inquest was held over the body, and the evidence showed that the girl had been in the habit of kindling her fire with oil, until she was prevented by her mother. On the morning of the accident the mother was not down, and the girl went to work in the old and easy way. The jury returned a verdict that the deceasad came to her death from "the effects of burns caused by the explosion of a can of kerosene oil, from the indiscreet use of the

THE REGATTA .- The contest between the new and beautiful race boats of the Palmetto and Carolina Independent Regatta Clubs has been eagerly looked forward to for some time past, and will take place, we are told, on the afternoon of the 16th instant. The boats have already been tried, and may be seen gliding gracefully about the waters of the harbor on still evenings. The Palmettoes are improving their time by regular practicing, and the steady, skilful sweep of their spoons show that their crew will be up to the mark on the day of trial. The Independents have not yet done much practicing, and having received their boat two weeks later than the Palmettoes they have deferred the race, to allow their picked crew a chance of handling the spocns. Although the first named boat is five feet longer than the other, the contest, as admitted by all, will be a sharp one.

CLUBS AND STARS .- George Frazer and Jultus Garvin, lodged for being intoxicated and fighting in Beaufain street near Coming. were sentenced each to pay a fine of five dollars or go to the House of Correction for ten days.

Anthony Thompson, a colored youth found loitering about certain houses on Hampstead Mall, and lodged on the charge of vagrancy, was sent to the House of Correction for twenty

Chas. McMullen, found drunk and unable to take care of himself in Market street, was sent to the House of Correction for ten days. A goat, found at large in Cannon street, was released upon the payment of a fine of one dollar by the owner. An individual, whose potations incapacitated im for further locomotion, found himself in the Guardhouse. Before the Mayor he pleaded that he did the drinking "as a precautionary measure to keep off the fever," and was Detective office, but up to the present time no cations to be made to him at the office of Mr. immediately discharged.

CHEERING NEWS ABOUT THE FEVER.

The Board of Health's Reports-Only Three Deaths in Two Days-Our Steamship Lines as Lively as Ever-Sanitary Matters in General.

The public will learn with satisfaction that we have been notified . 7 Dr. Lebby, the city registrar, that he will make an official report, every afternoon, of the number of deaths by yellow fever certified to him during the twentyfour hours ending at mid-day. This will place before the community, as frequently as could be desired, a trustworthy statement of the mortality in the city. The people will know the whole truth, good or bad, and we may look forward to a sudden falling off in the crop of rumors, and to a steady improvement in the public morale. Altogether the city has been rather cheerful in tone during the past two days, and the following bulletins will tend to strengthen confidence and dispel alarm : Reports of the City Registrar.

SATURDAY'S REPORT. OFFICE OF BOARD OF HEALTH. No certificates of death by yellow fever received since last report. ROBERT LEBBY, M. D.,

City Registrar. SUNDAY'S REPORT. OFFICE OF BOARD OF HEALTH. CHARLESTON, September 3, 1871-12 M.

Three (3) certificates of death from yellow fever received since last report. ROBERT LEBBY, M. D.,

City Registrar. These reports, and the total mortality to date, indicate that the fever is disposed to die out, or take a different shape. The nights and mornings are cool, and the days more like October than September. This has induced one of the weather-wise (not connected with the Signal Bureau) to predict a frost for the last days of this month. Neither the small number of deaths nor this deliclous autumn weather should, however, tempt the people to relax their exertions. The cleansing and disinfecting of lots is just as necessary as ever, and, as in Rome, every man should keep his own door clean. Under Providence, what we have already done may have helped to moderate the disease and confine it to its pet district. Now, then, is the time to charge all along the line with shovels, brooms and sweetscented deodorizers, so that the jaundiced foe may be driven into the ocean.

Our Steamship Lines. Information has been received that the Charleston steamers, upon their arrival at New York, will be detained for a very short time. At the worse, passengers will not be quarantined for more than twenty-four or forty-eight hours, nor freight for more than fortyeight or seventy hours. To those who love "the sea, the sea, the open sea," this delay will not be very terrible. King Cotton, certainly, will not mind it in the least. All the Charleston steamers come into port with full cargoes, and shippers, seeing that they run no additional risk. mean to stick to their favorite line. The James Adger, which came in on Saturday, brought tifteen or twenty car loads of freight for distant Tennessee. Charleston is looking up.

The Cleaning Up. The streets carts, aided by a few extra ones, were busily at work Saturday, and, owing to the exigencies of the case, on Sunday also. The repeated efforts in this direction show a visible improvement in the appearance of the streets, which are now almost cleared of the rubbish which the excitement of the past week brought forth from places which before never saw the light. A large drain running from has part of her cargo on board. The Norfolk the Eagle Engine House down the neighboring street, which has frequently been reported by the residents in that quarter, has also been attended to. The rumor which was current yesterday afternoon on the street that the city inspector, J. H. Jenks, had returned, is untrue. That official is still located at the North, and will, according to the Mayor, "return as soon as his physician announces that it is safe for him to do so." A New Departure Needed. Middle street was enlivened on Saturday, the first time for many days, by the app ance of a scavenger cart. The accumulated garbage of a week was partially removed; but constant attention is necessary to insure cleanliness and health, and the authorities should be more prompt and energetic in Ward 4. The health committee of this ward met on Saturday and made a full report. The yards and premises were found to be in a much better condition than the streets. Some few nulsances were reported, that will, we trust, receive prompt attention. The committee has been increased to forty, and the meetings will be held hereafter on Friday afternoon.

St. Mary's Church. St. Mary's Church, Hasel street, will be opened at half-past five every evening, and remain open until a late hour, in order to give the congregation an opportunity of offering up their prayers for the speedy extirpation of vellow fever. There will be mass at this church at half-past 6 o'clock every morning.

BILL HEADS printed on fine paper at $3, $4, $5, $6 50 and $8 50 per thousand, according to size, at THE NEWS Job Office.

IMMERSION.—This religious rite was performed yesterday morning at the foot of Tradd street, by the Rev. Jacob Legare, of the Morris street Baptist Church. The candidates, all clothed in white, to the number of eleven, went down into the salt tide and were duly immersed. The ceremonies were concluded by taking up a collection among the crowd who were present.

THE RURAL CAROLINIAN .- The September number of this standard magazine has a varied table of contents. Colonel D. Wyatt Alken Stewert, L. E. Stewart, G. B. Stewart, Balticontributes an article upon clover, and Messre. Meyer, J. P. H. Brown, H. W. Ravenel, A. Y. Lee and Dr. Anderson furnish papers of interest and importance. A paper on "The cotton caterpillars and their habits" will doubtless be attentively read.

A NEW LODGE OF GOOD TEMPLARS WAS IN stituted, on the 24th ult., at Branchville, S. C., by Mr. F. Ludett, of this city. The following are the officers for the present quarter: Rev. D. J. Simmons, W. C. T.; J. B. Berry, W. V. T.; J. W. Berry, W. R. S.; Fed. Cooner, W. F. S.: A. Bruce, W. Treasurer; G. V. Patrick, W. C.; Daniel Bird, W. M.; Geo. Falry, W. G.; Andrew Bird, W. S. The name of the lodge is St. John's, No. 6.

ANOTHER CHURCH ROBBERY .- A sequel to the recent sacrilegious raid upon the hangings and property of St. Luke's Church took place Saturday night at the Unitarian Church, in Archdale street. Saturday morning, as usual, the sexton opened and dusted the church preparatory to the Sunday service, and after shutting it up carefully left the premises. Yesterday morning, upon opening the church, all of the carpeting from the central aisle was missing, besides several smaller articles from the pews. The thieves effected their entrance from the churchyard by breaking open one of the windows at the back of the church near the southeast corner. The carpet is a large and handsome one, and cannot long be concealed. The whole affair was reported at the trace of the robbers has been discovered.

THE SULLIVAN'S ISLAND YACHT RACE .- The Sullivan's Island regatta, on Saturday afternoon, was witnessed by a large assemblage of the admirers of aquatic sports, but owing to the prevailing light winds, proved less amusing than had been anticipated. The following boats were entered for the contest : The Alice, by Captain Mitchell; Lillie, by Mr. D. J. Touhey; Arrow, by Mr. B. Patrick; Katie, by Mr. Wm. Smith; Lila, by Mr. R. Chisolm, Jr.; Fleetwing, by Mr. C. S. Patrick, and Wild Duck, by Mr. Joseph Graham. All but the last named are Sullivan's Island boats. The judges appointed for the occasion were Messrs. R. S. Duryea, R. F. Touhey, C. C. Patrick and H. J. O'Neill. Shortly after 4 o'clock, all preliminary arrangements being completed, the word "Go" was given, and each little craft was speedily covered with a cloud of sails, and glided gracefully from the "cove." The wind being east by north, no difficulties lay in the way of the voyagers, until they rounded Fort Ripley; then their troubles began. The breeze at this time was very light, and the tide ran strong flood; it therefore became a contest as to which of the captains knew best how to evade the places where the tide ran strongest. The Katle and Lillie rounded Ripley about the same time, but the former's captain, soon after "close hauling," showed his knowledge of the river by standing over to the Mount Pleasant shore. The tide here is not strong, and the advantage thereby gained became speedily visible to the spectators on shore. The Katie gradually neared the goal, and finally reached the dock amidst the wildest enthusiasm of the crowd there assembled. The following is a table of the time made by the contending yachts:

The Katie was declared winner of the first prize, a handsomely embroidered champion flag and a silver spoon, and the Lillie of the second, a stylish pennant. The third, a tin-cup, was awarded the Lila, whose return time was not taken, she having arrived after the flag was lowered. Wm. A. Kelly, Esq., commodore of the club, made the presentation speeches, congratulating the successful competitors upon their superior skill in sailing, and the zeal for the honor of the club displayed by them on this and former occasions. The happy recipients, excepting the "tin-cup gentleman," thanked the commodore and the members of the club in a few happily-framed remarks, and the party then adjourned to the club-room, where a splendid punch awaited them. While enjoying the good things, J. M. Touhey, Esq., late commodore of the club, was surprised by being made the recipient of a finely-engraved silver-headed cane, bearing the following inscription-"The Sullivan's Island Regatta Club to Commodore J. M. Touhey." Mr. Kelly's remarks on this occasion were of a most complimentary nature, and were fitly responded to by Mr. Touhey. The Moonlight, of this city, which was to have been entered for the regatta, met with an accident off Castle Pinckney and did not get down to the island. Her mast was snapped off near the deck by a gust of wind, and she was towed back to the city by a boat from the Olive Jackson, lying in the stream.

PILLSBURY'S PERFIDY-AN INDIG-

NANT APPEAL! TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS.

"The monarch's folly makes the people rue." I am amazed in witnessing the position taken by Mayor Pillsbury in his continued opposition to the wishes and efforts of the citizens in their attempt to devise measuresvigorous ones-for the improvement of our vigorous ones—for the improvement of our sanitary condition. So far it has been fruitful of nothing but dispute. Can thus inhuman spirit arise from envy or party zeal? At a time like the present, the chief magistrate of our city should yield to the opinions of the citizens, (his chief executive officer having fled.) He certainly is aware that the hyglene of the city has been fearfully neglected. Last Friday, at 3 P. M., the garbage on Spring street was not removed, and the responsibility lies at some one's door. A very large number lies at some one's door. A very large number of us are unable to send our children away; they require protection at the hands of their parents. "Delays are dangerous," and while dancing attendance upon Mayor Pillabury,

"Who sees the right and approves it too. Condemn the wrong and yet the wrong pursue," this insidious disease is spreading. Relief is needed, or "black night will soon enwrap as in her gloomy shade." Desperate diseases at times require extreme measures. These times need other aid. Red-tapelsm should be set aside. While party spirit is being catered to,

Death stalks behind us, and each figing hour Does some loved portion of our life devour." The citizens feel assured that Major Willis (who has been remarkable for his energetic and administrative power) would, in a few days, reduce the whole machinery into so complete a system, that the result would be acknowledged, however unwillingly, even by the present administration.

The citizens feel confident that no such force as will produce the desired effect can be found in the present municipal department. They seem to be all out of breath, to no purpose, and very busy about nothing-but money.

We trust that the gentlemen who proposed Major Willis, and offered him to Mayor Pillsbury as one capable to grapple with the difficulty, will see that he be allowed to take charge, untrammelled, of the street inspector's charge, untrammetted, of the street inspectors office, for the people at large feel that the lives of their children are jeopardized under the present régime. In the pursuit of this duty they should be guided by one thought, that the "Noblest motive is the public good."

At an extra meeting of Hook and Ladder Company No. 1, held on the 2d September, 1871, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, But a few short months have elapsed since we were called upon to mourn the loss of an esteemed friend and comrade and efficient foreman. With hearts bowed down with grief, we sought a successor worthy to occupy the position made vacant by the relentless hand of the destroying angel.

Such a man was found in A. B. Jarvis, one of the charter members of our company, and second, in point of usefulness and competency, not even to him we mourned. Like his oredecessor, Mr. Jarvis was a man of Northern birth, a native of New York City. He came to Charleston at the close of the war, chose it as his adopted home, identified himself with her interests, and ere long made a host of friends. The natural kindness of his disposition, his courteous demeanor and the urbaolty of his manners were characteristic traits which endeared him to every one, and won golden opinions from all sorts of people." To us, his comrades who knew him most intimately, he was most beloved in life, as in death his memory is most revered. If aught could assuage the grief caused by our recent loss, it was the fact that the memory of our former chief was honored by the appointment of a worthy successor who was his friend and fellow-countryman. But now afresh blow strikes us down-a new and unexpected calamity has befallen us. The angel of death again casts the shadow of its wings o'er our hall, and we mourn the loss of our comrade, friend and foreman, A. B. Jarvis, who was suddenly taken from his sphere of usefulness on Wednesday, August 30.

He was not a native here, nor to the manor born; and for this we honored him the more. We acted but in emulation of his noble example in discarding prejudice, forgetting the unfortunate past, and extending the hand of brotherhood and good fellowship to one who adopted our home as his, and who so richly merited our friendship and esteem.

Most sincerely and honestly do we deplore his loss; most heartily do we extend our sympathy to his bereaved parents and lamily. Be it, therefore,

Resolved. That the death of our esteemed nesouved, that the death of our esteemed foreman and beloved comrade, A. B. Jarvis, leaves a vold in our company and in our hearts that naught but grief can ill.

That we extend to his bereaved parents and

That we extend to his bereaved parents and family our sympathy and condolence.

That our hall be draped in mourning for thirty days in respect to his memory; that we wear the usual badge of mourning on parade, and a blank page in our minute book be dedicated to his memory.

That this preamble and these resolutions be unblished in the daily papers of this city, and published in the daily papers of this city, and a copy thereof be forwarded to the parents and family of our deceased and lamented riend, comrade and chief. Extract from the Minutes.

OFFICE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS, CHARLESTON COUNTY, September 1, 1871. Whereas, It has pleased the Almighty God to call from our midst the late efficient and highly esteemed clerk of this board, Abraham B. Jarvis; and whereas, while we meekly bow with Christian resignation to the decree of His divine will, we cannot refrain from expressing our sincere and heartfelt regrets at the loss which the community has sustained. There

Resolved, That we deplore the death of A. B. Jarvis, and deeply sympathize with his parents in the grief which they feel in being deprived of a dutiful and loving son.

Resolved, That we also share the sorrow which his numerous acquaintances in this city feel in forever losing a true and sincere friend, whom they have so always highly estermed.

friend, whom they have so always nighty esteemed.

Resolved, That in the demise of A. B. Jarvis, this city has lost the valuable services of a polite, accomplished gentleman, a good citizen and an honest man.

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this board, and also that copies be sent to his afflicted narrats, to Fire Company sent to his afflicted parents, to Fire Company
