The wind went sighing, sighing,
Through the tall trees in June.
And the chestnut blossoms shivered As it sang its mournful tune. The dove cooed ever more gently As the whispering wind passed by, And the linner's note sounded softer,

And sadder the bittern's cry.
O wind ! O wind ! now tell me
What thou to the birds didst say? nt the wind, still sighing, sighing, Through the forest stole away.

My heart was beating, beating, Faster that day in June, And a voice within it murmured And a voice within it murmured
A dreamy, dirgo-like tune.
O heart! O heart! now tell me
What the voice to thee doth say?
And my heart did sadly answer,
"All things must pass away."
And the brook went rippling, rippling,
The wind sighed over the lea.
But the voice in my heart sounded sweeter
The longer it sang to me.

THE AIR LINE ROAD.

Spartanburg Looks for a Good Time Coming.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.] SPARTANBURG, S. C., June 12. An annual meeting of the stockholders of the Atlanta and Richmond Air Line Railway was held at this place to-day. No change has been made in president and directors. The president's report was satisfactory and well president's report was satisfactory and well received. The early completion of the road is a fixed fact, and arrangements are made, innancially and otherwise, to complete the road through at as early a period as possible. The iron for the road was commenced being laid at this place to meet the work on the Charlotte end to-day. Our town is alive at the expectation of the arrival of the cars by the 1st of November. Four large new brick stores on the public square are just completing, two more ready to commence. Prospects generally advancing, and better times londly anticipated.

THE GROWING CROPS.

Oconee. The Walhalia Courier says: "A heavy gale passed over Walhalia on Sunday at 12 M., attended with sufficient rain to wet the housetops. On Monday morning light showers fell, with promises of general rains, but by the afternoon high dry winds had risen and scattered every prospect of rain. About Walhalia we were very dry on the 12th."

Union. The Times says: "Since our last frequent The Pimes says: "Since our last frequent fine showers have visited our county. From what we can learn and see cotton generally is doing well. In fact, we have heard many planters say they never saw better prospects for a fine crop at this time of the year. Corn is also doing well. Wheat has turned out fully as well as we reported it would last week. The ears are full and the grain plump. There is no doubt that the quality of wheat this year will be better than for many years before. Outs in many places not worth cutting."

Aiken and Barnwell. Alken and Barnwell.

The Tribune says: "The cotton and corn crops in the vicinity of Aiken are looking excellently. The refreshing shower we had on Monday night came in due time. We notice, also, that the crops between Aiken and Elackville, and particularly immediately around Williston, are flourishing, and in good condition. Perhaps no section of the State presents a fairer prospect for a good yield of cotton, and nowhere do the farmers pay more attention to the system of culture, good fences, tion to the system of culture, good fences, &c."

Georgetown.

The Times says: "The very hot weather has been damaging to the gardens and upland crops, and, we regret to say, has not been of any advantage to the tide lands, for, with the hot-weather and the drought, an army of caterpillars have attacked and made serious inroads on the rice crop. On Sampit Peedee pillars have attacked and made serious in-roads on the rice crop. On Sampit, Peedee, Waccamaw and Santee we learn that serious and we fear irreparable damage has been done to the rice, and the misfortune is that the tides have been so short that but few planters have been able to get water enough to ton the growing crop, and thus measurably planters have been able to get water caught to top the growing crop, and thus measurably destroy the caterpillar. The appearance of the caterpillar at this season of the year must necessarily make the rice crop of this year, in this locality, a short one." Laurens.

The Herald says: "During the past week several refreshing showers have failen in different parts of the county. Immediately at this place a fine shower fell on last Sunday, and another again on Monday, but they were not general, many portions of the county being still dry and suffering. Wheat is being harvested, and so far as we have been able to learn the yield will be small—not an "average crop," though better than was at one time learn the yield will be small—not an "average crop," though better than was at one time anticipated. Great complaint is made as to wheat being thin on the ground, though this is rather the sower's fault than otherwise. We have no doubt the crop is short, yet it is rare that one never hears a farmer acknowledge having made an abundant crop. The oat crop is also short."

JOTTINGS ABOUT THE STATE,

—Nelson Joyner has been appointed by Governor Scott a trial justice for Charleston County.
—Senator Sprague, of Rhode Island, arrived in Columbia on Saturday, and is the guest of Colonel S. A. Pearce.

Green Jorn has appeared in the Aiken vegetable markets, and cherries are being shipped in small quantities to New York.

The holy rite of confirmation was administered in Trinity Church, Columbia, yesterday

—Mr. C. M. Maul, while working on a house near Alken, narrowly escaped a sun-stroke on Thursday last. He was so effected by the heat that he lost all consciousness, and came very near falling off the house.
—Owing to the non-payment of the bill by the State officials, the gas was shut of from the Statehouse, and the massive-looking granite pile presented a gloomy appearance Thursday night.

Thursday night.

—The Governor has pardoned Henry Jones and Harry Cooper, convicted of arson, at the March term, 1872, of the Court of General Sessions for Darlington County, the principal witness against them having confessed that he swore falsely at their trial.

—The Orangeburg News savs: "The analysis

The Orangeburg News says: "The analysis made by Drs. Shepard and Geddings, of Charleston, of the stomachs of Mr. W. L. W. Billey's wife and children, resulted negatively, as the doctors style it—that is, there was no trace found of any poison whatever. The doctors bills for the examination amounted to $550."

n The Georgetown Times says: "The race between the Brothers Henning was tried over on Friday last, when Mr. Edward Henning recovered the laurels he had lost the week before. "It hast the lift four saconds or necessary." fore. He beat the Lily four seconds, or nearly two lengths. We learn that the crews will be swapped and another race run."

—A difficulty occurred between two freedmen at Calmese's Old Quarter, in Laurens County, on last Friday, in which a negro by the name of Amos Young shot and killed another named Isaac Balter. A warrant was promptly issued by Trial Justice Johnson, but Young has not been arrested. The cause of the difficulty, we learn, was jealousy.

Judge Willard a few days since made an order, that testimony in the case should be taken before John T. Rhett, Esq., and it was arranged to do so yesterday, but, at the time appointed, Parker, who does not intend to submit to an investigation which is likely to disclose any of the numerous frauds and abuses which the archives of his office, and the searching oral examination of himself and other witnesses is likely to disclose, promptly noved by his counsel to vacate the order for issued last week restraining the

JUDGE ORR AT PHILADELPHIA.

[From the Georgetown Times.]

It may be that Judge Orr possesses that Roman firmness and patriotism which induce him to order his own son to disgraceful death. But we hardly think so. We think he went out of the way in Philadelphia to laud the worst acts of tyranny and oppression that the present century has witnessed, by extolling the Ku-Klux laws and praising General Grant for his clemency in locking in bastiles those who were his first friends and his present neighbors. [From the Georgetown Times.]

who were his first iriends and his present neighbors.

No one knows better than Judge Orr that in all these cases the juries, both grand and petit, were packed not to try but to convict; and he also knows, that out of more than five hundred cases submitted to the grand jury, the unprecedented and hitherto unheard result was, that true bills were found against each and every one of them. And yet with these facts before him he maligns the State, rejoices in the bitter punishment of his neighbors, and in loud sounding terms praises the despotic hand that puls upon them a deep and humiliating degradation. Our personal relations to Judge Orr make us deeply regret that he should feel called upon to take a course so damaging to him as a man and as one of the administrators of the laws of this State. damaging to him as a man and as one administrators of the laws of this State.
