

MISCELLANY

[From the Sinner's Watchman.]
The Song When Going.
 O, dis de ting we look for long,
 We tro de hoe, de axe away—
 Come boys and gals, we'll hab de song,
 For dis is sho de freedom day.
 Come blow de trumpet, Sally, blow, De year of jubilee am here,
 De axe, de hoe, away we fro;
 We hab nobody now to fear.
 Our gals dey dress so berry fine, Dey hab all tings dey choose to take;
 De white gals sho dey now outshine,
 Dem lef behind to wash and bake.
 We hab de hoss and carriage, too,
 We hab de boot and fine blue coat,
 O, dis is liberty for true;
 No hubby burdens now to toat.
 We want to lib at dis great rate,
 We hab all tings we want at hand;
 O, dis is fine—who now de great?
 We hab de house, de crop, de land.
 We dance all night, we sleep all day,
 We hab all tings for nuffin now,
 We leab de work for dem dat stay, Dey mean and low down, any how.
 POMPEY McNAB.

The Dirge When Returning.
 What now are dose bright tings dey say We'd hab so much when we was free?
 De meat is gone, all dry de tray, Deir words and deeds does not agree.
 We miss de hog, we miss de bread,
 We got to work, go whar we will,
 We'd go straight back, but vema afraid;
 We wonder if dey'd take us still?
 We tant we'd take all tings we want,
 Jis like de time we fuz begun;
 But now dey say, "O, no, you don't;
 Dat sorter game is now all done."
 We sorry now we take de hoss,
 We sorry, too, de tings we burn,
 We nebber can make up de loss,
 'Tis berry hard to lib and learn.
 Dey tell us now de land dey gee
 Is not de forty acre square—
 We gwine to get six feet by tree,
 And many, too, done got deir share.
 We tant dem people great big goose, Dat stay at home when untin dere;
 We tant dem wise dat break right loose,
 And go along and get big share.
 We tant we now de top rail sho,
 And dem big rebs de bottom take;
 But tings is wus dan was befo, Fur all dis mighty fuss dey make.
 De friends we's got is berry few,
 Dat we be fool'd is putty sho, De tings dat round us is all new—
 We puzzle much which way to go.
 POMPEY McNAB.

A darkey's instructions for putting on a coat were: "First de right arm, den de left, and den give one general convulshun."

New York Advertisements.

-1866! 1866!
MAKE UP YOUR CLUBS.
THE
NEW YORK NEWS,
 BENJ. WOOD, Editor and Proprietor.
 THE ONLY RECOGNIZED DEMOCRATIC NEWSPAPER PUBLISHED IN NEW YORK, DAILY, SEMI-WEEK-LY AND WEEKLY.
 TO THE PUBLIC.

THE NEW YORK NEWS HAS BATTLED against despotism for four years of blood and terror, in assertion of the sanctity of the Constitution. A patriot sufficiently broad to embrace both sections has been its only guide, and it refers now with honest pride to its record to show that it has not turned to the right or the left under all the violence of arbitrary power.
 True to its principles as THE NEWS has been through the reign of terror, it challenges public confidence in its honesty and independence for the future.
 The political transition of the present day opens to THE NEWS a new and wider field of usefulness. Standing now, as it always has, on the inviolability of the Constitution, according to the interpretation of the strict constructionists, it presents a rallying ground for all, in both sections, who are friends of a generous conservatism.
 As a true and tried exponent of sectional animity, it occupies a position which makes it the fitting mediator in looking up to the party of order, in both sections, interests and principles that gave breadth and vitality to their alliance. As an intersectional agent, devoted to freedom of election, to trial by jury, to the sanctity of the habeas corpus, and opposed now, as for four years of terror it has been, to the centralization that dares to trample on the rights of States, North or South, THE NEWS places itself as a candidate for support before the great body of this once free people.
 The circumstances of the moment make the dissemination of the principles of THE News a duty of individual patriotism.
 Every man who concurs in its doctrine of freedom of election, of individual freedom, who is in no spirit of indifference, but rather with the earnestness of a high trust, justified, nay bound, in his love of liberty, to do so, the proprietor places the canvass here of the public generally in the hands of those men who give him the approval of their consciences as his individual agents. Every reader of THE NEWS cannot avoid the conviction of duty which is here pointed out as the ground of the request that he urges its claims for a wider support upon all of his friends and neighbors who give their earnest sympathies to the cause of "strict construction," intersectional conciliation, and all the rights of the citizens under the system set up by our fathers of liberty regulated by law. The proprietor of THE NEWS calls, therefore, upon good and true Conservatives throughout the country, to discharge, to their convictions of political right at this great crisis in the country's fortunes, the duty of giving to the influence of his paper, daily, semi-weekly or weekly, the wider power for good which it seeks here through the service of its individual supporters.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY AND WEEKLY NEWS.
 These two Journals are made up with special reference to the wants of country subscribers, and contain such a variety of matter as to render them welcome to every family in the land. In the matter of LITerature the choicest stories of the best writers are spread forth in their columns, and more excellent literary matter is furnished in one issue than can be had in many of the exclusively literary journals of the day. The General News is admirably selected and condensed, so as to give all the current intelligence in as readable a form as it can be placed. It comprises news from every part of the country, and is always the latest. The Commercial Intelligence is carefully prepared, and includes reliable MARKET REPORTS from all points, which are not excelled by any journal in this country.
 Send the names of all friends of Constitutional liberty, and we will send them

THE CHARLESTON DAILY NEWS.
 ON the first of January, 1866, the CHARLESTON DAILY NEWS will be permanently enlarged to the size of the "New Orleans Crescent," the largest daily journal published in the United States, and will be greatly improved in its general features.
 The paper has already the largest cir-universally considered the organ and representative of the feelings of South Carolinians.

 The very finest ability in the country is engaged in its columns, and the proprietors intend to spare no pains nor expense to make it a first-class daily journal.
