

MISCELLANY

The Starry Heavens.
When at the noon of night we lift our eyes,
And contemplate the starry-spangled skies,
To the Great Architect our thoughts we raise
In reverential awe and silent praise.
Our souls adore the mighty God alone,
And fall in prostrate awe before the throne
Of Him who all these brilliant orbs hath made—
The stellar host in order hath arrayed—
Numbers the stars and calls them by their names;
Who by His power sustains their ponderous frames,
Leads forth the hosts of Heaven that shine from far,
And in their armies marshals every star.

The Muster-Rolls of the Confederate Army.

The New York Tribune publishes an abstract, from documents which fell into the hands of the United States at the downfall of the Confederacy, of the returns of all the Confederate armies, from their organization in the summer of 1861 down to the spring of 1865. It appears from these documents that the number of Confederate troops at the East and the West was throughout nearly equal, and that, with the exception of September, 1863, when Longstreet, with his corps, was sent from Virginia to Tennessee, no considerable body of soldiers was ever transferred from one army to the other. The greatest number on the Confederate muster-rolls at any one time was 550,000, and this was when every male from seventeen to fifty was enrolled in the army. The greatest number present for duty at any one time in the whole Confederacy, and that for only a brief period, was 300,000. There were not three periods of a month when they had 250,000. At only three periods did the Army of Northern Virginia, under Lee, number 100,000 men fit for duty.

In October, 1861, when McClellan confronted Johnston at Manassas, the actual force of Johnston was less than 40,000, and in December, only 54,000. When, in April, 1862, McClellan landed on the Peninsula, Magruder had 15,000 men; and when McClellan assailed Yorktown, the Confederates had on the whole Peninsula less than 50,000. When he reached the Chickahominy, the Confederates had at Richmond but 47,000, increased at the close of May to about 60,000 effectives. On the 26th of June, when Lee began his movement against McClellan, the Confederates numbered a little more than 100,000 effectives. When, after the battle of Gettysburg, Meade reached the Rappahannock, Lee had 41,000 men. The Confederacy was at its highest point of military efficiency in the early summer of 1863, when the movement into Pennsylvania was commenced. Every able-bodied man, except those in the work-shops and civil departments, was enrolled; seven out of ten were actually present, and six out of ten were "present for duty." When the Confederate army, in April, 1865, withdrew from Petersburg, it is supposed not to have numbered, all told, 35,000 men.—Baltimore Sun.

GOING THROUGH THINGS.—Whether mankind expect to reach eternity the sooner by their impatient attempts to annihilate time, or whether they take pleasure in the mere conquering of obstacles, the truth is, that more and more study is given to the science of going through things rather than around them. In accordance with this spirit, we see the railroads everywhere pushing through the mountains; the Massachusetts men, undismayed by years of inefficient expense, vote new appropriations to the everlasting Hoosic Tunnel; the Californians climb the steep slopes of the Snowy Range until, impatient of delay, they strike through the mountains to reach the plains; the tunnels on English railways are models of engineering beauty; notwithstanding the uselessness of the Thames Tunnel, the proposition now is to under-run the Straits of Dover, and the greatest tunnel feat of the world is now near its accomplishment in the road that pierces the barrier of Mont Cenis.

A Milwaukeean has sued a young married woman, who had received his attentions while engaged to some one else, for a bill of $104.25, the amount he had paid in her behalf in taking her to concerts, operas, picnic rides and ice cream saloons. As an offset, he credited her with sundry kisses, valued at $16.37; several squeezes of the hand, $3.37; an unreturned photograph and a ring—making a total of $37.75. He recovered the bill, the Judge allowing the plaintiff the issues at his own valuation. The case is to be carried up.

A man had received a large lot of lobsters, fresh and lively, when a boy stood looking at the critters, accompanied by his dog. "Suppose you put your dog's tail between the lobster's claws," said the man. "Agreed," said the boy. The dog was extracted from the claws, and the dog's tail inserted. Away went the dog off home, howling at the squeeze his tail got from the lobster. "Whistle your dog back, you young scamp," said the man. "Whistle your lobster back," cried the boy, and absquatulated.

"Madam," said a husband to his young wife, in a little altercation which will spring up in the best regulated families, "when a man and his wife have quarreled, and each consider the other at fault, which of the two ought to advance towards a reconciliation?" "The best natured and the wisest of the two," said the wife, putting up her mouth for a kiss, which was given with an unctious. She was the conqueror.

When the State constables called at a saloon at Westfield, Mass., the other day, the proprietor slipped the chain from a large black bear which he keeps, and retired to an ante-room to await results. The officers opened the door, and the bear courteously advanced to give them a friendly embrace. The door was quickly shut again, and no sign of a constable has been seen around the place since.

Mrs. So-and-so lost her husband, a very good man, to whom she was much attached. A few days after the funeral, the sexton brought in his bill. "For digging grave, two dollars." "My gracious," said the woman, "you don't charge two dollars for digging a grave in such a soft spot as that? I would willingly have dug it myself for one dollar."

A printer and a painter loved the same girl in Chicago. The painter liked the printer, and the girl loved the painter. The printer married the maiden, but after two days of wedded bliss, the printer's exchequer was found to be very low; a divorce was applied for, and the third day it was granted. The painter is hopeful.

A steam carriage gun, fired recently at New York before a board of army and navy engineers and ordnance officers, fired twelve rounds with solid 450 pound shot, and forty pound charges of powder, within sixteen minutes, a result which had never before been attained with a cannon of that description.

A patent has recently been issued to Lorenzo Sibert, of Augusta County, Va., for making steel railroad bars and other steel direct from a blast furnace, at comparatively little expense. If such a process is successful, it is one of the most important discoveries of the age.

The following atrocious conundrum is out, and the inventor has the temerity to ask for a patent: Suppose the Queen resolves to pare off her thumb nail only once in seven years, why is that like the said Queen's robes of office? Because it's her pare-off-her-nail-year (paraphernalia.)

A gentleman advertised for boarding the other day in a Brooklyn paper—two or three lines only, inserted once. The next day, as he explained in amusing distress, he got ninety-eight answers from Brooklyn.

AN IRISH ABSENTEE.—One of these gentlemen is said to have sent this comforting message to his steward: "Tell the tenants that no threats to shoot you will terrify me."

THE INDIAN.—Of the Indian race which once thickly peopled this continent, only 350,000 men women, and children remain in the United States.

Juarez, the President of Mexico, lived in New Orleans a few years ago, and carried on the business of manufacturing cigars. He was at that time a political refugee.

The Russian Empress gave $60,000 to the wife of the equestrian whose horse received the assassin Berezowski's bullet.

The Great American Blood Purifier. QUEEN'S DELIGHT!

THE QUEEN'S DELIGHT, the great American Alternative and Blood Purifier, is the most perfect vegetable compound of alteratives, tonics, diuretics and diaphoretics; making it the most effective invigorating, rejuvenating and blood-cleansing cordial known to the world.

In introducing this new and extraordinary medicine to the public, observation leads us to remark that too little attention is paid to the "life of all flesh," the blood. Many diseases, and, too, many complaints, which have their origin in a vitiated state of the blood, are treated only as symptoms and results; whereas, if the remedy had been applied to enrich the blood and render it pure, both cause and effect would have been removed. The Queen's Delight is offered to the afflicted as a sure remedy for these diseases arising from an impure condition of the blood. It has a direct and specific action upon that fluid, and consequently renders the blood pure. It is said, on high authority, that "man sooner begins to live than he begins to die, and that the characteristics of the living organism are ceaseless change and ceaseless waste." It is obvious, therefore, to every reflecting mind, that unless the blood is pure, in supplying the waste tissues with material, it must be the cause of innumerable ills and constitutional disorders, such as Scrofula, Rheumatism, Hepatic Disorders, Consumption, Inflammation, Fevers, &c. Life and health is only to be maintained by the circulation of pure arterial blood.

We therefore advise every one whose blood is in the least vitiated by indulgence or excess, and whose constitution is impaired by disease and is suffering from Rheumatism, Liver Complaint, Consumption, Scrofula or King's Evil, Carbuncles, Boils, Itching Humor of the Skin, Erysipelas, Skin Diseases, Tetters, Roughness of the Skin, Pimples, Blotches, Pains in the Bones, old Ulcers, Syphilis and Syphilitic Sores, Indigestion, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Pains in the Back, General Debility, and for all complaints arising from deficiency and poverty of blood, to use the Queen's Delight.

Females of delicate constitution, suffering from weakness and depression of mind in consequence of those complaints which nature imposes at the period of change, have a pleasant and sure remedy in the Queen's Delight.

Children whose fair and ruddy complexion gave early promise of health and beauty, but too soon become blanched and pale by some hereditary taint of the blood, will have their bloom restored by using the Queen's Delight.

The unacquainted and persons traveling into warm countries will find the Queen's Delight a great protection from all malarious affections and diseases which originate in a change of climate, diet and life.

The extraordinary and unprecedented cures performed by the Queen's Delight Compound are attracting the attention of every one, not only at home, but abroad. The merits of this compound are being felt and appreciated everywhere. Hear what they say of it in New York: "It is a remedy of much importance and value, exerting an influence over all the secretions, which is unsurpassed by any other known alternative. It is extensively used in all the various forms of primary and secondary syphilitic affections; also, in scrofulous, hepatic and cutaneous diseases, in which its use is followed by the most successful results."

Its properties as a remedy were first introduced to the notice of the profession by Dr. Thos. Young Simons, of South Carolina, as early as 1828, as a valuable alternative remedy in syphilitic affections, and others requiring use of mercury. Dr. Simons' statements have been endorsed and extended by Dr. A. Lopez, of Mobile, and Dr. H. H. Frost, of Charleston. From the reports in its favor, there seems no reason to doubt the efficacy of this medicine in Secondary Syphilis, Scrofula, Cutaneous Diseases, Chronic Hepatic Affections and other complaints benefited by alternative medicines. # READY-MADE CLOTHING.

THE ladies, gentlemen and young people of Columbia, who may be in want of "SOMETHING TO WEAR," are respectfully and earnestly invited by the ladies of the "Industrial Association" to call and examine the articles which they have now ready for sale. Some one will always be found ready to exhibit the ready-made garments and to receive orders from those who may wish to have work done neatly and promptly.

The object of the Association is to furnish constant employment to those who, having been impoverished by the war, now depend on the needle for daily bread. Does not such an object commend itself to the hearts of our citizens? Or must the anxious applicants for work be told that our people prefer Northern-made garments, and that there is, therefore, no more work for them? Shall it be said that such an Association as this cannot be sustained in the capital of South Carolina? Jan 19
