COLUMBIA.

Friday Morning, September 12, 1863.

The following conclusions have been drawn, in the absence of Emancipation, from the Non-Monopolizing Convention of the Farmers' and Mechanics' Institute, to be held in Columbia on Tuesday next:

Resolved, That the delegation from the four counties of the State, pursuant to the resolution of the General Assembly, and in the exercise of the power of promoting a candidate for Delegates to the General Assembly, do respectfully request the Governor to appoint Delegates to the said convention from said counties.

Resolved, That the Governor is hereby requested to appoint a Delegate from this District, who is respectfully requested to address the Convention in this District, and to receive at the said Convention all the nominations from said District, and is requested to appoint a Delegate from this District, and to receive at the said Convention all the nominations from said District.

MARGARET DUNN.

OUR RURAL RECORD. A forlorn report from the Religion Committee, the Court of Justice, and other causes, has arrived from Marion, last Monday, but his Judge- ship is not in the least disturbed. We hear, although, on Sunday afternoon, last week, that Judge Hoge has committed his Judge's officer's child and wife to the Poor Farm.

Mr. John Hoge, a gentleman of high character and solid intelligence, has been appointed by the Governor to the Supreme Court, which appointment he has declined.
