About the last of May, the schooner apeshot landed forty men and a portion of her cargo on the Cuban coast. While the boats were landing the men, some passengers on board attempted to run the ressel ashore. A fight ensued with the crew and officers, in which the captain of the Grapeshot received a bulthe leg. The Grapeshot finally got the whole party, and without g all her stores, proceeded to Island, where she received a ce, and arrived, on the 4th insteam of the county, Jamaica. THE NEW SECRETARY OF THE NAVY-SKETCH OF THE APPOINTEE .- Hon. Geo. M. Robeson, appointed by the President Secretary of the Navy, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Secre-tary Borie, is a son of Judge William P. Robeson, of Warren County, N. J., who was a leading Whig, long and prominently connected with the politics of the State. Mr. Robeson entered Princeton College in 1844. Upon graduating, in 1847, he entered the law office of Chief Justice Hornblower, of Newark. Upon concluding his legal studies, in 1850, he was associated in practice with Hon. A. C. M. Pennington. Subsequently re-moving to Camden, he was appointed Prosecutor of the Pleas for that County in 1859. Upon the election of Mr. Fre-linghuysen to the United States Senate in 1867, Mr. Robeson was appointed by Gov. Ward Attorney-General, which po sition he resigns for his new duties. He is about 41 years old, and holds high rank in his profession. To his fine legal qualifications he unites general knowledge and practical ability, which to pay the large salaries of the innumera-ble officers that now swarm in our State and to make the speculations of Scott & Co. in various public stocks paying investments, it became necessary to realize an enormous amount of money by taxation. The disproportion of this amount to the actual value of all the property in our impoverished little State was so apparent, that an assessment Act was sed, by which a junta at the capital could attribute any value it pleased to the taxable property in the State. This has been done so that in some Counties the value of property has been increased three times its real value, and, upon the whole, that of the State has been dou-

The meanness of this policy is only equaled by its unfairness. An honest, conscientious tax-payer has returned his property at its full value-his less scrupulous neighbor has returned his at only one-third. Now, instead of assigning to the property of each its real value, "board of equalization" triples all in that County. What a reward for honesty!

The writer of this owned a small tract of land, for which he would have taken $400-cash. He actually sold it at $500, on a credit; and will now give the securities to any one for $400-cash. The machinery of the tax Act has given this piece of property a value of over $900. The writer has rented this year some plantations for a less sum than the tax assessed for the year!

Now, is this lawful? The Constitution provides that taxation upon property shall be ad valorem; shall be in proportion to its real value, &c., &c., for on this point the Constitution is very full, and even repeats. Section 33, Article II, says "actual value." Sec-tion 36, Article I, says: "All pro-perty subject to taxation shall be taxed in proportion to its value." Now, can the Legislature, by the machinery of any legally tax my property at a rate double its actual value? Is the Legislature above the Constitution?

Let e-ery citizen whose property has been rated at more than its real value, refuse to pay; take legal advice, and, if necessary, apply to the courts to have the collection of the excess over the legal tax enjoined. We may trust our Judges, for, notwithstanding the party which elected them, they have shown a dispoand telegraph: "I am overpowered. sition to discharge the duties of their Valmaseda: office honestly.

In conclusion, I would call upon the gentlemen of the press of the State to 8,000 to 10,000," and says he will need speak out upon this enormous wrong. 20,000 in thirty days to open his way It is a matter that should be well aired.

I never knew either Surratt, Payne, Atzerodt, Arnold, or Harold, or any of the so-called conspirators, nor did I ever see any of them until they appeared in custody. While imprisoned with Atzerodt, Payne and Harold, and after their trial was over, I was allowed few minutes' exercise in the prison I heard the three unite in asserting Mrs. Surratt's entire innocence, and acknowledge their own guilt, confining the crime, as they did, entirely to them-

The statement then details the particulars of his arrest, which occurred on the 15th of April, 1865; how he was hand-cuffed with his arms behind his back, and conveyed to the navy yard, where his legs were manacled and a pair of Lilli handcuffs placed on his wrists. The New York Evening Post, of Tuesday, in its financial review, says:

The absorbing topic of conversation in Wall street during the morning has been the order of the Secretary of the Treasury to the Assistant Treasurer in this city, to-the effect that after the close of the present fiscal year and until further notice, the bond purchases of the Govern ent will be limited to $2,000,000 per month, (1,000,000 every alternate week,) instead of $4,000,000, and the gold sales to two, (1,000,000 every alternate week,) instead of $8,000,000 per month, as for some time past. The first bond purchase under the new arrangement will be on Thursday, the 1st of July, and the first gold sale on Thurs-day, the 8th of July. In this connec-tion, it is inferred that as the Secretary purchases this and next week only a sofileient amount of bonds ($2,620,000) to meet the requirements of the Sinking Fund Act during the four months of his administration, he has no intention of making up the deficiencies in the sinkng fund which have occurred under the two preceding administrations. The modification of the Secretary's policy, reflected in the order above referred to of the people will give me a patient checks at its present point the rapid contraction which has been so severely I have suffered much, but I undoubtedly contribute to an easier solemnly assert now, as I always have working of the money market. The since I was arraigned for trial at the new order was generally a surprise to Wall street, as is indicated by the disbelief of the reports in circulation yesterday. The immediate effect to-day on the prices of gold, stocks and bonds was a rapid advance, which, however, has There is a more settled feeling in the money market, owing to the action of Secretary of the Treasury. The demand, however, is still active, and seven per cent. gold is the ruling rate on call loans, with exceptional transactions at seven per cent. currency, and at 1-32 of one per cent. per day in addition to the legal rate. The Treasury receipts from gold sales during the month of June will be over $6,000,000 in excess of the disbursements on account of bond pur-chases. According to the new plan of the Secretary, this excess for the month of July will be less than $500,000, on the supposition that the gold sold brings 138, and that the bonds purchased cost 116. It should be remembered, too, that the last bond purchase under the old arrangement will be on Wednesday, the 30th instant, and that the first under the new plan will be on Thursday, the 1st of July. Counting the $1,620,000 to be purchased to-morrow, there will thus be $3,620,000 bought before the first sale of gold under the new arrangement on Thursday, the 8th of July; there are, however, two sales of gold-1,000,000 to each-before the end of the present fiscal year. There will, therefore, be no further contraction from this time under the present policy of the Secretary. the market for commercial paper there business. Prime acceptances are nominally quoted at eight to ten per cent.

MEAN VENGEANCE. -It seems that a oung man has been turned out of a place in the mortar and pestle department of the Government because he chose to marry the innocent daughter of the unfortunate Mrs. Surratt. This shows a mean spirit of persecution on the part of the Government authorities not unlike that which would not only have burnt poor old John Rodgers, but his wife and seven small children, "with one at the breast," at the stake on account of the alleged heresy of the father. The American Government should be above such paltry meanness and worse than inquisi torial persecution .- New York Herald.
