

The State Lunatic Asylum.

A correspondent has called upon us for information as to the state of affairs at the State Lunatic Asylum. We shall present such views as are suggested by the information we have received. We have reason to believe that the Superintendent, Dr. Ensor, is a man of sense and liberality, who seeks to fulfil his trust in an enlightened and humane spirit; and that he is sustained by the more discreet members of the Board of Regents—white and colored. The stumbling-block in the way is the man Dr. Harris, a colored importation, who has been foisted in a place for which both his limited education, his nature and his habits wholly disqualify him. This man was Assistant Physician—head attendant and Secretary and Treasurer—and is receiving, we learn, a salary of over $3,000. Recently, as we are informed, Governor Scott, upon complaint made to him, removed Dr. Harris from his post of Assistant Physician, but he retains the post of head attendant and Secretary and Treasurer. He should be removed entirely, and it is a duty, which Governor Scott can scarcely omit, to protect the helpless unfortunates in the Asylum.

It is reported to us, that this man Harris has taken almost exclusive control of the male department of the Asylum, and has introduced harsh methods of treatment hitherto unpractised, and which are simply outrageous. The chain and padlock and the cold water douse are not unfrequently employed by this soulless and incompetent attendant.

To put a colored man in charge of white lunatics, is a barbarism that even no decent Republican, white or black, should approve. These people, deprived of reason, have their unconquerable prejudices; and when a man like Harris exercises his despotic sway over such people, who doubts that he adds fuel to the fires of madness, or increases the sad despondency of depressed hearts.

We deem it the bounden duty of Dr. Ensor to make an indignant protest against the state of affairs existing in the Lunatic Asylum, and which we know he cannot sanction. We deem it the bounden duty of Governor Scott to exert his authority to protect the interests of the unfortunate inmates of the Lunatic Asylum, and to rise superior to all those influences that may be used to protect and retain in office an unworthy and a lazy officer. If the state of things reported to us exist in the Asylum, they should be changed; unless they are changed, we shall feel it our duty to array against the management of this Asylum, an indignant public opinion, which, embracing both white and colored, will prove to be irresistible. But we shall be fair, and we add, that we believe that Governor Scott, sustaining Dr. Ensor, will interfere and correct these abuses. If politics are to be introduced into the Lunatic Asylum; if it is to be used as a political body—if it is to be de-humanized and outraged by such a creature as him, whose brutality has been reported to us, better let its walls be levelled to the ground, and its inmates remitted to the care of friends and the charities of the public.

Notwithstanding the menacing attitude of Russia and the resolute assertions of England and Austria, it is said that nobody outside of England believes that there will be another war in Europe at present. It is believed in Vienna and Berlin and St. Petersburg, that England, after a few vigorous protests and finding no encouragement from the other powers, will subside and give Russia her point in the Eastern question. In London, however, the case is different. The journals clamor for war, unless Russia gives up her idea of an abrogation of the Paris treaty. The English Cabinet is divided on the question and it is said the peace party will triumph and give England's consent to a surrender of the fruits of the Crimean victory.

THE COLORED CADET AGAIN.—A letter from West Point says the cadets are indignant at the result of the court-martial of the colored cadet Smith and his release from arrest. The sentiment against him is now more bitter than ever, and he will have a still harder road to travel before he gets through. The previously adopted resolution to taboo any in the corps who affiliate in any way with Smith will be more rigidly observed. Should another collision occur, it is plain that the result would be more serious than before. Had he been reprimanded and his action declared guilty, the feeling of prejudice would be greatly mollified. But as it is, their chagrin is too great for words to express. With one or two exceptions the officers, although they dare not publicly say so, share the same feeling.

Mr. Pleasant T. Gossett, of Spartanburg, committed suicide by hanging, one day last week.

Our National Politics.—A New Element.

In spite of the assertions of partisan journals, ever ready to deceive the public in order to perpetuate the sway of party and to continue to enjoy the spoils, it is evident that the Democratic or anti-radical party has recently made decided and substantial gains. Even where States have not been carried by the National Democracy, the radical vote has been greatly diminished. For instance, it has been reduced at least 35,000 in the great and growing State of Illinois. Even the New York Tribune, acknowledging a Democratic gain of over forty, gives the radicals only thirty majority in the next House. The Democratic journals put it at much less. The fact of the matter is, the star in the West begins to brighten. There is an identity of interest between the South and North-west, which must bring them nearer in political faith. The New England element will not always be able to maintain its crooked policy. Missouri has been carried by a majority of nearly 50,000, by a union between the Democrats and a liberalized portion of the radical party, denominated as "Revenue Reformers"—that is, radicals favoring free trade, and thus in union on that point with the Democracy. In the next House, the Democrats, with the "Revenue Reformers" and the liberal radicals, will have a controlling majority. This is a good indication. We note with especial satisfaction all indications of a radical defeat. RADICALISM at the South is simply an outrage and an abomination. RADICALISM at the North is an error, and founded upon governmental principles, which we deem at warfare with the best interests of the Union—now so-called. At home or abroad—here and elsewhere—we war against it, and not until it goes down to rise no more, shall we have that genuine peace, prosperity and progress which ought to mark the future life of this ocean-bound and magnificent territory—so great in its present resources and in its future possibilities.

The Senatorship.

MR. EDITOR: The friends of Secretary Cardozo are said to be more hopeful of his chances for the United States Senatorship, on the ground of his being so aloof from the rabble. He refuses to drink and mix up with ignorant and needy negroes, such as constitute the strength of some of his opponents. His friends are running him as a white man's man, in contradistinction to the regular "unadulterated African" party.

RESPECTABILITY.

To the Women of the South. The undersigned earnestly appeal to the women of the whole South, to aid them in obtaining contributions for the erection of a monument at Richmond, which is to stand as a lasting memorial of the love borne our great Chief by a mourning and grateful people. The soldiers, through their resolutions, passed at their great meeting so lately held at Richmond in honor of General Lee, have called upon us to join them in collecting contributions for the desired object. An organization for that purpose has been already formed by the undersigned, and to the women of the South—from Maryland to Texas—we appeal for aid.

The fourth Sunday in November (November 27) has been selected as the day on which a collection shall be taken up in every church throughout the length and breadth of our Southern land. This is the only possible way by which a voluntary and simultaneous offering can be made to the memory of him whom we would honor in death as we have honored and loved him in life. With perfect confidence in the love which his people bore him, and in their zeal to do that which, in honoring him most will most redound to their own credit, we can have no doubt of the success of this plan, if it can be brought directly to the notice of every clergyman and congregation of the South; and that this may be accomplished, we call upon you to assist us. Let the committees which have been appointed for each State, act promptly and with vigor. Let them urge, that on the fourth Sunday in November, each member of every family should go to church with that sum, small or great, which their means will allow them to dedicate to this sacred object.

To those clergymen and congregations who object to collecting for such an object on the Sabbath, we would suggest that they should appoint some suitable day in this month when a meeting of their congregation should be held and the collection taken up.

Let it be remembered that this monument is to be raised by the whole South; that it is to be one to which, as a people, we may point proudly, and to which generations for ages to come, shall look up with respect for the love which a defeated people could bear to a great but fallen hero. Should each of the 25,000 congregations scattered throughout the South, contribute but a trifling sum, what a monument could be reared! Let each man, woman and child, then, give what they can, regardless of how small or how great the sum may be.

All contributions from South Carolina must be sent to Mrs. C. O. PINCKNEY, Chairman of the Ladies' Lee Monument Committee, Charleston, S. C.

Mrs. WM. M. MACFARLAND, Mrs. GEO. W. RANDOLPH, Mrs. JAMES LYONS, Mrs. WILLIAM BROWN, Miss NICHOLAS, Richmond, Virginia.

New Dignity for George's Railroad.—A St. George's correspondent, writing to the Charleston News, on the 17th inst., says: "A meeting of the citizens of this parish and adjoining ones was held on the 16th inst., for the purpose of taking steps towards forming a new County—to have for its County seat George's Station, on the South Carolina Railroad. Capt. L. A. Harper was Chairman of the meeting, J. O. Reed, Secretary. Much interest was manifested, and committees were appointed to obtain signatures of those in favor of the move in Orangeburg, Colleton and Charleston Counties; also, a committee to draft a petition to the Legislature."

DEATH OF CAPTAIN B. B. FONTAINE.—The Sun reports that Captain B. B. Fontaine, a gallant Confederate officer in the Third Georgia Cavalry, died in Columbus, on Tuesday. Some singular coincidences are connected with his death. Captain Fontaine was born November 15, 1838, and died November 15, 1870, on his birth-day, aged just thirty-two years. He was buried on Thursday morning, from his family residence, where he was born, baptized, married and died.

A RUSSIAN DEAD.—The negro, Lewis Travers, who, it will be remembered, was arrested in Nashville, Tennessee, on the charge of having committed several murders in different parts of Georgia, and who was brought to Griffin for trial, died in that place, Thursday night. He was fully identified by the gentleman who he had endeavored to kill in Covington, Georgia, and confessed his guilt fully on every charge.

The prairie fires in Iowa forced a herd of buffaloes into Sioux City, and owing to the pressing invitations of the citizens with rifles, many of them concluded to remain there.

MURDEROUS AFFRAY.—It is reported that a terrible affray occurred in what is known as the "Dark Corner" of Abbeville County, on the 17th inst. It appears that a Mr. Cook and three of the Tolberts, all white, were engaged in a settlement, but not agreeing upon the figures, words arose, when Cook, thinking the odds against him too great, drew his revolver and shot one of the Tolberts dead on the spot, and seriously wounded another. The third took to his legs and escaped.

THE PUBLIC PRINTING.—The proprietor of this paper will submit a proposal to do the public printing. He is aware of the fact that, politically speaking, he has no reason to expect any favors from the majority of the members of the present Assembly. But he is also of the opinion that the public printing is a matter of business. It is a piece of work that the interests of the State require should be done as cheap as possible. He intends to propose to do this printing at a rate as low as he can afford. It will then be for the Legislature to decide whether or no the contract shall be awarded to the lowest bidder. We thus freely make this announcement, because we intend to make a proposition in good faith to do a piece of public work at a living rate. Our effort may turn out to be a bootless one, but we are not aware that there is anything in the Constitution or laws even of this reconstructed State, to prevent the General Assembly from deciding to pay a low rather than a high price for such printing as may be necessary.

THE APPEAL TO THE WOMEN OF THE SOUTH.—We invite attention to the appeal to the women of the South in behalf of a monument fund to honor the memory of the peerless LEE. No argument—no appeal from us is demanded. The project commends itself at once to the hearts of the women of the South.

The Galaxy for December gives two additional chapters of Justin McCarthy's "Lady Judith," and another instalment of "Overland." Charles Astor Bristed has a very interesting paper on international copyright, exploding various popular delusions on the subject, and giving an exact statement of the question as it now stands. Alice Gray tells of a visit to Wilhelmsholke in the October of 1869. Mr. Guernsey contributes the first part of a paper on "David, King of Israel." Thurlow Weed continues his autobiography. Mrs. McFarland-Richardson has an essay tracing some of the more evident obligations of Shakespeare to the dramatists who preceded him.

PHOENIXIANA.—The price of single copies of the PHOENIX is five cents. If carriers charge more it is simply a swindle. They can be obtained at that price at the office.

The Legislature convenes to-day, at 12 o'clock.

The weather was particularly variable, yesterday—cold and warm, cloudy and clear, at intervals.

We received a visit, yesterday, from Mr. Silas J. Carey, traveling agent of the Banner of the South and Planter's Journal. Also, from Mr. John Moroso, of the Charleston Courier, and Mr. R. M. Stokes, of the Unionville Times.

Mme. Demorest's Manual of Instructions on Dress and Dress-Making for the fall and winter fashions of 1870-'71, ought to be in the hands of every mother, lady and dress-maker in the land, as it gives complete, valuable and useful information in every department of ladies' and children's dress, with numerous illustrations. Price fifteen cents. Mailed free on receipt of price. Address Mme. Demorest, 838 Broadway, New York.

Russia is about re-enacting the fable of the wolf and the lamb with poor Turkey. After several years quiescence, she has suddenly discovered that the Sultan is muddying the stream which flows into the Black Sea, and, we presume, will follow out the fable to the end. It is with nations as with individuals; other people's misfortunes always improve opportunities it is impossible to resist, and now that Russia's old foes are all in trouble, an excuse for killing the "sick man" has been readily found.

During the session of the Lutheran Synod in Charleston, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the Board of Directors be and are hereby requested to proceed with the preparatory arrangements for the speedy opening of the Theological Seminary at Columbia, and for the reception of the students of this Synod.

Resolved, That a collection be taken up for the benefit of the Seminary, in all our churches, on the third Sabbath in December next, and succeeding Sabbath, and that the result be forwarded to the Board of Directors at Columbia.

THE CIRCUS IS COMING.—Stone & Murray, with their highly popular circus company, will give two exhibitions in Columbia, on Friday, the 2d December—afternoon and evening. They have added materially to the attractions, by the addition of a den of highly-trained animals. Stone & Murray have expunged the antique abuses and customs which other exhibitions cling to with so much tenacity, and inaugurated a new era in circus amusements. With a troupe of artists the most distinguished in the world, this circus has acquired a fame for excellence and respectability that no other traveling exhibition enjoys.

The Rome (Ga.) Commercial announces the death, by violence, at Dyke's Creek, on the 10th instant, of Mr. John K. Veal, son of John Veal, Esq. He was a native of Columbia, served in the Confederate army, under Capt. R. O'Neale, and was regarded as a good soldier. An inquest was held over the body, and the jury rendered as their verdict, that the deceased came to his death by cause or causes unknown to them.

AN ESTABLISHED REMEDY.—"Brown's Bronchial Troches" are widely known as a tried and tested remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, and other troubles of the Throat and Lungs. Their good reputation and extensive use have brought out imitations, represented to be the same. OBTAIN ONLY "Brown's Bronchial Troches." N 22 1

"OH, IT IS NOTHING!"—Only a slight cold and cough. A few days pass away. There is complaint of the doctor. What is the matter? Only a slight cold. Will death not startle you from the delusive dream that "only a cough" will not harm you? Beware, and take heed! every day's experience refutes this fallacious argument. A cold, a cough neglected, is a sure precursor of consumption. While you have time, see to it, that you no longer neglect a slight cold, and go at once and buy a bottle of Stanley's Great Cough Remedy. Prepared by HENRY, at his Drug Store.
