

Brings Lights to H. H.

Among the brightest spots on the highway No. 2 will be the Pennywise store with its elaborate neon lighting displays. The store is located at the corner of the highway and the main street. The store is owned by the Pennywise family, who have been in the business for many years. The store is a popular place for the community, and the lights are a great attraction for the children.

H. Village

Last week a group of 16 ended the week with a group of 16. The group was led by Mr. R. C. Greiner, who was the host for the evening. The group was very successful, and the evening was a great success. The group was very successful, and the evening was a great success. The group was very successful, and the evening was a great success.

vice personnel have been holding square dances. Good times have been enjoyed by all. The ladies guild wishes to report that their bazaar and food sale for the purpose of raising funds to promote a community Sunday school was very successful. Thanks go to the women of the community who patronized the sale.

Columbia Heights

Something new in Monte Vista every day. Venetian blinds at the Jim Clarks, a sink at the Joe Brews, floors finished at John Baders, and the Gene Baders are now in their new house. We are sorry to see H. E. MacMillan on crutches. Commercial club met at Carl Evans Monday evening for the last meeting of the year. Next regular meeting will be the second Monday in January, 1949. Let's all turn out and make it a bigger and better commercial club.

We are sorry to hear Mrs. Thurston has been on the sick list this week. It looks good to see the power line right of way being cleared. Girl scouts met at Mrs. Thomas' for their Christmas party Monday. Carols were sung and games played. Then Santa Claus "Richard Thomas" passed out gifts. After much exclamation and thank you's the girls enjoyed lunch and Christmas candy. This was the final meeting for 1948. Present were Carol Lindbeck, Cherry Bader, Dora Todd, Carol Thomas, Phyllis Snodgrass, Margaret Murphy, Dianne Cade, Barbara McCracken, Corinna Rogers and leaders Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Carter.

The Jim Clarks are leaving us for the winter, destination Wichita Falls, Texas. They will be back with us when the cool weather is over. Stan Spurgeon, park headquarters, was called to Ione, Wash. where his brother, Phillip, was fatally injured in a logging accident. Funeral was Tuesday.

Primary Hears Records

First and second graders have enjoyed sharing Christmas music on records brought from home. David and Danny Culver brought an album of interpretive music for children. Bobby Fry had one made especially for him by his Aunt Millie. Others who brought records were Marvin Deopner, Janet Hoppe, Gary and Vicki Latham and Angela Crosswhite.

We are watching the skating rink being made. Maybe it will be ready for use during Christmas vacation.

Gary Latham and Terry Lynam are new members of Grade 2. Both boys were in Kalispell before coming to Hungry Horse.

We are happy to have a new set of library books. These are loaned to us by the Flathead County free library in Kalispell. The use of this library is open to children and grownups in Flathead county.

Christmas vacation for the school children begins next Friday. They will return to their classrooms on Monday, January 3, 1949.

H. H. Troop to Start

First meeting of a boy scout troop in Hungry Horse is scheduled for early January. Members of the troop committee are Clyde H. Spencer, David Culver, Palmer Larsen, Fred Hodgson and A. A. Brownson of bureau of reclamation; James Egan and Mel Hord, General-Shea-Morrison and Neil Keim and Lee Mott, Hungry Horse Builders.

South Fork Town

Well, we got it at last. The temperature, I mean. Reports were so varied that we wonder who is accurate. Monday night at twelve thirty, Leo Edwards reported 3 below. Same night, the Mercury reported 10 below down at the Elkhorn. Our own record was only 2 above at midnight. Then there was the lady who appeared on Jack Bailey's "Queen for a Day" program Wednesday morning. She wanted to come to Kalispell for Christmas where she said "It's 28 below but I'm going anyway." Lowest radio report for Kalispell to date is 6 below. So who knows anyway. Just the same it's very pretty, the snow, not the temperature. Have you taken a look at the white capped mountains in the moonlight? Monday and Tuesday night they were beautiful. With the "fresh snow crunching under your feet, and all God's country brightly illuminated before your eyes, it's little wonder you can almost see the one bright star in the sky and mentally follow its path to the manger.

Christmas trees are appearing in quite a few houses and many a mother or father has stopped important work to flounder around in hip-deep snow to get "just the right one" according to the dictates of the younger generation. Then there are the "sledders". The kids have been enjoying the slick roads for some time now, but sometime last week two of our "sedate" matrons decided to try it. Only they were aided and abetted. Mrs. Darlene Nichols and Mrs. Ann Murphy tied their sleds to the back of the Nichols car, and took several "round the block" rides, driven by Mr. Nichols. Result—Mrs. Nichols frosted both cheeks and the tips of all her fingers. "It was fun, though," they said.

Mrs. Bill Murphy had planned to have a childrens party for her two daughters, but both had colds so it was dropped; however they had a grownup party, Friday, when Paula was 6. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Murphy and son Raymond and Mrs. R. B. Costello and son Jimmie of Martin City came to celebrate. She received several gifts as did her sister, Betty Ann who will be 4 on December 17. Jackie Murphy, their older sister suffered a deep cut and several smaller ones on the bottom of her foot a week ago, when she stepped on some broken glass. She still limps a little. She was home from school a week with the cut foot and now has to stay out of school with an irritating cough. Jackie sure hopes she can get well soon, and so do we.

Little Carol Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Cooper, has just returned from a three weeks stay with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Holtz in Cres-ton.

Jim Johnson has had his military registration transferred from Devils Lake, N. Dak. to Kalispell. He will soon be reporting for his examination.

N. C. Pederson (who I reported fell last week and after one day at home returned to work) is on the disabled list again. His injury was little more serious than he had at first thought, so he has been home from work for several days.

Frank Sharr spent Saturday and Sunday in Spokane and Bay-view, Idaho returning with Xmas decorations and a few more blankets, both of which were very welcome.

I offer sincere apology to Mr.

and Mrs. Don Nash for last week's item, in which I reported that the Nash store had been sold. The item should have read, the Nash store building which is the empty one between the Nash Grocery and "The Crooked Tree".

Ouren Hatt has reported that he sold his two houses and lots on Main street. He and his family will return to Boise.

New residents in South Fork include Mr. and Mrs. Ed Walker, Coram, Mrs. Frances McClure, Mrs. Walker's daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Harold McClure, Polson. He is a rigger for G.S.M.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Tucker moved from Albuquerque. He is a dam driller for Boyles brothers. All three of these families have moved into the Nash cabins.

Pat Barrett has returned from a visit to relatives over the mountain.

A snow scraper would surely be a welcome sight down through Hungry Horse employment office.

our roads. Someone gets stuck everyday. Now we have to go to the highway to get our daily papers. "I don't mind getting stuck," said our carrier. "It's the time it takes." So now we're stuck with walking.

Mrs. Mary Krall, Lewistown, returned home Wednesday after a few days visit with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Weir.

Mrs. Frances McClure, South Fork, left Monday for Anaconda where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Frank Laslovich.
