Alexander Peterson has returned to the mines.

Ex-Mayor French and party drove out to Buford Leitcher's one day last week and found business rushing, both in the picking and packing of strawberries and upon the big building he is erecting to be used as a kitchen and dining room, and when completed Mr. Leitcher will have a substantial set of buildings all told. His crop of strawberries has been immense this year and of fine quality, while his corn, melon, cucumber and other fields give promise of big returns.

As the northbound freight train reached here Tuesday afternoon the wood on the tender was found to be afire and for some time it looked as though the locomotive would surely burn, but after using nearly all the water in the tank and pitching the burning wood out into the sand they succeeded in subduing the flames. The engine had to return to Ocala for a fresh supply of water before it could take the train north.

Mr. Tom Livingston, of Ocala, made several trips to the Park to get the pastel painting which he drew at the L. V. I. S. supper in March, although he did not take the picture home in sections. Now that he has it he still comes. What is the attraction?

Miss Eva Young, who went North the latter part of April, was married May 3 to Mr. Will Clarke, a former resident of our town, but now living in Jersey City, N. J. Mr. Will has a fine position as shipping clerk in a wholesale house in New York and the newly wedded pair have set up house-keeping at Jersey City. The best wishes of their many friends at this place are extended to them.

A LIFE AND DEATH FIGHT

Mr. W. A. Hines, of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure throat, chest and lung troubles." Regular size 50c and $1. FLEMINGTON

In the annals of our little village we do not often find mention of an occasion so filled with pleasure as was the ice cream supper Friday evening. Quite a number of persons were present and all were in the best of spirits, not a jar occurring to mar the enjoyment of the occasion. The building formerly occupied by J. C. Mathews & Co. as a mercantile establishment was converted into an ice cream parlor, the counters being moved aside and several small tables put in for the accommodation of customers. In the rear of the building was a long table laden with cake and beautiful flowers, which, with the small tables' snowy covers and floral decorations, lent a most beautiful effect to the scene. Ice cream, cake and lemonade was served and a land office business was done. Mr. Hal Gladney was pressed into service as auctioneer and disposed of two magnificent cakes for a nice sum. Miss Inez Mathews was voted the most beautiful young lady present and was honored with a beautiful cake. All the bachelors on the scene seemed anxious to possess a cake and the remainder was disposed of for a tidy sum. Kirk Mixson acting as auctioneer. The thanks of the entire community are tendered to Miss Ella Richardson for her untiring efforts to make the supper a success.
