WORKING STEADILY

This is how the Rockwell correspondent to the Dunnellon Citizen says of the work in the phosphate mines: The Central plant is moving at a lively rate. No. 21 is booming, as is numbers 6 and 4, which of course, will be understood when you remember the efficient force of superintendents in charge, who are Mr. Rowe at 21, Mr. Grumbles at No. 6, and Mr. Alfred at No. 4.

We understand the company will soon have one or two plants ready for operation at Hernando in the near future.

The dredges are humming down the river, and the company now has one large barge afloat at Port Inglis ready for service. It looks as if Captain Inglis is moving things on the river, and they will soon be shipping phosphate by their own line in deep water.

Platform

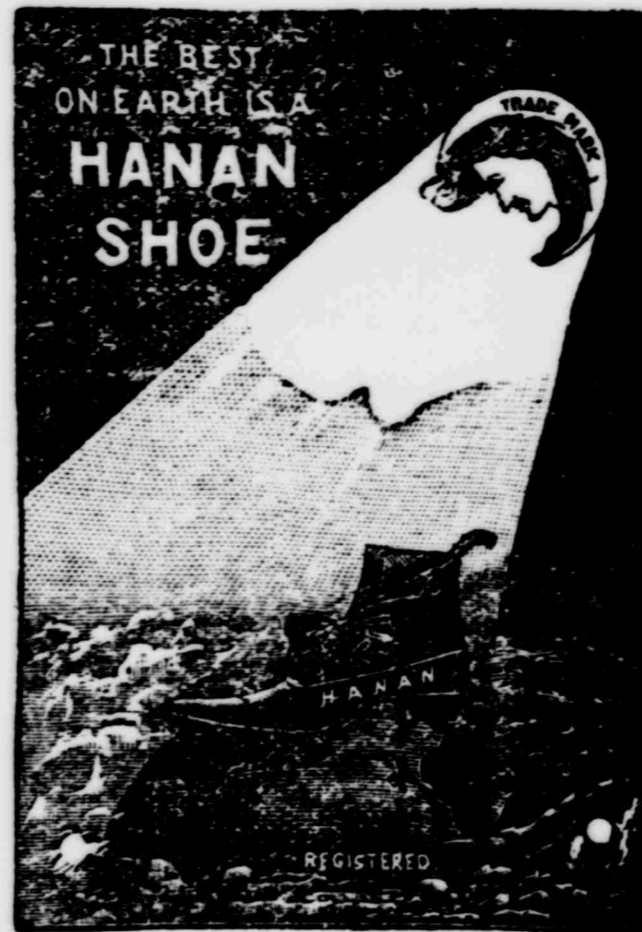

Chairman Robert McNamee of Lake read the report of the committee on platform. As it would fill three columns of the Star, we give the gist of the 36 paragraphs:

National Questions

1. Declaration of principles.
2. Indorse Chicago platform.
3. Indorse Bryan and his cause since adoption of Chicago platform.
4. Extol Bryan as a model patriot and great leader and his work since President McKinley refused to send him to the front during the Spanish war, and instruct Florida delegates to vote for him for presidential nominee.
5. Denounce republican legislation in maintaining a large standing army as subversive of the principles of liberty and government set up in Porto Rico.
6. Favor carrying out pledges made to Cuba and carry out similar policy towards the Philippines.
7. Down on trusts and a question that must be settled at the coming election.
8. Tariff on a revenue basis and a free list on all articles, the prices of which are fixed by trusts and combines.
9. Repeal of all war taxes.
10. Favor income tax.
11. Favor 16 to 1 and opposed to national banks using currency based on the credit of the United States. That currency by the U. S. is quite as good as bonds and saves interest.
12. Expresses sympathy for struggling Boers; denounced republican administration for subservency to England's land grabbing scheme.
13. Favor government control of corporations and especially those engaged in transportation and want laws that will permit Interstate Commerce to control them.
14. Favor liberal river and harbor improvement, that cheaper transportation may result.
15. Favor prompt construction of Nicaragua canal, independent of control or power of any other power.
16. To amend constitution that election of U. S. senators will be by direct vote of the people.

State Affairs

17. Liberal support and development of the public school system.
18. Improvement of public roads with convict labor available.
19. A liberal policy toward state troops and naval matters.
20. Favor municipal ownership of all public utilities and laws looking to that end.
21. Constitutional amendment to tax all corporate franchises, inheritances, gifts, etc.
22. Favor remedy for more judges to relieve congested court dockets and ask for three more judges.
23. A warning against republicans claiming to be democrats in subsidizing the press of the state and teaching false doctrines.
24. Favor universal primaries for all state officers and U. S. senators.
25. Favor removal of state capital by submitting it to a primary vote November 6.
26. Provisions for said primary.
27. That in case another place than Tallahassee receive a plurality of votes for said removal, then for the legislature to provide a submission to the electors.
28. To provide for said primary such appointive county officers as may be necessary during the next two years.
29. That the nominee for governor shall appoint such nominees and not appoint any person not nominated by primaries.
30. Demand a radical reform in the state convict system.
31. Are satisfied with the labors of the state railroad commission.
32. Each nominee of this convention by his acceptance shall stand pledged to its actions.
33. State committee shall consist of a member from each county and one at large, appointed by each nominee of this convention.

Barrs of Duval, be requested to prepare a proper primary law for the legislature's enactment and rules and regulations for holding primaries for consideration of executive committee.
