Paint as an Asset.

Barbers Say They Lent More Money on Property Than on Buildings Are Well Painted.

An Indication of Thrift.

One Conserves 25 Per Cent More for Building Than for Paint Every Five Years.

Does it pay to paint carefully and provide the best paint you can afford? A careful inquiry of a number of Ocala barbers indicates that it does.

Barbers in all parts of the city, from Monticello, Citra, and Melrose, have been loaning more money on property than they have on buildings.

The barbers say that while many borrowers have paid on their buildings because they have been adorned with good paint, they have not done so where their property was not painted.

The barbers maintain that their businesses are in better condition to-day than they were last year, and they attribute this to the careful painting of their properties.
