"RUFFING IT" is the most favorite occupation of young ladies these hard times. Since the sitting in at the recent cold snap the worshippers at the shrine of Baccus have increased.

It is now about time to report the original we extremely nohappy in co sequence. one of our city officials, and being granted Would it not be well to vary the monotony and add "hash" and "mince pie ?"

Yesterday afternoon a party of boys wen across the river to hunt the festive squirrel While browsing around in the brush one of the guns was accidentaly di charged and the load took effect in the head of a young lad named Henry Heley. His face and skull wes badly peppered with the leaden pellets, but it m thought that he will recover. Parents should be more careful about allowing their children to roam about with shooting ross in such a careless manner.

Burned to Death. The Clyde Reporter says that a lady, living near Scandinavia, whose name they had and been able to secretain met with a terrible and fatal accident a few days ago. It ap pears that she had started across the prairie to go to a neighbor's house, and having to travel near a spot over which one of those execrable prairie fire was rapidly forcing its way amid the tall grass, suddenly became surrounded by the angry flames. Seeing, in a certain direction, that the first element was somewhat abated, and that the fismes were apparently dying away, she earnestly but vainly attempted to escape.
On crossing the small red line, her clothes caught fire, and before any help could reach, her she succumbed in the wild torments which neither tongue nor pen can describe.

Chicago was due at the depot, a charming country lass, about fifteen years old, came pair of horses to a farm wagon, in which a number of persons, including some full grown male specimens, occupied the back seat. The drivers of the omnibuses and express wagons were thunder struck at the dexterity with which the little maid handled the ribbons, and turned and backed the passengers were landed just as the train came in a frightful manner, when a bystander essayed to hold the fiery steeds, but the country lassic just gave him one look of up Cherokee street at a three minute and lock of up Cherokee street at a three minute and lock of and is, without doubt, one of the finest boxes.

The fashion of wearing wide ruffs is revived, but we trust they will not attain to the dimensions of the ruff of the Elizabethan ange, The wearer of the ruff was then, it is said, in a state of ceaseless agony lest its fine inflexibility should be broken or injured, and drew back from all who approached too mear, crying, "Notes oclose; thy breath will draw my ruff." It is called the "Texas and Colorado saloon." This house has had a board nailed upon it for some time, upon which was painted "House and Furniture for Sale." A few days ago a stranger entered the house, and after a brief sconversation with Louis Mezzadre, the old Frenchman owning the saloon, concluded the purchase, and yester by afternoon called upon the proprietor with witnesses to consumate the trade. The terms of the trade were these:

SHIRTS AND DRAWERS

It leaves no headache, no depression of spirits, and no constipation of the bowels. It makes a well man of the sick one, nor does it require weeks and months to effect a cure.

Wilhoft's Tonic contains no poison, it contains no arrenic or mercury, and is as safe for an infant as for the strong, robust man.

The above list has been necessarily condensed. Besides the above I have in stock a large variety of gloves, hats, neck wear, Carligan knit and office jackets, rubber clothing, paper and finen col ars, trunks, valies and stachels, suspenders and braces, a large line of handkerchiefs from the commonest cotten to the finest imported Foulari slik, her ery from $1$ per dozen to $9$, etc.

In conclusion I would say that note of the above goods are misrepresented. No Union Coth shall wood for All Wood. Satisfaction must and shall be given or money refunded, and so misrepresentations allowed to effect sales. In short, I want to do a straight forward business. It is a strong to the contains no arrenic or mercury, and is as safe for an infant as for the strong, robust man. Yours Very Respectfully,

JOHN SECKLER, 329 and 322, Shawnee St. Leavenworth, Kan.
