What shall I say of this greatest and most to descrice it, without attempting to give its Babyion below the ground, and seen and handled the works of art which have been 4. THE STATES OF THE GREAT CENTRAL d sinterred and created so much admiration of a semi-circular form, with its horns turned outwards, and along which a street extends Mr. President:—Not far from the city of Nashville, on the southern shore of the the doors. Indeed, a dozen or fitteen miles might be added to the length of the city in this direction, since there is nothing but an for this distance, which are as populous and well built as the city itself. In crossing the city from the shore to the western outskirts I have walked two miles and a half, and then proceeded on horseback for ten miles more, making twelve and a half in the whole, while in other places it may be wider authentic:
You are fond of cracking jokes at the expense of Arkansas; now here is one in your State absolutely true. I got it from an openity witness:
The District Court in one of your Northern parishes was in session; 'twas the first day of the Court—time, after dinner. Lawyers and others had dined, and were sitting out before the hotel, when a long, lank, unsophisticated countryman came up and unceremnoionsly made himself one of 'em, and remarked—

One city as large as seven fine towns in Berkshire county, and containing a population three times as large as that of the whole state of Massachusetts! That is enough to think of for a moment.—[Japan

Correspondence of the Boston Traveler. THE PROGRESS OF THE TELEGRAPH .-California papers announce that in March next San Francisco will be within ten day's telegraph communication with the Atlantic States.
