BARBERTON

BIRTHDAY

Of Mr. Frank Egbert Celebrated at Barberton.

(Special Correspondence.) Barberton, Nov. 20.—One of the social events of the past few days was the celebration of the 34th birthday of Mr. Frank Egbert, at his home on Rose st. It was participated in by 50 of his friends, and he was presented a fine rocking chair. Among those present were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ething, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Long, Mr. Bert Ething, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Egbert, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Egbert, Mr.

GRAIN-O

THE PURE GRAIN COFFEE.

The coffee habit is quickly overcome by those who let Grain-O take its place. If properly made it tastes like the best of coffee. No grain coffee compares with it in flavor or healthfulness.

TRY IT TO-DAY.

At grocers everywhere; 15c. and 25c. per package.

BAZAAR.

Barberton Church People Arranging For One.

(Special Correspondence.) Barberton, O., Nov. 20.—The First Reformed church of Barberton will hold a bazaar next week. It will begin Monday evening and continue until Wednesday evening. There will be booths in which fancy work, quilts, comfortable and kindred articles will be sold. There will also be a Thanksgiving market at the bazaar, in which turkeys, chickens and country produce will be sold.

COLD WEATHER

All That's Necessary to Start Indoor Baseball Season.

(Special Correspondence.) Barberton, O., Nov. 20.—Little has been heard in Barberton for some time about indoor baseball but the game will be played here this winter. As soon as it becomes cold, practice will be begun by two teams. The game will probably be played in Tracy hall. A league composed of teams from Barberton shops may be formed later on. Gene Wright, the Cleveland American league pitcher, will coach the teams in the game.

PREACHER EDITOR.

Rev. C. E. Ewing Has Two Jobs.

(Special Correspondence.) Barberton, O., Nov. 20.—Barberton has a preacher editor. He is Rev. C. E. Ewing, pastor of the First Reformed church. His publication is a monthly and is known as the "First Reformed Helper." The publication was first sent out in March. It has a circulation of 150. "I started the Helper," said Rev. Mr.

Ewing, "because I felt that there was need of a local religious paper in Barberton."

In the editorial section of the paper is the list of the officers of the church. They are: Elders—Fred Willems, J. E. Sleeth and M. L. Shook. Deacons—Chas. Lutz, Wm. George, and Wm. H. Becker. Sunday school Superintendent—A. E. Schneider.

BUTTER FAMINE.

Barbertonians Forced to Grease Their Bites With Oleo.

(Special Correspondence.) Barberton, Nov. 20.—"Oleomargarine used and sold here today," was the handwriting on the wall in a Barberton restaurant Wednesday. It meant that Barberton is temporarily suffering from a butter famine. "I tried everywhere to get butter," said the manager of the restaurant, "but I could not find any so I had to fall back on oleomargarine." One of the leading grocers stated also that butter was a decidedly scarce article. Creamery butter is selling at 32 cents per pound.

ANXIOUS

To Have It Over With.

City Coms. Start Out For New Hall.

Realize That Majority of Council Is With Them.

As predicted at the time the South Akron site for the new City hall was purchased, the city officials favoring the location are now anxious to put the building up at once. They seem to realize that circumstances were never more favorable to their scheme, and are unwilling to allow the opportunity to escape. At least, nine of the Councilmen will favor going ahead with the building, and three of the City Commissioners feel the same way about it. The city is allowed to issue bonds for such purposes as this to the amount of one per cent. of the total valuation of property.

DISAPPEARED

After Discovery of Shortage in Accounts. Millville, N. J., Nov. 20.—Following the discovery of an alleged shortage of $30,000 in his accounts, R. L. Howell, secretary of the Stock Building & Loan association, has disappeared. Howell left here a week ago, saying he was going to Philadelphia to have his eyes treated and he has not been seen or heard from since he went away.

AT FIRST GLANCE

It Would Appear That Local Remedies Would be Best For Cure of Catarrh.

It would seem at first glance that catarrh being a disease of the mucous membrane, that salves, sprays, etc., being applied directly to the membranes of the nose and throat would be the most rational treatment but this has been proven not to be true. The mucous membrane is made and repaired from the blood and catarrh is a blood disease and any remedy to make a permanent cure must act on the blood, and when the blood is purified from catarrhial poison, the secretions from the mucous membrane will become natural and healthy. In this climate, thousands of people seem scarcely ever free from some form of catarrh; it gets better at times but each winter becomes gradually deeper seated and after a time the sufferer resigns himself to it as a necessary evil. Catarrh cures are almost as numerous as catarrh sufferers, but are nearly all inconvenient and ineffective as to render their use a nuisance nearly as annoying as catarrh itself; anyone who has used douches, sprays and powders will bear witness to their inconvenience and failure to really cure. There are a number of excellent internal remedies for catarrh, but probably the best and certainly the safest is a new remedy, composed of Red Gum, Blood Root and similar anti-septic remedies and other valuable catarrh specifics. This remedy is in tablet form, pleasant to the taste and sold by druggists under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, and anyone suffering from catarrh may use these tablets with absolute assurance that they contain no cocaine, opiate nor any poisonous mineral whatever. A leading druggist in Albany speaking of catarrh cures says, "I have sold various catarrh cures for years, but have never sold any which gave such general satisfaction as Stuart's Catarrh Tablets. They contain in a pleasant, concentrated form all the best and latest catarrh remedies, and catarrh sufferers who have used douches, sprays and salves, have been astonished at the quick relief and permanent results obtained after a week's use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets." All druggists sell full sized packages for fifty cents.

FOR LOITERING.

One Arrest and Fine in the Latest Crusade.

Fred Stutz, a half grown boy, was fined $1 and costs in Police court Thursday morning, having pleaded guilty to a charge of loitering. Stutz was arrested in the vicinity of the Grand Opera house, and the police claim that he is one of a gang who spend considerable time about the doors of the theater. This is the first arrest since the last determination of the police to break up the practice of loitering, but it is stated that more arrests will follow.

ILL FATED.

Record of Kilbuck Station of C., A. & Co. The C., A. & C. station at Kilbuck seems to be ill fated. In 1897 Agent Fred A. Penderwood, one of the most popular on the line, was foully murdered by being shot with a shot gun. His body was found on the railroad track a few minutes after the shooting. Yet his murderer was never apprehended. Warner Strause was his successor. The station has been burglarized several times and the position of agent is not a very desirable one.

Cured of Piles After 40 Years.

Mr. C. Haney, of Geneva, O., had the piles for forty years. Doctors and dollars could do him no lasting good. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him permanently. Invaluable for cuts, bruises, sprains, lacerations, eczema, tetter, salt rheum, and all other skin diseases. Look for the name DeWitt on the package—all others are cheap, worthless counterfeits. For sale by all druggists.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP

San Francisco, Cal. Louisville, Ky. New York, N. Y. FOR SALE BY ALL LEADING DRUGGISTS.

ORDER NOW FOR CHRISTMAS

The ENCYCLOPEDIA BRITANNICA will make an ideal Christmas present. That goes without saying. Yet you may wonder why we are mentioning the fact now. It is by way of warning. By the first of December we will not promise to deliver books for Christmas except in very urgent cases. It takes about thirty days to fill an order for BRITANNICA, on account of the large number of orders constantly coming in. Last year we were sold so far ahead that it was impossible to make immediate deliveries, and we were forced to decline accepting Christmas orders. Many patrons offered to pay us the full price in advance for sets, but we could not except their orders.

25,265 Sets Were Sold

during last year. And more were ordered. But the largest book manufacturing in the United States found it impossible to keep pace with the demand. We could only file orders as they were received for future delivery. But many would-be Christmas patrons were disappointed.

We Therefore Give Fair Warning!

If you want a set of the ENCYCLOPEDIA BRITANNICA for a Christmas present, send the Inquiry Coupon to us AT ONCE. It will bring you full particulars, and also entitle you to a handsome bookcase, which will lend finish and added dignity to your gift. All applications will be filed in the order received.

The New 20th Century Edition is a marvel of completeness. Comprising 31 volumes of 25,000 large pages, it opens up every vein of knowledge known to mankind. No less than three millions of dollars were spent in its preparation. The world's greatest scholars have labored over it for one hundred years. That is why the BRITANNICA is recognized as the king of encyclopedias all over the globe.

Pay For It AFTER Christmas!

BRITANNICA takes little of your Christmas money—nothing beyond the first payments. Afterward it may be paid for a little at a time—when you will hardly feel the outlay. And if you order now, you get it at

LESS THAN HALF PRICE.

IT CONTAINS: 15,500 articles, averaging 3 1/2 pages each. 3,200 articles written and signed by specialists, or 145 per volume. 15,500 pages compiled by special contributors, forming four-fifths of the entire work. 238 full-page engraved plates, maps and plans, including 237 colored maps. Nearly 15,000 illustrations, exclusive of maps and plans. Special Features of the 3-Vol. American Addition: 1. An extension of the original articles on the arts and sciences down to the present day. 2. Introduction of new topics arising from new developments of science or from new discoveries and new inventions. 3. Biographical enlargement, to include eminent living persons and the hundreds who have recently won distinction. 4. A particular survey of American interests in their various phases. 5. A presentation of technical subjects in a form comprehensible to ordinary readers, as in the treatment of Electricity, Morphology, &c. 6. Copious illustrations, over 1,500 in number. The Guide to Systematic Readings Subdivides the whole work into departments, outlining 73 different courses of reading, and points out the things you want to know, or ought to know, about your business or profession. Furthermore, it makes systematic reading along any line practical.

WHAT IS SAID OF IT:

"It is without a peer in the whole noble army of encyclopedias."—LYMAN ABBOTT, D. D. "The Encyclopaedia Britannica is King of its tribe."—PROF. DAVID SWING. "The most useful reference book for young or old is the Encyclopaedia Britannica. Children beginning at 10 years old and on need its stories of historical, biographical, historical, elementary scientific, natural history information. The user may study halcyon kinds of dogs or hieroglyphs, locomotives, habits of the house fly or cockroach. The youth may want information on subjects from geology or electricity to the settlements of the Fiji Islands, or volcanoes and earthquakes, or a most fascinating story of Napoleon; and for the still older all the fundamental conceptions of law, medicine, theology, ethics, sociology, curves and functions, architecture, art—all the way up, perhaps, to the origin of some base editorial on Chinese metaphysics. Whether for education or information, no man who once has this book will ever let himself or his children be without constant access to it. If such a man, and the father of a family, has this book, he secures a book, this is beyond any doubt true."—CLEMENT BATES, Judge of Court, Cincinnati, Ohio.
