AKRON—OFFICIAL. AN ORDINANCE To change the name of Benjamin street to Westwood avenue.

Whereas, a petition has been presented to the council for the changing of the name of Benjamin street to Westwood avenue, and

Whereas, upon hearing, the council is satisfied that there is just cause for such change of name, and that the same would be beneficial to the general interests and should be made; therefore,

Be it ordained by the council of the city of Akron, state of Ohio:

Section 1. That the name of Benjamin street be and the same is hereby changed to Westwood avenue.

Section 2. That this ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and local publication.

Passed Dec. 15, 1903. J. W. SEIDELL, Mayor. CHARLES H. ISBELL, City Clerk.

AN ORDINANCE Granting to the Akron & Barberton Belt Railroad company rights to cross and occupy certain streets and alleys in the city of Akron Ohio.

Whereas, the Akron & Barberton Belt Railroad company desires to cross and occupy certain streets and alleys in the city of Akron, Ohio, for the purpose of constructing and operating a railroad,

Whereas, in pursuance of the ordinance of said city, said company has filed with the city clerk a petition for permission to cross the streets and alleys heretofore named, with a single or double track the center line of which shall be along the located line of said railroad, in the manner and upon the conditions following to-wit:

Cook avenue—To cross Cook avenue at the present surface grade, said located line of street shall intersect the located line at a point eighty (80) feet south of the southerly line of Market street.

And said grantee herein is to raise the superstructure of the bridge over Little Chuyahoga river lying south of proposed track to a height not exceeding six (6) feet, with the proper abutments and piers, and to grade the approaches to said bridge to the satisfaction of said
