Big Game For Ohio, Maybe

Ohio big game hunters may not have to go outside the state to purchase their licenses this year. Governor James A. Garfield of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources has announced that he will recommend to the legislature the establishment of a state game preserve. This would enable Ohio hunters to purchase their licenses in the state, without having to travel out of the state.

Great Platform By Democrats

The platform of the Democratic party of Ohio was adopted yesterday at the convention held in Columbus. The platform calls for the establishment of a state game preserve and the establishment of a state farm. The platform also calls for the establishment of a state park system and the establishment of a state library system. The platform was adopted without a vote, and the delegates were unanimous in their support of the platform.
