LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Spy of Atlanta.

—We wish all our readers a Merry Christmas.

—Shall the Wellington Band have a new uniform?

—Go to the new Cigar and Tobacco Store, and get some of that 50 cent Tobacco.

—Mr. Jessie Finner's dialect as Jake Schneider in "Spy of Atlanta" is simply immense.

—Ladies' Cloaks and Circles, latest styles, cheap, $3.00 and upwards at Wm. Rinegar's.

—A choice lot of Tobaccos at A. P. Dimock's, at Jobbers' prices. 84c.

—Pete in "The Spy of Atlanta" begs leave to inform you that "Dars more enough for all".

—S. P. Hastings has just received a second twenty-five lot of those favorite Domestic Sewing Machines, for the holiday trade.

—Only four cars of live geese moving eastward one day last week. They surely are going to keep Christmas somewhere.

—The artisan will be tried once more this winter, with the hope of getting plenty of water, or enough to fill the crater.

—All colors of perforated board, also gilt and silver card board, at Houghton's; also a very choice new lot of scrap pictures for applique work.

—Maj. Bartley tells us that he seldom meets with a full cast for his play who are all as good as the Ladies and Gents who are taking parts in Wellington.

—We notice that an overwhelming amount of trade is being done by our merchants, and many customers complain that they cannot get waited upon.

—When you are in town stop at A. P. Dimock's cigar and tobacco store; he has got something to show you. 84c.

—The unusual demands upon our time and strength at this season of the year, may account for any seeming lack of attention to the matter of the paper this week.

—Everett & Starr make their best bow to their customers and the public through an advertisement in our columns in this issue. They are having a fine Holiday trade, and are deserving of their success.

—As we go to press earlier than usual, so as to get the paper out of the way of Christmas Eve festivities, great preparations are going on at the churches, decorating, arranging, receiving and putting gifts on the trees.

—I will tell you what would be a very acceptable holiday present. One of Harvey's warm scarfs, mufflers, gloves, mitts, or even a silk handkerchief. He says he will be in readiness for the emergency this week. 13c.

—Our near neighbor, Mr. Wright, has a full corps of help, and all are busy displaying staple holiday articles to numerous customers. Look at his elegant assortment of fine goods, and note the prices; then of course you will not look further.

—Editors, printers and all hands at the ENTERPRISE office were generously remembered with wedding cake, fruit, etc., when the marriage notices in this paper were sent. The newly married couples have the best wishes of the ENTERPRISE family.

—Notice the new ad. of the Domestic Sewing Machine Company in this issue. They have lately got out some of the finest styles ever put on the market by any sewing machine company. They are on exhibition at Hastings' rooms, Benedict Block.

—The value of the series of articles by Mr. E. P. Roe, now appearing in Scribner's Monthly, is not only appreciated by thousands of people who are trying to amuse themselves by reading of different kinds, but is bringing words of high praise from experienced horticulturists.

—Warren Opt was arrested by Mr. Marshall, Monday, in Wood county, charged with stealing an overcoat from Mr. Gosling about two weeks since. He is also wanted in Seneca county, on a charge of forgery, for which he was arrested and broke jail. As that case is of greater consequence than this, he will probably be returned there for trial. He acknowledges he stole the overcoat.

—Personal.

—Wm. Vischer and family have gone east to spend the Holidays.

—S. S. Parker and family, will take their Christmas turkey with friends in Lorain, Ohio.

—Miss Nettie Keyes, after a two years absence mostly spent in Texas, is visiting friends in Wellington.

—The cousins, R. Cort and Norton Horst, are home from Cornell College, spending their holiday vacation.

—Charles Willard of Cleveland, is spending the holidays with relatives and friends in Wellington.

—Ellis Hawk, Esq., has been ill for some days with erysipelas in the limb broken two or three years ago.

—Mr. Higgins, Supt. of telegraph line, was in town Tuesday looking after the interests of the company.

—Mrs. Russell Webster is very low with congestion of the lungs, and very little hope of her recovery is entertained.

—The Rev. O. D. Fisher, of Cleveland, exchanged pulpits with Mr. Daly last Sabbath, and was the guest of Mr. Geo. Fisher.

—Mrs. Gideon Adams has been falling rapidly the past week, and her death is not unlooked for.

—Misses Florence and May Adams, and Harry Manchester, have been visiting Mrs. Brannan and other relatives here.

—Mrs. Fanny B. Richmond, a highly respected and aged resident of Penfield, died last week Friday morning, of paralysis, after a few days illness.

—Mrs. F. R. Loomis is moving from Medina to Newark, led valuable clothing by trunk, being broken open, in a freight car with household goods.

—Mr. Eugene Walcott, a former type in the ENTERPRISE office, beamed upon us on Friday last, and was warmly greeted all round. He is still employed in the Cleveland Homoeopathic Dispensary.

—R. B. Thomas, general manager, Robt. Blevins, superintendent, and Mr. Ford, engineer of the C. C. & I. Ry., came to town on a special train Monday, to complete the leasing of grounds for warehouse purposes.

—Miss Frances J. Hoyt, only daughter of Rev. F. S. Hoyt, editor of the Western Christian Advocate, was married in St. Paul's Church, Cincinnati, Dec. 13th, to Percy S. Dyer, the ceremony being performed by Bishop Wiley.

—Dr. McClaran has so far recovered that he has for several days been attending to his office business and practice in the village, and he will hereafter answer calls from the country, within a reasonable distance.

—Mrs. S. T. Martin, author of the "Woman of the Bible," "The Crescent and the Cross," "Times of Knox and Mary Stuart," "Eugenia in France," "Margaret of Navarre," and many other volumes, lately died in New York city.

—Mr. Miles Hart, twenty years ago or more a Penfield boy, came in from Chicago, Tuesday morning, and with wife and daughter is hunting up the old land-marks about his native place. He will find his former school-mates with frost about their temples, their children shouting on the play-ground, and very few left of those who owned the farms and were the head of the households a score of years ago.

—The funeral services were conducted at the house by Rev. J. A. Daly, Saturday, Dec. 13th, and the remains were interred in the old burial grounds, beside the forms of loved ones gone before.

—A life as pure, so truly good, with kindly deed innumerable, departing leave a monument of greatness worth, by wisdom bought.

—The family desire to express their most sincere thanks to the friends who so kindly rendered their services during the time of sickness and afflictions consequent thereto. Words are inadequate to express the words of sympathy tendered at such times. May all receive full measure of such gifts in time of need, is the heartfelt wish of the family.

—Late News Notes.

—The wife of Bishop Scott of the M. E. Church, died at Odessa, Delaware, Nov. 25th.

—Lorain county has had three boys at the Reform School at Lancaster, in the past year.

—Elder Garvin is holding a protracted meeting in the Disciple Church, at Cuyahoga Falls.

—The Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware, has had five hundred students the last term.

—It costs Akron $340,000 a year for liquor, while the city government schools and church expenses are not more than two-thirds that sum.

—State Senator-elect Henry B. Perkins of Warrens has lately had eight or ten ounces of foreign matter removed from his liver by a surgical operation and is restored to health.

—A stranger called at the home of a family named Stumph, a short distance east of town one day this week, with a parcel of goods, which he said was the property of another man. He desired to leave them in the care of the family until the owner called for them, but must have a receipt to show him where they were. He produced the receipt, it was signed and he departed. It has since turned out to be a note for $55. The swindler is gone, nobody knows where. Look out for him,—Gallion Sun.

—The recent advance in all kinds of merchandise has carried paper up to the highest point, and the cost of blank paper costs the publishers nearly twice as much per ream as it did two months ago. A man handling merchandise would mark his goods up to conform with the great advance, and many publishers of newspapers have found it necessary to advance the subscription price of their papers. We shall endeavor to furnish the Record at the usual price, $1.50 per year, but in so doing we must exact more prompt payment on the part of our subscribers. Our business is limited, and we cannot carry several hundred papers through the whole year on credit. The city publisher always receives his pay in advance; the country publisher, whose expenses in issuing his paper far exceed those of the city publisher, should certainly receive the same consideration.—New Lorain Record.

—The above has a wide application.—Ed. ENTERPRISE.

—The annual meeting for the election of officers of the Wellington Union Agricultural Society, will be held at the Town Hall, in Wellington, on Tuesday, January 13th, 1880, at 10 o'clock A. M. F. B. MAXLEY, Pres.

—R. N. GOODWIN, Sec.

All coughs, croup, asthma and bronchitis yield at once, hence, it is that everybody speaks in its praise. To those who have not used it, let us say, if you have a cough, or your child the croup, and you value life, don't let it try to. For lame back, side or chest, use Shiloh's Forous Plaster. Sold by your druggist, Everett & Starr.

—A single week is often the limit of a case of pneumonia—a child's life is often terminated by one hour of croup. Thomas' Electric Oil has been known to cure a cough in 24 or 48 hours. Take these facts into consideration, and bear in mind also, this medicine remedies sores, pain, stiffness, and a variety of other troubles, mentioned in advertisement in another column.

—A Strange People.

—Do you know that there are strange people in our community, we say strange because they seem to prefer to suffer and pass their days miserably, made so by dyspepsia and liver complaint, indigestion, constipation and general debility, when Shiloh's Vitalizer is guaranteed to cure them. Sold by Everett & Starr.

—An Honest Medicine Free of Charge.

—Of all medicines advertised to cure an affection of the throat, chest or lungs, we know of none we can recommend so highly as Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, croup, whooping cough, asthma, bronchitis, hay fever, hoarseness, tickling in the throat, loss of voice, etc. This medicine does positively cure, and that where everything else has failed. No medicine can show one-half so many positive and permanent cures as have already been effected by this truly wonderful remedy.
