SHE "How fortunate it is John Henry that Mr. Fitch has opened the old New York Clothing House, next to Otterbacher's. You know he always gave you elegant fitting clothing and at reasonable prices."

HE "Yes he always kept the best and cheapest Clothing I could find. A man on Prospect street still wears an overcoat that Fitch sold him 20 years ago and they say the new stock that he has just put in beats anything ever seen hereabouts. Besides Fitch never resorts to the city humbug way of advertising, charging 49 or 59 cents for a 50 cent shirt and then make a man pay 99 cents for one that is worth only 75c. A city humbug house advertises suits worth $20 for $12.88 and some folks think they must be cheap because they have done some odd cent figuring, but Fitch sold the same goods for $8. By the way I saw some boys pants down there for twenty cents that will wear like iron. It's cheaper than you can buy the cloth. Get Tommy two pairs and and tell Al and Nelson, the two gentlemanly clerks, that the Cluetts Shirts and Crown Collars beat anything I ever had at twice the money, and those silk lined worsted suits are very nobby and cheap, and the silk hat for $5 sells for $6 in the city. Everything is new and stylish and cheap and marked in plain figures and one price to all, and no misrepresentation nor tricks allowed at the NEW YORK CLOTHING HOUSE.

PLAIN HISTORY.

Swift's Specific is a simple vegetable compound, prepared from roots gathered freely from the forest, and contains nothing of the mineral kingdom, or any poisonous substance, or any article at all which come from the chemist's laboratory.
The formula of the remedy was obtained from the Creek Indians in Middle Georgia, by reliable white men, who had witnessed the wonderful cures made by that tribe of Indians of blood diseases.
Mr Hugh L. Demard of Houston county, Ga., began using Swift's Specific in 1826, and continued its use all of his life, and asserted that he had never known it to fail to cure any case of acrofula, blood taint, or contagious blood poison. This testimony has been corroborated every day for years. The present company was formed in 1879, and have since made known to the world the virtues of Swift's Specific, and to-day it is sold in every city, town and country store all over America, Great Britain, and many other portions of the globe.
I have seen Swift's Specific used, and known of many cases of the worst form of blood diseases which have been cured by it. I know the proprietors to be gentlemen of the highest type and utmost reliability. I recommend it as a great blood remedy, unequalled by anything that I know of.

That Tired Feeling
Season is here again, and nearly every one feels weak, languid, and exhausted. The blood, laden with impurities which have been accumulating for months, moves sluggishly through the veins, the mind fails to think quickly, and the body is still slower to respond. Hood's Sarsaparilla is just what is needed. It is, in a peculiar sense, the ideal spring medicine. It purifies, vitalizes, and enriches the blood, makes the head clear, creates an appetite, overcomes that tired feeling, and imparts new strength and vigor to the whole body.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constant failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F J Cheney & Co, Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly upon the blood and mucus surface of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F J Cheney & Co, Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

R. N. GOODWIN, Esq., Wellington, O.
Dear Sir:—Your favor of the 4th has lain several weeks awaiting my return from an extended absence. Please pardon me. That we do make progress in spite of the most persistent misrepresentations of the stone fraternity is arguing well for the good sense of the public. I have replaced many marble monuments with White Bronze and have a contract now to replace a gray granite less than five years exposed to the weather, putting in its place No. 308 White Bronze. This is to go in Brookside Cemetery at Watertown, N. Y., perhaps the finest cemetery in northern N. Y. It is to stand near the Henry Keel mausoleum that cost $125,000 of granite, and which is itself going to decay and ruin being covered with thousands of patches of moss though less than twenty-five years old. Close by stands the "Mundy" Sarcophagus of imported granite which though but eighteen years old, costing $3000 has seventeen cracks in one side of it, two of which are over twenty inches long. These and several other jobs in as bad condition were the clinching arguments that decided the exchange of the "Fuller" eight-foot granite monument for White Bronze. I have another prospective customer in the same cemetery who has a fine gray Scotch granite monument which cost him $400 in December last (bran new) which he offers to sell very cheap, being thoroughly disgusted with stone and purposes to put a White Bronze in its place. I have just erected No. 519 "McMillan" at Watertown, the purchaser of which had contracted for a $1000 granite monument but bought off and canceled the contract to put up a more artistic and durable monument in its place. It is needless to say that perfect satisfaction is the result of the exchange. The great difficulty is to get people to fairly investigate. But the world does move notwithstanding there still live some who do not believe it.

Yours Truly,
B. W. BAKER.
