When Others Fall

Hood's Sarsaparilla builds up the shattered system by giving vigorous action to the digestive organs, creating an appetite and purifying the blood. It is prepared by modern methods, possesses the greatest curative powers, and has the most wonderful record of actual cures of any medicine in existence. Take only Hood's.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, and do not purge, pain or gripe. 25 cents.

OBITUARY.

The late Mrs. L. Caroline Woodworth, the subject of this sketch, was the daughter of Rev. Alvin Wales, of Madison county, New York. In September, 1823, she was married to Hiram Woodworth. January, 1829, the young couple moved into a hotel, which they conducted two and a half years, and at the end of that time they exchanged for property in Rochester township, and on May 22, 1832, Mr. and Mrs. Woodworth arrived in their forest home. From the time of their arrival until the middle of the following September the pioneer couple lived in the most primitive manner, their rude hut being furnished with neither door, window nor even a chair of any sort, much less any other kind of furniture. After thirty years of labor on this forest home it had been transformed into a beautiful farm. They then sold the old homestead and moved on a farm north of the village of Wellington and there resided three years, when they bought and moved into the American hotel, at Wellington.

After her husband's death she made the hotel her home until she bought a home on Magyar street. Here she lived for many years in the enjoyment of what their labor and privations had brought them. Had Mrs. Woodworth lived until November 27 she would have been eighty-five years old, and up to the last sickness had always enjoyed good health, and her quick, elastic step and bright, cheerful ways were the remark of all who knew her.

Her last sickness was that most distressing malady, cancer of the tongue, but she bore all with great patience. She had been for many years a member of the Congregational church and had selected the fourteenth chapter of John to be read at her funeral and from which the remarks were read commencing with those comforting words, "Let not your heart be troubled," conducted by her former pastor and neighbor, Rev. S. S. D. Gammell, assisted by Rev. A. F. Skeele.

The last time that Mrs. Woodworth was able to attend public worship was June 24, when a special service had been arranged by the pastor for elderly people from the words, "At evening time it shall be light," and of two of the aged people present, Mrs. Woodworth and Mrs. Hand, it was the last time they were able to attend the church they loved so well.

Four daughters and one son were born to Mr. and Mrs. Woodworth, Mrs. D. L. Wadsworth, of Wellington, Mrs. F. M. Sheldon, of Hornellsville, N. Y., Mrs. S. E. Wilcox, and Warren Woodworth. The eldest daughter, Mrs. Braman, died in early womanhood. Seven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren are left to cherish the memory of a noble mother.

RESOLUTIONS.

Hall Lorain Lodge No. 281, I. O. O. F. Oct. 23, 1894. The following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, The Great Ruler of the universe has, in his infinite wisdom, removed from our midst our worthy and esteemed brother, Nicolas Smith, and

Whereas, The intimate and friendly relations held by him with the order of Odd Fellows, makes it fitting that his brethren record our appreciation of him, therefore be it

Resolved, That the removal of this brother leaves a vacancy in, and is a great loss to our fraternity.

Resolved, That with deep sympathy with the afflicted family and friends of the deceased, we hold his companionship in grateful remembrance.

Resolved, That our charter be draped in mourning for thirty days, and that these resolutions be spread upon our minutes and printed in the Enterprise and a copy sent to the family of the deceased.
