THERE'S A HOLE IN IT SOMEWHERE.

You can't get something for nothing, neither can you beat a man at his own game, when he offers $6, $7 and $8 suits at $5, the former prices are in his mind only and are fictitious values. You can buy a suit to-day for $5 that would have cost $6.50 three years ago. A $5 suit then and a $5 suit now are an entirely different thing. Advertising the $5 suit of to-day as a $7 or $8 suit to be closed out at $5 is misleading. We sold nine, $5 suits on Saturday last and we're told repeatedly that they were superior to any in the village for that money, but leaving them, we want to speak of that in which we take special pride—the Tailor Made Goods we sell and which are gotten up by Crouse & Brandegee, for it is the best in the world. Each garment is drafted and cut singly and by hand. It is also trimmed and put together by the most skilled tailors and is equal to the finest custom work. We are having a nice trade on this line and invite all to examine it.

We have just received a fine line of Golf and Bicycle suits of the latest and most approved styles.

Our line of crash hats, collars and cuffs, fancy shirts, hose, shoes, etc. etc., is complete and we are doing business at the old stand.

HOW THE BOYS IN BLUE FIND THINGS DOWN THERE.

Headed for Tampa, the Fifth Passes South and Views new Scenes—Everybody is Enjoying the Trip—T'will fit Them for What the Future will Probably Bring. Actual Service.

On Board the Train at Tampa.

Lumber City, Ga., May 21, 1898.

Dear Folk at Home:—It is hotter than it was. The trip is immense; it will over-balance the sand-flies and mosquitoes we will have to contend with at Tampa.

Last night was cool and moonlight. I sat up all but about two hours, watching the scenery. It is grand and growing grander all the way. I have seen "razor backs" (wild hogs) all day to-day, with snouts as long as my arm. We pass through groves of pink and white magnolias in full bloom, with fragrance almost sickening. One of the officers brought one through the car as large as my head. Have also seen wild oranges with blossoms three inches across, as sweet as nectar and white as ivory. We can almost reach them from the car-window.

Last night, we stopped in Chattanooga for three hours and saw something of the town. The funniest thing I saw was a sprinkler. The outfit was, a doukey hitched to a two-wheeled cart, with two barrels strapped on, and driven by a negro with a little negro in behind, with a sprinkling-can, swinging it from one side to the other as the cart moved. We saw Lookout Mountain and the battlefield of Chickamauga last night by moonlight. We are now going through a dense pine forest, and it smells pitchy enough. Nearly all the pine-trees are "boxed" or "tapped" for pitch. We see large swamps filled with wild palms, such as the ladies in the north treasure. The most interesting thing is to watch the change in vegetation, from the freshly planted fields in Ohio to the ripe oats here. The corn in Ohio is just out of the ground, and here it is five feet tall and tassled out. There is a flower that is very common here with a shape like a tin horn, growing out of the ground about 18 inches high and 4 inches across the top; then another just as big grows out of it and a stamen out of that, in all about 3½ feet high, beginning with a cream and shading to a very rich yellow at the top. It is very beautiful. We just saw a small pine grove of about twenty trees on fire. It is very dry here. I am enjoying myself to the full extent of the law, and have forgotten all cares.

At Everet, Ga., while the train was standing at the depot a spent bullet from a 32-caliber revolver broke a window in our car. Don't know anything about where it came from; nobody was hurt.

They say we have a 30-mile march after we reach Tampa, but I don't care. I could stand a 100-mile march after this trip. You may think I am over-enthusiastic over this trip, but everyone is the same way. It will all be over in 24 hours, as we arrive in Tampa to-morrow evening.

Here is the route we have taken: Pan Handle from Columbus to Cincinnati; Louisville & Nashville to Nashville; Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis to Atlanta; Southern Ry. via Macon to Everet, Ga., then on the Fla. & P. Ry. via Jacksonville to Tampa.

Your loving son,
Frank.

Tampa, Fla., June 1, 1898.

Dear Parents:

I received your letter May 30; also the stamps. Decoration day was observed by the fifth regiment during the day. We had no drill whatever, in fact it was a holiday for us, and we were turned loose and allowed to go anywhere, but at 6 o'clock the regiment was called together for divine service. Col. Kennan made us a speech during the day, and ex-Mayor Coffinberry made a few remarks in behalf of the different ones who had gone from us since we left Cleveland; also one private and a corporal made some remarks, all of which were very touching, and it was pretty hard for me to keep back the tears some of the time. Rev. McConnell preached for us in the evening. The boys seem to like him very much, although there was a strong attachment to our former chaplain, Rev. Mitchell, who left us at Columbus. I started this letter before dinner, but did not have time to finish it, so five of us boys came over to Palmetto Beach to write as it is much pleasanter here and there are tables here for us to write on. I think it is going to rain; it looks very much like it. Just think of it, they say that there has been no rain here for five months, so you can imagine how dry it is.

Palmetto Beach is a very pretty place, there are many kinds of palms here, varying in size from one foot to 100 feet in height. There are also many amusement places here, such as a dancing pavilion, billiard and pool hall, bowling alley, saloon, soft-drinks stands, cafes, etc., also a hotel and bath-houses, etc.

But this is more of a winter resort than summer, so many of these places are not open now. However the boys have monopolized everything, for there is nothing to good for some of them.

Well, I guess the time for for us to get ready for action is fast approaching, for the colonel received word yesterday to have the regiment ready for the field on short notice, so we have our knapsacks all packed and it will not take long to drop the tents and be ready to move. None of us boys have the least idea where; some say one thing and some another.

I was not feeling quite as well as usual yesterday, but after going to the hospital I got relief and am all right again now.

I received a very nice letter from my former employer, Mr. Alten, last Saturday evening, saying that he had had an application for my room, but he thought I might possibly re-occupy it myself. He was very much in hopes I might return; also the rest of the boys from Lorain who were in camp—in fact his letter made me feel pretty good, especially the present of a two-dollar bill; not that I had any necessary use for the money, but for the kindness is what I appreciate. He said, "Clarence, there is one thing you will see—lots of country," and I guess that's right too.

Well, how will it be about getting letters from home when I am in Cuba? I hope I may not be deprived of this pleasure, and perhaps there will be a way provided, anyway we will keep on writing, the ones you write will come back to you if I fail to get them, if this should be the case it will be pretty hard, but I am getting used to hardships somewhat, so that I can stand this if I have to.

I wonder what is going on down to Port Tampa, I can hear the cannons go "boom" every few minutes. You ought to see me in my government shoes, they look like regular gunboats, but nevertheless they are comfortable.

Well it is raining now at last, and how refreshing it is. I just now heard that we were not going to be allowed to carry our knapsacks, but to take along one pair of socks and one change of underwear and a towel, to be carried in our blankets. The balance of our stuff to be sent back. So according to that it looks very much as though we might get into actual service.

We had an excellent dinner to-day; beef-steak, potatoes, tomatoes, onions, rice soup, coffee with milk and last but not least comes hardtack. I was in bathing this morning, the first time since Sunday. The salt water still seems to agree with me.

Did I tell you of my change in the ranks? I am now leader of the second squad, and in the third column when marching in fours. Frank Hollenbach was over to call on me last night, giving me a look at the Enterprise. He is well. I am glad that Wellington is so patriotic as to have a company of its own, so that she may have a chance to show herself in the present war. I tell you what, this rain is refreshing. By the way Harry Rice, that is one of the boys in my mess, received a letter the other day saying his uncle, who lived in New York City had died and that he had fallen heir to a fifth of the estate, his share being a very nice amount. He wishes now he was back home, but that will do him no good, he is at work for Uncle Sam the same as I. I would be remembered to my friends and will close for this time.

Your loving son,
Clarence Ledyard.

Did You Take Scott's Emulsion

through the winter? If so, we are sure it quieted your cough, healed the rawness in your throat, increased your weight, gave you more color, and made you feel better in every way. But perhaps your cough has come back again, or you are getting a little thin and pale.

Then, why not continue the same helpful remedy right through the summer? It will do you as much good as when the weather is cold.

Its persistent use will certainly give you a better appetite and a stronger digestion.

It will cure your weak throat and heal your inflamed lungs. It will cure every case of consumption, when a cure is possible. Don't be persuaded to take something they say is just as good.

Death of Simon P. Barbor.

Simon P. Barbor died at his late residence at Camden, Ohio on May 21, 1898. Aged 70 years, 4 months and three days. He was a great sufferer for a number of years, but did not complain. For the last twenty-five years they have made their home in Camden. He leaves a wife and one sister to mourn his loss.

COUNTY FIELD DAY.

Wellington Boys Win Many Events.—A Fair Attendance at a Good Contest.

The Lorain County field day exercises held in Elyria last Saturday, in which Wellington and Elyria high schools took part, were well attended. The weather was fine, much enthusiasm was shown, and the events were hotly contested. Twenty-three handsome prizes were given away Wellington helping to carry them off, VanCleaf and Miller, of this place, winning several events. The boys made a good showing for the short time they have been in practice. The most enjoyable events were the bicycle races and pole vault. Roy, of Elyria, won the three bicycle races, with Adams, of this place, second. Frank VanCleaf was the star of the Wellington team, winning three events which Elyria contested.

Wellington was well represented and did their share in encouraging the boys, and does not take a back seat in the least in athletic sports. Summary:
