

THE CHRONICLE.

The following are extracted from a little book on Chronic Catarrh...

CATARH.

Stricture.—In the early stages of the disease the patient may be annoyed with "only a slight dropping in the throat," as many express it, the amount of mucus being so small that the passage of the head at this stage of the disease being only slightly in excess of health...

The secretion which is thus thrown out in the more advanced stages of Chronic Catarrh becomes so acid, unhealthy and poisonous, that it produces severe irritation and inflammation of the mucous membrane of the larynx and pharynx...

As the disease progresses, or frequently in the earlier stages, the throat is apt to become very sore, and a hacking cough is not infrequently creeping along the continuous lining mucous membrane of the air passages...

TREATMENT OF CATARRH.

If you would remove an evil, strike at its root. This is the "common sense" or rational way to treat Catarrh...

It is beyond all comparison the best preparation ever discovered for the relief of Catarrh. It is mild and pleasant to use, producing no smarting or pain, and contains no strong irritating or caustic ingredients...

DR. PIERCE'S NERVAL DOUCHE. Which carries it high up and applies it to all parts of the affected mucous membrane, and the channels and cavities communicating therewith...
