

HOME HAPPENINGS

Council meeting next Monday night. Windsor Calhoun's residence on High street is being painted. Monroe Hull is building a fine residence on his farm west of Dublin. Hay in the field has been selling at from $15 to $20 a ton in this neighborhood. There are still numerous weed patches about town which should be given attention. As yet little interest seems to be manifested in the primary elections to be held Tuesday, August 10. The annual reunion of the Brobst family will be held in Packard park, Warren, Wednesday, August 4. Cool weather last Saturday night kept down attendance at a festival given in the park by Youngtown parties. A large crowd is expected to attend the county grange picnic to be held Saturday on the Canfield fair grounds. Last Sunday afternoon the Canfield Odd Fellows' baseball team was defeated by the Dodgers 20 to 9. The regular Canfield club won from Calla 11 to 2. The Okiki Camp Fire Girls will hold a cake auction sale in the park Saturday night. There will be special music, amusements and refreshments. In order to make class rooms at the high school building nearer meet requirements larger windows are being cut and other improvements made. Communion services at Zion Reformed church, north of Canfield, next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 will be conducted by Rev. L. J. Rohrbach of North Lima. Considerable coal from Deerfield mines is being hauled to Canfield by truck, the price being $9.50 a ton, or about the same as is charged for coal shipped in from the Pittsburgh district. Fire in an automobile in front of the Canfield Auto & Repair Co. plant caused some excitement Wednesday evening. Chemical extinguishers put the fire out before serious damage was done. The residence and other buildings belonging to Charles Huddleston at Marquis burned about 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. He says the fire started in a chicken house and quickly spread to the residence and barn, making a clean sweep of everything. There was no insurance, Mr. Huddleston said. At the meeting of the Canfield board of education Tuesday night bids were opened for conveying pupils to and from the centralized school for the coming year. Contracts were awarded as follows: District No. 1, Thomas Cruthers; No. 2, Charles Yoxheimer; Nos. 4 and 4 1/2, Thomas Stratford; No. 5, J. L. Callan; No. 6, Marshall Avery; No. 7, Geza Albert; No. 8, C. H. Hull. A royal progress was the reception Youngtown gave the Hon. E. H. Moore Saturday night as he returned home from his battle in San Francisco, where he won the democratic presidential nomination for Gov. James M. Cox. It was a spontaneous outburst of appreciation and good feeling from 25 Moore's fellow citizens, regardless of party or creed, a tribute to the man and to the manner of man he has always shown himself. A notice on the front door of the Smith-Backman Machine Co. plant reads, "Closed by Sheriff Ben Morris." The plant was appraised last Saturday but Attorney Horace Smith, one of the principal owners, said, Thursday, that he did not think a forced sale would be necessary. He also said that the appraised value of the plant was many times the indebtedness of the company and expressed the hope that the plant might soon be in operation again. The 1919 graduating class of the Canfield high school consisting of Misses Irene Housel, Ruth Clay, Eva Corll, Evelyn Schafer, Beatrice Clay, Emma Hake, and Messrs. Howard Lynn, Hugh Boyer, Lindley Vickers, Paul Matthews and Richard Bingham recently held its second reunion at Milton dam. The event proved to be very successful, bringing together every member of the class. Early in the evening the company separated to meet again next year. Mrs. Bessie Kennedy, widow of Charles H. Kennedy, formerly of Canfield, died July 15 at her home in Los Angeles, Cal., aged 77. She had been ill for some time. Her husband died two months ago. Wonsetter of Youngstown, Mrs. J. D. Bouser of Dixon, Mont., and Mrs. J. T. Kenny of Los Angeles. Interment was made in Hollywood cemetery.

BUY IN CANFIELD

You Will Save Good Money

Of late there has been a great deal of talk about the reduction of prices, and some large stores in the larger cities have been selling goods at so-called greatly reduced prices. As an intelligent observer and reader you understand that these reductions have been made in most cases where the margin of profit has been too large in the first place. We have been marking our goods very closely right along, and, therefore, could not make similar reductions. However, we assure you that the close prices we are now quoting are far below some of these so-called reduced prices, and you save money in buying here. We still have a few good Business Suits at $18, $20, $25 to $28. Fine Dress Suits in plain or mixed at $28, $30, $35 to $42. We offer the best, made by the Clothcraft House, at from $42 to $48. These suits compare well with the so-called $65 to $75 suits advertised by some stores—even at their reduced prices you still save a good sum by buying here. And so with other lines—Shirts, Ties, Underwear, Collars, etc. Linen Collars have been advertised by some at reduced prices from 30c to 25c when our price for exactly the same collar has never been over 25c. They sold them too high or their reduction was of the so-called kind. The result was visible in Canfield. Why, we sold more than twice the number of collars, shirts, ties and more clothing than any other year. And if you have not found this out yet, come in and you'll soon be convinced that we have the goods and the low prices. A delayed shipment of Ladies' Silk Hosiery, which we bought last summer, has just arrived and you can buy these at last summer's prices—$1.50, $2.00, $2.25, $2.50 up to $3.50; in white, black, grey, and brown; are worth today one-half more. Other lines in Cotton and Silk Lisle at 25c, 35c, 40c, 50c and 75c.

SALE! CONTINUED TILL AUGUST 28 DRY GOODS AND GARMENTS FRED D. LODGE Columbiana, Ohio Our stock was a lot larger than we thought it was. After a whole month's selling—and big selling, too—we find we still have more goods than can be condensed into our new space. So, we are compelled to keep on with our sale, giving the same big discounts on every kind of merchandise in the store that we gave during all of July. Some lots of goods are already pretty low and others shrinking, but a wide choice still remains for prompt buyers, and the goods are the best on the market. We have left: One Suit, navy serge, size 16. Three Ladies' Coats Five Junior Coats and a few Skirts and Waists at mighty low prices Our yard goods stock is still well assorted in kinds, colors, patterns, etc.

PRETTY important event—those first uncertain steps—the first thing you think of is a KODAK WHILE it is all very simple the Kodak way, the experts in our photographic department are more than ready to give you the benefit of their experience and to help make good picture-making all the easier. Kodaks from $9.49 up—they are all auto-graphic—an invaluable feature for pictures of the youngsters where the date and title are often half the interest. F. A. MAHONING COUNTY BOY

LIKES IT IN ARIZONA Phoenix, Ariz., July 20, 1920. Editor, Dispatch:—We are enjoying real summer weather now; the mercury stands around 112 to 116 during the heat of the day, but drops about 40 degrees at night; we are not suffering in the least, in fact we do not mind it as much as you do in Ohio at 90. We like it out here very much and do not expect to go back to Ohio to live for some time. We would rather have our friends come out here and see one of the most fertile valleys in the world. While land around Canfield is selling at from $50 to $150 per acre, and will take a man a life time to pay for it, out here it sells from $400 to $1,000 per acre and a man can do it in one to one and a half years. Cotton is the main crop here at present and with it selling at one dollar a pound the ranchers are making a clean-up. At present there is being shipped hundreds of cars of watermelons and cantaloupes from this valley. We look forward each week for our old home paper, The Dispatch, to see what the "folks to home" are doing. Wishing to be remembered to all old friends, I am, Respectfully, MYRON D. WIRT.

CHAUTAQUA IDEALISM

Chautauqua is a place, an idea, and institution. The place is beautiful, the idea is wholesome, and the institution is "The most American thing in America." It embodies American ideas and ideals of work and play. It makes work pleasant as well as profitable and play profitable as well as pleasant. The work of the season is administered under two heads, popular lectures and entertainment, and the summer school. The lectures and entertainments vary greatly, but are always pleasing and profitable. This week the general topic was "The Aftermath of the War." We have listened to much on this subject that seems safe, sound and conservative, but opinions are widely divergent, and while an occasional speaker claims to understand the whole problems of world reconstruction and adjustment he usually is the most unsatisfactory and misleading to the man who thinks, but it is still to hear a matter discussed in all its phases and viewed from all angles. Chautauqua is an open forum for the expression of opinion and the promulgation of ideas. The richest feast on this year's program is the New York Symphony Orchestra. This great organization has a six weeks' engagement, giving us one of their delightful concerts every day. To any lover of music it is well worth while to come here to hear the musical programs alone. The orchestra will remain here till the middle of August. Vocal music is also rendered here by the best soloists obtainable. Chautauqua is distinctly educational. It is of a type most practical and progressive. Last summer their school enrolled about five hundred thousand students and more than that are here now. The faculty numbers more than one hundred teachers, chosen from the best colleges in this country. A number of students are here from Mahoning county. The Chautauqua literary and scientific course of reading has been long established and has done more in the way of self-culture and mind development than any organization in the world. Thousands have taken advantage of the splendid opportunity here for intellectual improvement. He who comes here and gets the Chautauqua habit of life, increases his capacity for the enjoyment of the best in the world and likewise enriches and enlarges his field of usefulness.—L. U. H.

LET'S ALL GO VISITING, AUG. 4.

Why August 4? Because that's the day the Mahoning County Horticultural Society will visit the orchards and fruit farms of Columbiana county—part of them. Here's the plan. Members of the society and as many others as are interested in horticulture, will meet on the public square in Columbiana at 9 a. m. We will have in a body at 9:15 for the home of J. L. Taggart, 1 1/2 miles southeast of Columbiana on one of the Goldberg Bros' fruit farms, of which Mr. Taggart is superintendent. The lunch baskets, of which there will be plenty, and all full, with as many of the ladies and others as do not care to visit the orchards, will be left at the splendid home of Mr. Taggart. Remainder of the party will visit the Goldberg and other orchards in the vicinity of East Palestine and return to the Taggart home at 12:45. During the trip to and through the orchards the ladies of the society will prepare the dinner "under the shade of the old apple tree" near the house. And it will be a dinner fit for Mahoning and Columbiana county horticulturists or any other live bunch. But there is not room in this column to mention all the "goodies" that will be on the table. D. Fred Goldberg and J. L. Taggart, whose guests we will be, have promised a surprise for us during the dinner hour. But I dare not tell what, or I lose my dinner. You know the old and oft-debated question: Resolved, "There is more pleasure in pursuit than in possession." In the case of this promised horticultural dinner "pursuit" isn't it with "possession." Program begins at 2:15 p. m. Don't forget the date, the place, the hour. I'm sure you'll never forget the dinner. M. B. TEMPLIN, Sec'y-Treas.
