LIBBY PRISONERS .- A letter has been received at the Executive Department from Mr. Wetmore, the Ohio Soldier's Agent at Washington, in relation to the paroled prisoners just out of Libby Prison, Richmond. He describes their condition as being deplorable in the extreme; two-thirds of them had to be placed in the hospital at once, and several poor fellows perished before they could be furnished with the necessaries they so badly needed.

COUNTY TAXES .- The total amount of taxes collected by the county Treasurer on the December duplicate is $100,786,66. The amount collected for city and corporation purposes is $34,700.40; the amount of city school fund $19,270,54; the amount of county funds for the general expenses is $17,976,-56 for bridge purposes $5,387,10, for poor purposes $8,928,95. The taxes collected for State purposes is $90,423,70.

APPOINTMENT OF SOLDIERS' CLAIM AGENTS .- The Governor has appointed the following Claim Agents, at the places attached to their names, under the recent act save much trouble, by leaving the money at of the Legislature to increase the number of agents to collect soldiers' claims and at- at the office after this time. tend to their various wants. The appointments were confirmed by the Senate last night:

L. R. Brownell, for New Orleans and Vicksburg; F. W. Bingham, Memphis; Royal Taylor, Chattanooga; J.C. Wetmore, ashington; D. K. Cady, Jr., Cincinnati; J. C. Lewis, Columbus; D. R. Taylor, Nashville; Weston Flint, St. Louis; R. L. Stewart, Gallipolis; W. W. Bagley, Crestline; Clark Warren, Cleveland; Capt. V. Horr, Louisville.

The following appointments of commissioners to examine claims against the State growing out of the Morgan raid were confirmed: Alfred McVeigh, of Fairfield; Geo. W. Baker, of Washington county, and Henry S. Babbitt, of Franklin.

THE ATHENEUM.—The grand equestrian drama of "Eagle Eye," notwithstanding the unpleasant state of the weather, was witnessed by a full house last night. The rapid transitions and thrilling incidents of the piece kept attention wide awake, while the comic portions created a fund of merriment. The play was admirably presented.

To-night, the original drama of "Mike Martin" will be produced, in which Mr. Miles and his steed, Hiawatha, will perform conspicuous parts. Messrs. McCollom. Lewis and Ellsler, and Mrs. Dickson will also appear in the same piece. The farce of the Swiss Cottage will conclude the dramatic feast of the evening.

To-morrow (Friday) night is alloted for a benefit to Mr. Miles, whose dramatic and equestrian performances have made him a decidedly popular favorite.

LEGISLATIVE OFFICERS. - As votes of thanks are the order of the day in the General Assembly, and the officers of the two branches are receiving the compliments they have honestly earned by their courtesy, industry and ability, our legislative reporter takes this occasion to return his thanks to those officers for the civilities and favors extended to him. Mr. James Howard, the efficient postmaster of the Senate, specially deserving of our thanks for lities which, for two winters, he has exaded to us and the reporting fraternity in ral. Ottie Cooper, the sprightly and ligent page of the Senate, deserves antion, as a young gentleman worthy of anks for many little favors he has so courteously and cheerfully performed.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT .- The freight train on the Cleveland and Columbus Rallroad, which was due here at eight o'clock night before last, was thrown from the track and wrecked, by an axle on one of the freight cars breaking while the train was running at the ordinary speed. Fortunately the brakemen were all in the caboose in the rear of the train at the time, and no one was hurt. Several freight cars were badly shed, but the damage in the aggregate vas not great. The wreck detained the morning train from Cleveland several hours, but yesterday the debris was cleared away, and the trains again resumed business with their accustomed regularity.
