

THE CITY.

STRANGE.—It didn't rain yesterday.

DANIEL R. BOSTWICK, a well known and respected citizen of Portage county, was killed on the last instant by falling into a well.

HANDS DISCHARGED.—The Central Ohio Railroad Company, on the 31st ult., discharged from their employ thirty-two hands from their works at Bellair, and forty-two from their shops at Zanesville.

BENJAMIN LILLARD, the agent for D. Wayne & Co., of Dayton, who skeddaddled some days since with $2,700 belonging to that firm, was captured on the last instant, at a place about fifty miles north of Galesburg, Illinois.

PEACHES.—We were made yesterday the recipients of a lot of the largest and most delicious peaches we have seen this season. They came from the vegetable and fruit store of Messrs. De Hano, Kilian, & Co., on the west side of High street, between Long and Spring streets. We invite persons wanting the fruit and vegetables to call at the above establishment.

OPERA HOUSE.—The entertainment last night drew a fine audience to the Opera House, who were greatly interested and delighted with the performance.

Mr. Robert Johnston takes a benefit to-night. An entire new and successful drama, "Jocerosse, the Juggler," will be produced, in which Miss Grover, and Messrs. Johnston and Ward will appear. The performance will conclude with the presentation, for the first time here, of the popular Irish drama of "O'Flanagan and the Fairies," the principal characters by Miss Grover and Mr. Ward.

GOVERNOR BROUGH.—Various rumors prevailed in the city yesterday in relation to Governor Brough's condition. We learn that last evening a dispatch was received from Surgeon General Barr, stating in substance that a surgical operation was performed upon one of the Governor's feet and also upon one of his hands, which was apparently very successful. But the Cleveland Herald of yesterday morning stated that no hopes were entertained of the Governor's recovery.

NEW LAW FIRM.—Lewis & Cox.—Our readers will see by a notice in this paper that Hon. S. C. Cox, late of this city, and Representative in Congress from this District, has formed a law partnership with Judge J. J. Lewis, late Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and C. T. Lewis, formerly Deputy Commissioner, under the name of Lewis & Cox. Their office is at No. 132 Broadway, New York City, and their Post-office Box 5,600.

The new firm propose to attend to all business in the U. S. Courts and in the Departments at Washington, especially to Revenue business and to claims on our own and foreign Governments. For doing all this, they possess peculiar and very great facilities, aside from the confidence that may well be reposed in the ability, diligence and integrity of the individual partners. Judge Lewis and C. T. Lewis, from their extensive and thorough acquaintance with the Revenue Laws and decisions, enable the firm to insure the safe and correct transaction of business in that department.

Mr. Cox is well known to, and justly esteemed by the people of this District, whom he has, for many years, represented in Congress, as well as by the people of the State, and of the West at large, for the versatility of his genius, his quickness and clearness of apprehension, and the extent and variety of his information. The prompt and thorough attention he gave to private business, endeavored to him while a member of Congress, is a matter of general commendation among men of all shades of political opinion. His long experience in the National Council, and his service for years in that body on the committee of Foreign Affairs, have made him familiar with Federal legislation and the business in the various Departments of the Government at Washington.

Persons having business in the Courts of the United States, or in the Departments at Washington, or claims upon our own or foreign Governments, will see at once the great advantages of confiding their business to the care of the new firm of Messrs. Lewis & Cox in New York City.

The One Hundredth and Ninety-seventh.—The 170th O. V. I.—Col. Benton Halstead commanding, arrived at Fort Barracks at one o'clock yesterday afternoon, with 38 officers and about 700 men, for payment and final discharge. It was organized at Camp Chase in April last, and mustered out of the service at Baltimore on the 31st ult. For some time previous to its muster out, it had been guarding the railroad bridges on the Philadelphia & Wilmington road and the ferry boats at Havre de Grace, Md., and doing garrison duty for the forts about Baltimore.

The 170th has been very fortunate in regard to its officers, not a single one having resigned or been lost to the regiment from any cause, since its organization. Its officers and men speak in the highest terms of the generous hospitality extended to them by the citizens of Pittsburgh, where they remained for a few hours on their route hither. We give below a list of the field and company officers of the regiment, with post-office addresses of the field officers:

FIELD OFFICERS.—Benton Halstead, Colonel, Cincinnati, O.; Gershon M. Barber, Lieutenant Colonel, Berea, O.; Robert Hills, Major, Harlem Springs, O.; Wilson G. Bryant, Surgeon, Covington, Williams Co., O.; Geo. W. Pease, Assistant Surgeon, Cleveland, O.; Amos Lawrence, Assistant Surgeon, Cincinnati, O.; Ebenezer Hanford, Adjutant, Cincinnati, O.; Richard D. Short, R. Q. M., Columbus, O.

CAPTAINS.—C. F. Sullivan, Jacob Boland, Alex. W. Diller, Josiah J. Wright, John W. Long, Leonard R. Osborn, A. Davis, Owen Samuel P. Zehring, Commodore W. Drake, and Edward L. Quick.

ELIZEN'S ATHLETIC.—A very good audience attended the Athletic last night, and the various performances were greeted with hearty manifestations of approval and gratification.

To-night the manager, Sam Lathrop, the old American clown, takes a benefit. He will appear as Wornout, in the "Lottery Ticket," also, as Wagoner, with song, and as Jeems, in the "Masquerade," and the Negro Door-keeper. A dance by Billy McEwen, and songs and ballads will add variety to the entertainment.

POLICE COURT YESTERDAY.—W. D. Wilson and Charles Meany, for fighting, fined the former $15 and costs, and the latter $10 and costs; Ella Ray, Susan Patterson and Jennie White, for loitering about saloons in a state of intoxication, fined each $5 and costs; Mary Mitchell, for drunkenness and indecent conduct on the public streets, fined $10 and costs, and James Williams, for vagrancy, fined $10 and costs. None paid; all committed.

HEAVY CRIMINAL BUSINESS.—During the month of July, 760 State and city cases were examined in the Police Court of Cincinnati. Fines were collected in the same time to the amount of $2,544.41, of which $1,351.30 were from city, and $1,233.21 from State cases.

Particulars of the Loss of the Steamer Glasgow.

New York, Aug. 3.—The British steamer Glasgow, New York City, at 4 o'clock on the morning of Sunday, July 28, for Liverpool, with a full freight of cotton, cheese, &c., and some 250 persons, including the steamer, on board. Everything went well until about 10 o'clock A. M. 31st, when an alarm was given, "man overboard." A boat was lowered and efforts were made to save him, but they were unavailable. He had come on board in a state of delirium tremens, and had been put in a straight jacket by Surgeon-General Comstock. He rolled himself overboard. The excitement caused by the event had scarcely subsided when, about 10 o'clock P. M., the alarm of fire was sounded. All hands rushed on deck, and the fire was in the fore part of the vessel, all the second class passengers fled at amid the wildest excitement. Orders were given by the Captain and officers that no person should get into the boats until permission was given. The first man who attempted to force his way into a boat before all the women and children should have been taken off, would be shot. The order was cheerfully acquiesced in by all the gentlemen in the first class. A vessel was soon discovered at a distance of eight miles, and the Glasgow was at once put under a full head of steam towards her, firing minute guns and displaying signal flags saying, "I am on fire." The vessel changed her course and made for the Glasgow. In the meantime the Captain ordered the boats to be lowered, so as to prevent confusion when the time came to occupy them. Capt. Comstock ordered the ladies lowered, and commenced transferring the officers and soldiers to the boats. The ladies and children were all first transferred, and then, in regular order, the males were transferred.

The friendly barque proved to be the Rosamond, Captain P. Walling, of New York. He received the passengers and crew with the utmost kindness and bid them welcome to all he had on board. His officers and crew were also very kind. After all the passengers had been transferred, the removal of baggage took place, and the Glasgow's officers and men left the steamer, Captain Manning remaining by her until 10 o'clock P. M., when the ship's hull was wrecked on the rocks.

The steamer Erin came in sight on the morning of the 23d at daybreak, and it was deemed prudent to transfer the Glasgow's passengers to her, which was done. The Captain of the Erin receiving them in the most hospitable manner.

The origin of the fire is variously reported; one having it that a ball of cotton took fire from a lighted match thrown upon it by a steamer passenger after lighting his cigar. On reaching the deck of the Erin, some of the passengers of the ill-fated vessel Wm. Nelson, were met with, who were exceedingly anxious to render assistance to the unfortunate.

At a meeting of the Glasgow's passengers, resolutions of thanks to Almighty God, to Captain Manning and his officers, and to Captain Wallis and his officers, were adopted.

New York, Aug. 3.—The following is the report of the steamer Erin, which vessel brought the passengers and crew of the Glasgow to this city: On August 1st, 1885, P. M., saw a light on the port bow, supposed to be vessel on fire. At 1:30 P. M. found it to be a steamer on fire, name unknown, and about 100 yards distant. The vessel was about being ordered to stop, when it was seen that there were persons on board. Found that the passengers and crew had left the ship's boats, and that she was in tow of the barque, the Washington, of Scotland, from Boston to New York. On the 21st, at 4 A. M., stopped to pick up a boat with officers and men, who reported that they belonged to the steamer Glasgow, which was on fire, and all their passengers and crew were on board the barque. Proceeded to the barque and took off all the passengers and crew belonging to the Glasgow, about twenty-five in all, and brought them to this port.
