PROCLAMATION !

MAYOR'S OFFICE. WHEREAS, THE CITY COUNCIL OF the City of Columbus passed an Ordinance on the 22d day of May, A. D. 1865, "To prevent the running at large of dogs unless securely muzzled with a wire muzzle," and directing the Marshal and Police officers to shoot or poison all dogs found run-ning at large contrary to the provisions of the Or-dinance stores aid, and subjecting the owners of dinance aforecaid, and subjecting the owners of dogs permitted to run at large to a fine; and Whealas, Several complaints have been made to me of the presence of tabid dogs in neighborhoods within the limits of said city, and that persons have been bitten by the same.

Now, therefore, I, James G. Bull, Mayor of the city of Columbus, do issue this, my Proclamation, ordering and directing that all persons owning or keeping any dog within the city of Columbus, either to confine the same on his premises or securely muzzle the same with a wire muzzle so as to effectually prevent such dog from biting, from the first day of May until the first day of October next.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand officially and affixed the corporate seal seal of said city, this 30th day of April, A. D. 1867.

Mayor.

A YOUNG LADY returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the City, was hardly recognised by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainty told them that she used the Circassian Balm, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any Lady's toilet. By its use any Lady or Gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from. also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle i draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as Nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful. Price

During late years the public have been misled by During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the rick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative ingredient whatever. Hence, bitter disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itse f has become suppressions with imposition and chest. rills which flood the market, until the name itse f has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound, "Sarsaparills," and intend to supply such a remedy as shall researe the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. We think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the class of disease it is intended to cure. We can assure the sick, that we offer them the best alterative we know how to produce, and we have reason to believe, it is by far the most effectual purifier of the bloody t discovered.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is so universally known to surpass every other medicine for the cure of Coughs.
