The Week's News of the City in Paragraphs

King's Little Liver Pills—small, pleasant and easy to take

Ed Glascock of Larned was in town on business Wednesday.

An ice cream social will be held on Mrs. Sitter's lawn Friday evening July 23. It

The literary, after this week, will close of evenings at 9 o'clock.

ROOMS FOR RENT—810 Bridge street, two rooms for lodging for $10.00 per month.

J. P. English has just received a large touring car, probably the heaviest car in Dodge City.

An ice cream social will be held on Mrs. Sitter's lawn Friday evening July 23. It

J. S. Cady and wife will leave Saturday for a two weeks trip to Colorado Springs.

Mr and Mrs. T. A. Seattle will leave tomorrow for a visit at Seattle and other western points.

The ladies of the Christian church will hold a market on Saturday afternoon at the Cochran drug store.

Edmond Rhodes who has been at Hiawatha since the close of school, has returned home to Dodge City.

Richard Boyfield and T. E. French will leave Saturday for Missouri, Mont., to register for the Flathead lands.

The Farmer's Elevator & Supply Co. will pay the highest market price for corn, oats, kafir corn and sorghum seed.

Mrs. Claude Carrier and two children returned this morning from Denver, where they have been visiting relatives for the past two weeks.

The contract for the building of the new Christian church was let Wednesday to Parham & Upp and the structure is to be completed in five months time.

Mrs. W. T. McCarter and daughter, Miss Kate, of Oklahoma City, who are on their way to Green Mountain Falls, Colo., stopped here last Friday to visit Mrs. A. B. Reeves.

To Trade for Western Kansas Land—Large Drug Store, a splendid stock, and in a location that has great opportunities. A gilt edged proposition. Address inquiries to this office.

An ice cream social will be held on Mrs. Sitter's lawn Friday evening July 23. It

The local buyers at Kingsdown got in 300 bushels of new wheat last week, the first brought there of this year's crop. It tested sixty-one pounds to the bushel and brought 98 cents at Kingsdown. It went to the Liberal elevator.

Foley's Honey and Tar not only stop chronic coughs that weaken the constitution and develop into consumption, but beats and strengthens the lungs. It affords comfort and relief in the worst case of chronic bronchitis, asthma, hay fever and lung trouble. The Palace Drug Store.

W. H. Lord finished his work as cattle inspector the first of this month. One of the regular government men has been transferred to this place from Hutchinson to look after this territory. Mr. Lord, during his time in the place, did a large amount of work and helped improve conditions very much.

If people with symptoms of kidney or bladder trouble could realize their danger they would without loss of time commence taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. This great remedy stops the pain and the irregularities, strengthens and builds up these organs and there is no danger of Bright's disease or other serious disorder. Do not disregard the early symptoms. The Palace Drug Store.

C. A. Smith, formerly superintendent of Dodge City schools, has been elected superintendent of the schools of Russell, Kans. Prof. Smith has been in Yale college for some time, and left there the last of last month. He has been very successful in his school work and returns to Kansas better equipped than before for educational work. It will not be long before some of the large cities will capture him.

Sam Wilkinson has arranged to purchase the Princess theater and will take charge of it in a short time. It has been a popular place since it was started some months ago by Leon Gilbert. Mr. Wilkinson has been singing a part of the time and in that way has been connected with the business, and has helped gain the popularity the place enjoys. The patrons of the Princess will be pleased to know that Mr. Wilkinson in future will sing each evening.

Tortured on a Horse.

"For ten years I couldn't ride a horse without being in torture from piles," writes L. S. Napier, of Ragless, Ky., "when all doctors and other remedies failed. Buckley's Arnica Salve cured me." Infallible for Piles, Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Boils, Fever Sores, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Corns, etc. Guaranteed by Palace Drug Store.

HUBBY EFFECTED QUICK CURE.

Sick Wife Aroused by Contemplation of Her Successor.

"William, dear," feebly called the invalid wife, who was supposed to be bearing the end of her earthly career.

"Yes, darling," answered the sorrowing husband. "What is it?"

"When I am gone," said she, "I feel that for the sake of the motherless little ones you should marry again."

"Do you really think it would be best, darling?" asked the faithful William.

"Yes, William, I really do," replied the invalid. "After a reasonable length of time you should seek the companionship of some good woman."

"Do you know, my dear," said the husband, "that you have lifted a great burden from my mind? Now, there is that charming widow Jones across the way. She has acted rather friendly toward me ever since you were taken ill. Of course, dear, she could never fill your place, but she is young, plump and pretty, and I'm sure she would do her best to lessen my grief."

"William Henry Brown!" exclaimed the female whose days were supposed to be numbered, as she partly raised herself upon the pillow, "if you ever dare install that red-headed, freckle-faced, squint-eyed hussy in my shoes, I'll—I'll—" And then she fainted.

But the next day Mrs. Brown was able to sit up, and two days later she was downstairs.

HAD HER LIKES AND DISLIKES.

Woman's Tastes Not Satisfied with What Was "Good for Her."

A young society matron who gives one day a week to philanthropic work undertook a class for training mothers under my direction. In reality it was a class in cooking, for the young matron is an enthusiast upon proper combinations of wholesome food. The women came and listened, and then I suggested that the homes should be visited to see what had been accomplished.

One day she called upon one of her class in the early morning. The woman was frying cakes in deep fat.

"Oh, dear," said the young matron, "why don't you cook oatmeal for the children, as I showed you? You know the cakes are not good for you."

"No'm," cheerfully agreed the woman, as she flipped the cakes upon a platter. "I know, I know. But I don't like what's good for me. I like what I like."

And the society matron has started a sewing class.—New York Times.

Misapplying Music.

"I went to a fashionable wedding the other day," remarked a man who has little time for such things, "and I was decidedly impressed by the character of the music that was played while the assembled guests were waiting for the wedding party to arrive. The principal number played by the orchestra was an air from one of the most modern operas. It marks the entrance of the heroine of the piece, who is coming on the scene to take part in a wedding of complaisance with the hero, who is generally regarded as one of the greatest blackguards the world of opera knows. Every character on the stage knows that the Buddhist wedding ceremony that is to take place is a sham and the marriage turns out to be a tragedy of the shabbiest sort. And yet that music was played in a church that stands for intelligence if any one congregation in this town does."—Exchange.

A Sad Case.

An Atchison man has lain in an unconscious state ever since ten o'clock last night. Everything has been done to arouse him, but all efforts are unavailing. His friends are greatly alarmed; they fear he may never regain consciousness. It seemed that yesterday evening right after dinner the man picked up his hat, put on his overcoat and, although his wife was sitting right in the room, she did not say, "where are you going?" He walked out of the house. At ten o'clock in the evening the man returned. He walked into the room where his wife sat and took off his hat and overcoat. She smiled at him pleasantly and did not say, "Where have you been?" The man fell unconscious to the floor.—Atchison Globe.

Simple Arithmetic.

A Philadelphian of some scientific attainments was one evening poring over the wine list at his club, when his interest was excited by the prices shown.

"Barker," said he to the waiter, "I observe that the list offers some sherry at 75 cents and some at four dollars. Now, what is the difference between the brands?"

The waiter looked surprised. "Bog pardon, sir," said he, with that frankness permitted an old servant, "but it does seem remarkable that such a highly educated gentleman can't do a simple bit of arithmetic like that!"—Harper's Magazine.

A Weed That Steals Oysters.

A seaweed has invaded the oyster beds of France and carried off 400,000 oysters. It has carried them off bodily, as a thief would do.

The minute seeds of this weed float up the English channel in the current of the Gulf stream, they settle on oysters in the Breton beds of Morbihan, Quiberon and Belle-Ile, and they grow to the size of a duck's egg.

They are full of water, but at maturity the water evaporates, and air takes its place. The egg-shaped seed is then a balloon, and like a balloon it lifts its oyster from the bottom and bears it out to sea.

Vacation Cameras

Vacation without a camera is a vacation wasted. Vacation time is coming—al most here—and the old question arises, how to spend it most profitably. Whatever you desire to do you should have a camera for the pleasure as well as the instruction you get from it. It is now possible for you to turn out pictures without a dark room. Let us show you the daylight developer.
