LANGFORD PLAYS POSTPONED GAMES WITH JACK O'BRIEN MAY DECIDE BIG RACE

Philadelphia Boxer No Match for Burly Negro Fighter; Referee Saves Vanquished Man From Knockout.

Enough Battles Yet to Be Fought of Deferred Variety to Influence Standing at End of Season.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) New York, Aug. 15.—Sam Langford of Boston, with an advantage of about ten pounds in weight, fought Philadelphia "Jack" O'Brien to a standstill in four and a half rounds at the Twentieth Century club last night. Referee Charley White prevented a knockout when he stopped the bout in the middle of the fifth round. O'Brien was practically out from the effects of a hard left hook to the jaw and had to be helped to his corner.

It was the old story of a clever game boxer, pitted against a hard hitting fighter, and from the start the Boston heavyweight had O'Brien's measure taken. Langford's blows were on the sledge hammer order, while none of O'Brien's swings and hooks had sufficient steam to bother the colored man.

Twice Langford put O'Brien to the floor in the third round, O'Brien taking nine counts in the second fall. O'Brien fought hard in the fifth until Langford landed the finishing blow.

The Fight By Rounds.

Round 1.—The men wasted little time in sparring, but got to work quickly. O'Brien found Langford's head and face with rights and lefts repeatedly, but the blows were apparently not forcible. He made the negro miss frequently throughout the round. Shortly before the bell rang Langford knocked O'Brien to the ropes with a left to the body. O'Brien was off his balance at the time. O'Brien's round.

Round 2.—They mixed in the middle of the ring and clinched, both holding. O'Brien appeared to the law with the left. Langford landed two light lefts to the head and O'Brien retaliated with a left to the face. O'Brien's mouth was bleeding but he was fighting fast with flashes of his old time cleverness. The men exchanged rights to the face and Langford landed a hard right uppercut. O'Brien's round.

Round 3.—Langford missed with a short left but got in a right under O'Brien's jaw. O'Brien went to his knees from a right to the head, but was up quickly. Although evidently tiring, O'Brien assumed the aggressive and landed a fusillade of right and left blows on the negro's face. In a clinch Langford hammered O'Brien over the kidneys with a sledge hammer right. Langford whipped two rights to the head. O'Brien went down and took the count of eight. Langford's round.

Round 4.—O'Brien came with a rush and put light lefts to Langford's face. He followed with a hard right to the chin. There was a hard exchange in mid-ring in which O'Brien got all the worst of it. Langford's short right and lefts to the body were weakening the Quaker perceptibly. He came out of the clinch staggering and made a splendid, though only momentary rally, causing the negro to miss four hard swings. O'Brien was saved by the bell.

DEMANDS INQUIRY INTO HARVESTER COMPANY

Representative Foster Would Add One to Many Investigations Now Under Way by Congressional Committees.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Washington, Aug. 15.—Another comprehensive congressional investigation, this time into the affairs of the International Harvester company, will be under way in the next regular session of congress, resolution introduced today by Representative Foster of Illinois, adopted by the House.

Mr. Foster suggests an investigation by a committee of nine members of the house to be elected in the same way as the committees of inquiry into the so-called steel and sugar trusts.

The Foster resolution was referred to the rules committee. It contemplates a determination as to whether the Harvester company has violated the Sherman anti-trust law either by the relation of the company to its subsidiary companies and corporations or otherwise.

New York, Aug. 15.—With the postponing of the double header baseball game at St. Louis yesterday between the Cardinals and the Pirates, there still remain seventeen double header games in the Lynch organization to be played off. There are therefore enough of these games this year to decide the championship in the major organization. President Thomas J. Lynch has revised the dates and provided for playing all the postponed games.

The Giants played off one double header with the Phillies at the Polo grounds yesterday and came out the better end of the horn. They next tie into the Clark Griffith Reds on Thursday and Jack a double-header out of the schedule on that date, rain not interfering. They are forced to do the same thing with the Pirates on August 24.

A postponed game with Brooklyn was played on October 11, an open date, as Brooklyn men have only one double-header to be played off on the road, and that is at Philadelphia on September 24. The game was postponed when the team was in Pittsburgh and will be played September 18, an open date, while one with Brooklyn is set for October 11, originally a day of rest.

Whether or not it will have any bearing on the pennant fight, the Chicago Cubs have their work cut out for them with six double-headers, four of them with the teams they have found hardest to beat, and these to be fought out on home grounds, where an even break is likely. Chicago and Pittsburgh will play four games in two days, September 14 and 15, at the home of the Pirates. Another bargain affair is set for Philadelphia August 29 and one in Brooklyn August 26. On their own grounds, the Cubs will meet Cincinnati for two games, September 1 and 2, and Boston for two games September 24. Postponed games with St. Louis will be played on open dates—September 5 and 6.

The Superbas have three double-headers to play, all on their own grounds—two with Boston, September 2 and October 4 and one with Chicago on August 26.

The revised dates follow:

At Boston—August 25 (two), with Philadelphia; September 7 (two), with Philadelphia.

At Brooklyn—August 26 (two), with Chicago; September 2 (two), with Boston; September 4 (two), with Philadelphia; October 4 (two), with Boston; October 10 (open), with New York.

At New York—August 17 (two), with Cincinnati; August 24 (two), with Pittsburgh; October 11 (open), with Brooklyn.

At Philadelphia—August 29 (two), with New York.

At Pittsburgh—August 15 (open), with St. Louis (moved up from October 12); September 1 (two), with Cincinnati; September 6 (open), with Cincinnati; September 14 (two), with Cincinnati; September 15 (two), with Chicago; September 19 (open), with New York.

At Cincinnati—September 13 (open), with Pittsburgh; September 17 (two), with Philadelphia; September 22 (open), with Brooklyn (moved up from October 2).

At Chicago—September 5 and 6 (open), with St. Louis; September 7 (two), with Cincinnati; September 24 (two), with Boston.

At St. Louis—September 14 (two), and September 15 (two), with Cincinnati; September 17 (two), with Boston.

All Albuquerque at Airdome tonight—a great show.

FIRST ALLEGED LYNCHER ARRESTED AT COATESVILLE

Coatesville, Pa., Aug. 15.—The first arrest in connection with the burning of Zack Walker on Sunday night was made here tonight, when Kennedy Boyd, a lineman in the employ of the Chester Valley Electric company, was taken into custody.

Boyd, under severe cross examination, it is alleged, admitted enough to warrant his arrest. It is said that he gave the names of a number of others who will also be taken into custody.

The coroner's jury, which has been investigating the lynching of Walker, returned its verdict tonight. Not a name is mentioned by the jurors.

SOUTHERN LEAGUE TO THE FRONT

Big Leagues to Recruit From Among Classy Youngsters of Cotton Belt Circuit, When That Rag Race Is Run.

Zimmerman, on whom the Cubs have an option at present.

Hugh Northern, Ruben Benton, "Pumper" Higgins and Roy Moran of the Chattanooga club are slated for the majors next year, Moran having already been sold to Brooklyn. Ebbetts is in Chattanooga and made an offer for Northern, who was leading the league in hitting at last accounts.

With all of this talent to choose from there is a good chance that the Southern League will be well represented in both of the big leagues next year and that some of the new ones will make names for themselves, as have Daubert, Archer, Wheat, Sugar, Forj and others.

When the Southern League race is run and the pennant safely stored away a large number of the promising players of this circuit will go to the big leagues for a trial, and it is probable Nashville will furnish more than her share for higher company. Smith is the only one of the locals who has been sold outright up to date, and Welchence and Alchison are going to go up again, and Schwartz will have a call, probably from the Cubs. It is also rumored that Perry will be drafted by some club in the major circuits, but this is not positive, says the Nashville Banner.

If Schwartz were drafted by the Cubs it is as yet doubtful whether he would consent to go up, especially if he has a chance to continue as manager of the local team next year, which he will undoubtedly have. The lure of the big leagues has lost its charm for Big Bill, and he would probably be better satisfied with a winning club in this company. He has proved already his ability as a manager, now being in second place, after having started with a bunch of green and many incompetent men.

Welchence Sure to Rise.

Smith has brought a cool $3,500 from Brooklyn and Welchence should bring just as much, if not more, from some big league club. He is destined to be leading the league in hitting before many days, and is an extra base slugger.

Rumor has it that Lindsay may be given a trial with Brooklyn next year. Considering Lindsay's batting, this looks unlikely on the face of it, but Scout Sutton argues that he might do better with the stick in the north, going West as an example. Wheat, a little hutang in this company, but is now one of the best in the business. Sutton conceals that Lindsay is a insider among a thousand and has the best throwing arm in the country, today.

New Orleans is the only team in the circuit that will probably furnish more men to the majors than the local bunch. Lige, Knappe, Calhoun, Mangan and prominently Johnson will go to Cleveland. Kirk will go to Detroit and Angemier to the Cubs. Nangle and Boone may also have a trial with Cleveland after the present season. The Peorian pitching staff is composed largely of major league castoffs, but Hess and Klavetter may get a call.

Many Are Recalled.

Phelan, Birmingham's fast little third-sacker, is the property of the Cincinnati Reds, and he sure to be recalled next year, and "Rowdy" Elliott, Baron catcher, will probably be recalled. Maxwell, one of the best pitchers in the league, has just been sold to the Giants by this club for $1,000.

Memphis has just sold outfielder Jackson to the Boston Doves. He is a slugger and ought to remain. Mobile will furnish two pitchers, Allen, whom Brooklyn bought for $5,000, and Burleson, for whom a number of clubs are bidding. From Montgomery Pratt and Elwert are in line for a lift and Daley has already been sold to Brooklyn for a good price. Atlanta's donation to the majors will be
