

ALBUQUERQUE MORNING JOURNAL.

THIRTY-FOURTH YEAR. VOL. CXXXV, No. 48.

ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO, SATURDAY, AUGUST 17, 1912

By Mail, 50 Cents a Month; Single Copies 5 Cents.
By Carrier, 60 Cents a Month.

DARROW CASE GOES TO JURY WHEN JUDGE GIVES HIS CHARGE

District Attorney Fredericks Closes Prosecution with a Powerful Plea for Conviction of Chicago Lawyer.

LIST OF 22 ALLEGED CRIMES CHARGED

Telephone Warnings and Procuring $10,000 from San Francisco Bank Are Among Offenses Claimed.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
Los Angeles, Aug. 16.—The case of Clarence S. Darrow, charged with jury bribery, will not go to the jury until tomorrow morning. District Attorney Fredericks did not conclude his final argument for the prosecution until late today, and Judge Huston announced that he would not deliver his instructions to the jury until tomorrow.

District Attorney Fredericks closed his argument, which had extended through a day and a half, by urging the jury to convict the Chicago lawyer and put an end forever to the corruption of juries.

"If by reason of his age," he said, "or for any other reason you think he is entitled to consideration or leniency, let the court extend it. Gentlemen, I leave it with you and your God. You cannot make any mistake if you find Clarence S. Darrow guilty."

In the final summing up of the evidence, Judge Huston read a list of twenty-two alleged crimes which he said had been committed by Darrow in his preparation of the McNamara case.

These included the telephone warning to several jurors considered hostile to the defense and the procuring of $10,000 in currency from a San Francisco bank for alleged corrupt purposes. The chief prosecutor declared that if Darrow was not convicted jury bribery would be made safe forever. "No jury," he said, "could ever get a stranger or clearer case than that which had been presented in this instance."

Speaking of the manner in which Darrow's closing plea had affected the jury, Captain Fredericks called upon the jurors to be strong men in the name of the state and in the name of decency.

"George Washington," he said, "when he signed the death warrant of Major Andre, you men must do your sworn duty even though it costs you your lives."

The prosecutor was interrupted frequently by attorneys for the defense, or by the defendant himself, who complained that he either misread the evidence or made statements outside the evidence. Fredericks declared the attorneys were "lodging" him because they did not want the jury to hear what he had to say, and asked the court to silence them.

Much time was devoted to the oft-discussed "peace negotiations" in the McNamara case. The speaker declared on one occasion that had George N. Lockwood accepted the bribe offered him instead of reporting it to the district attorney, there never would have been a settlement, as the defense would then have had two men on the jury.

The testimony of the defense witnesses that both of the McNamaras were willing to plead guilty a week before the culmination of the trial, was denounced as absurd.

"They were willing to let the poor wretch, J. R. McNamara, go to the gallows if necessary," said Fredericks, "but they did not want to throw in J. J. McNamara, because that would have meant the throwing in of the entire McNamara family, and they did not want to throw in the McNamara family, as they have termed it."

COUNCILMAN BURKE HAD BEEN CONVICT

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 16.—Mayor Rudolph Blankenship, in a statement tonight, leads a movement to turn back the resignation of Councilman William Burke, whose story of having a former convict as a partner was published here today with the news that he had sent in his resignation. The mayor says this is the time to apply the Golden Rule. Members of the city council say Burke's career in the chamber has been marked by a number of eccentric episodes. Soon after his election he was taken into custody by the police to ascertain whether or not he had spent the evening handing out his cards to women of the street and telling them they would have to leave town. After threatening the police he was locked up but later released.

Harry Thorne Denied New Trial.
Salt Lake City, Aug. 16.—Harry Thorne, twice convicted of the murder of George Fassell, an East Side grocer, March 24, 1910, was denied a third trial by the supreme court. He will be resented to death.

Tuberculosis Sanatorium for Indians.
Washington, Aug. 16.—The house Indian affairs committee this afternoon favorably reported a bill authorizing the secretary of the interior to set aside four sections of the unallotted lands of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Indians in Oklahoma for a site for a tuberculosis sanatorium.

DECISIVE BATTLE IN MIMIC WAR GAME

San Francisco, Aug. 16.—The four of battle will resume in the Santa Clara valley before many hours have passed. The Red and the Blue armies are converging on the fields near Coyote, where the decisive engagement of the campaign will be fought.

All day the wireless at the headquarters of the Blue army, now at Redwood City, has been buzzing with reports of and from the division of the Blues that has been seeking to hold in check the advancing Reds. The Reds went into camp at San Juan tonight. Orders were issued by Colonel Gardner that at 3 a. m. tomorrow every tent must be struck and the army be on its way to Coyote, a march of twenty-five miles.

Colonel Gardner has perfected his plans of attack and has been in constant communication with the forces facing the Red army.

WICKERSHAM WINS ALASKA ELECTION

Cordova, Alaska, Aug. 16.—With all but ten independent precincts reported, James Wickersham, progressive candidate for delegate to congress, has 2,419 votes; William A. Gilmore, republican, 1,379; Roda Klammann, socialist, 1,341; Robert W. Jenkins, democrat, 1,241; Harris, independent democrat, 269. Wickersham's election by 800 plurality is conceded. The missing precincts are on Seward peninsula and Bristol Bay.

THREE PRISONERS BREAK JAIL AT ALAMOSORDO

When Keeper Goes to Feed Inmates He is Knocked Down, Gagged, Tied and His Daughter Forced to Give Up Keys.

[Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.]
Alamosordo, N. M., Aug. 16.—When the jailer went to feed the prisoners tonight in the county jail, he was knocked down, gagged and hog tied and placed on a cot, then a daughter of the jailer was forced to take the keys from the jailer and open the front door, when the prisoners made their escape. Three prisoners made their get-away, while one refused to go and he helped to feed the alarm that brought assistance in time to save the jailer from being strangled by blood. The three prisoners were knocked out. The prisoners who made their escape were Charles G. Devere, charged with arson; H. G. Devere, charged with burglary of explosives; and Burton Kratz, charged with burglary and kidnapping. The sheriff and a posse are in pursuit, but the night is dark and the weather is stormy.

THE DAY IN CONGRESS.

SENATE.

Agreed to accept campaign contributions bill Saturday, bills of lifting bill Monday, and vocational school bill Tuesday.

Conference report on Panama canal bill was approved by a vote of 48 to 18, after a fight against it led by Chairman Brandegee.

Attempt to pass wool tariff revision bill over the president's veto failed.

Senator La Follette speaking on the wool bill attacked the new progressive party and swore new allegiance to progressive republicanism.

Number of important army propositions were confirmed, but the confirmation of Second Lieutenant Romero, as United States marshal for New Mexico, was withdrawn.

Adjourned at 6:25 p. m. until 11 a. m. Saturday.

HOUSE.

Chairman Hamlin, of state department expenditures committee, filed a report on the expenditures of the state department.

Representative Warburton in set speech, denounced pre-convention campaign in Washington state.

Representative Lammie, of South Carolina, and Laughlin, of Iowa, were declared entitled to their seats.

Attempt to pass the Corbett tunnel bill over the president's veto failed. Opposition to the Panama canal bill conference report forced an adjournment before the consideration of the report was concluded.

The Bourns-Bristow parcels post provision in the postoffice appropriation bill was substituted by the action of Representative Mann and the bill returned to conference.

The legislative, executive and judicial bill, with commerce court and seven-year tenure civil service provisions, was reported by the committee on Army appropriation and the far seat treaty bills were sent to conference.

Adjourned at 7:22 p. m. until 10:30 a. m. Saturday.

ALLEGED MURDERERS RETURNING FOR TRIAL

Stockton, Cal., Aug. 15.—Sheriff Kramer, of San Juan, Colo., issued through Stockton today with four Indians, who with Victor Panagari, a husband, at Silverton, Colo., a year and a half ago. The woman was arrested at Jamestown, Tennessee, according to the officer, the woman killed her husband with the aid of Panagari and then tried to burn the body. Panagari was arrested recently at Wallace, Idaho.

CANAL BILL PASSES CHANGE FOR SENATE, BUT IS BLOCKED IN HOUSE

Conference Report Is Adopted in Upper House by Vote of 48 to 18, After Strong Fight in Opposition.

REPRESENTATIVES FAIL TO GET ACTION

Speaker Clark Wants Some Phases Explained to Him Before Vote Is Taken; Underwood Carries It Over.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
Washington, Aug. 16.—The conference report on the Panama canal bill, containing the provisions against "trust owned" ships and granting free tolls to certain American vessels, was adopted by the senate today, 48 to 18, after a little fight against it led by Senator Brandegee, chairman of the Panama canal committee.

Senator Brandegee urged that the report be rejected, the measure allowed to go over for the session and a committee of the house and senate appointed to thresh out the problems involved. He attacked the bill as unfairly framed.

"I believe the bill now is a violation of our treaty obligations with Great Britain and I cannot vote for it," he said.

Senator Brandegee proposed a temporary resolution giving the president authority to organize the canal force, to publish maximum tolls of $1.25 per net ton, arrange for wireless telegraph installations and make provisions for repair of ships.

Senator Oliver, of Pennsylvania, introduced a resolution editorial which he said expressed his views of the Panama canal bill and brought a "brilliant" reply from Senator Williams, who declared the article was "scurrilous, insulting, offensive and unparliamentary" and that it made members of the house and senate appear as "nasses, demagogues, peddlars and dishonest men."

"It would appear that is the opinion in which the senator from Pennsylvania holds his colleagues," he added.

"That article expresses my opinion of the bill," retorted Senator Oliver, "and I withdraw nothing I have said."

Such unexpected opposition to the amended Panama canal bill developed in the house tonight that an adjournment was taken at the last hour of an embarrassing situation. Representative Moore and Olmstead, of Pennsylvania, republicans, led the attack. They charged that the conference had added matter not passed upon by either house, thereby exceeding their authority. The senate earlier in the day had adopted the conference report by a vote of 48 to 18 after a hard fight led by Senator Brandegee, chairman of the senate conference, who had refused to sign the report. Senator Brandegee sought defeat of the conference report and the passage of a temporary resolution giving the president authority to operate the canal.

In the house, special stress was laid on the fact that a provision for the free entry of ship building material into the canal zone had been inserted in the bill. Mr. Underwood argued, was a revenue item and could not properly come from the senate or be included in any general bill without the sanction of the house.

The extension of the free tolls privileges to American ships trading with the Philippines, Tutuila (Samoa), and Guam, also was attacked.

Representative Alexander, of Missouri, democrat, explained that this was necessary to permit American ship trading with these islands to enjoy the privileges.

Speaker Clark sought light on the situation. Finally seeing there was no chance of progress being made tonight, Majority Leader Underwood forced an adjournment.

POISON WIPES OUT ENTIRE FAMILY EXCEPT DABE

Rev. Gustave Latzke, Pastor of German Lutheran Church, and Three Others Die in Mysterious Manner.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
Rocky Ford, Colo., Aug. 16.—Removal of its parents through a mysterious poisoning which wiped out every other member of the family of the Rev. Gustave Latzke, pastor of the German Lutheran church here, a prattling babe, fourteen months old, was carried from the parsonage in the arms of friends tonight, following the death of the Rev. Mr. Latzke, the last of four to succumb.

Whether the deaths in the Latzke family were due to poisonous taken in soup eaten last night or to an admixture of other members of the family of the Rev. Gustave Latzke, Sr., pastor of the German Lutheran church here, a prattling babe, fourteen months old, was carried from the parsonage in the arms of friends tonight, following the death of the Rev. Mr. Latzke, the last of four to succumb.

The Duke of Sutherland speaking of the Panama canal bill tonight, said: "There is not going to be any trouble between England and America over the Panama canal. The English people are not discussing the matter. It is only the politicians who are doing the talking. The two countries are too friendly for any such trouble."

FIGHT IS ALL TAFT ASKS OF ENEMY

President Makes First Speech on Political Question Since Notification of Nomination Was Made.

ONLY REPUBLICAN ELECTORS ON TICKET

Nominee Asserts Only Dishonest Men Would Run Under Party Emblem and Vote Against Candidate.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
Washington, Aug. 16.—President Taft today made his first political speech since he was notified of his re-nomination.

Addressing members of the Maryland Republican Editorial Association in the East room of the White House, he declared bluntly that presidential electors were "dishonest men" if they let their names appear on the republican ballot and intended to vote for the candidate of another party.

"All we ask is a fair fight. A man cannot be in the republican party and in a third party at the same time and should be compelled to make his selection," said the president.

"Regularity, or feeling of regularity, and respect for the republican party for what it has done, what it is capable of doing, are going to bring over to the republican party what a man who has been dishonest and is going to increase that number in my judgment as we approach the election."

"It is, therefore, essential that we make the cleavage as clear as it can be made, also that those who are republicans shall be republicans and those who are with the bolshies shall bear their name and title and not be impostors and bolshies, because they cannot be—at least they ought not to be, in all fairness."

"We ought to have electors in each state bearing the emblem of the republican party, bearing the names of the candidates of the party for president and vice president at the head of the ticket, covering the electors who are going to vote for those names. If there are any men on that list who are not going to vote for the republican party, I don't hesitate to say that they are dishonest men, in that they are holding out to the people who are to vote for them an implied promise that they will vote for the names on the ticket when they, in fact, intend to vote for somebody else."

Some of the editors told the president that either the electors chosen for the republican ticket in Maryland would declare their intention to support him or a new state convention would be held to make new nominations.

The president began his speech with a brief summary of what the republican party stands for. He said: "We are republicans. That means that we believe in certain principles, that we believe in the constitution of the United States, that we believe in progress along the lines that the constitution indicates. We are protectionists and we are in favor of maintaining the present prosperity by maintaining a tariff system which will preserve business as it goes on now and shall secure as high wages as possible to the wage earners and a reasonable profit to those who invest their capital. Those two propositions cover a good deal of republicanism."

"Being a party, we are anxious to have the opinions that our party represents put into force in the operation of the government. The only way we can do that is by electing a congress and a president who will carry them out. Now, that means that we have to be a single party. I do not think we are unfair in asking what we believe is a chance for a fair fight and in counting those against us who are not with us."

The generals were seized at night and the two leaders of the Wu Chong outbreak were shot after being tried by a drumhead court-martial. The other officers were returned in chains to Hankow and executed.

The army officers arrived at Peking from Hankow a few days ago.

President Yuan Shai Kai received messages from General Li, the vice president of China, proving the completion of the general in Maryland, the army officers arrived at Peking from Hankow a few days ago.

ARMY BILL GOES TO CONFERENCE

Washington, Aug. 16.—The army appropriation bill which has passed the house twice and over which such a bitter fight has been waged, was sent to conference today by the house.

The chief difference between the two branches of congress are the provisions abolishing a large number of army posts, the reduction of the number of the extension of the term of enlistment from three to five years.

The bill putting into effect the international trade treaty with regard to the protection of the fur seals also was sent to conference. Representative Sulzer, of New York, democrat, moved a disagreement to all of the provisions of the bill and Speaker Chamberlain, republican, moved a disagreement to all of the provisions of the bill.

PANORAMA BUILDING BURNS IN CHICAGO

Chicago, Aug. 16.—Joseph O'Neil, of Boston, an unemployed cook, was severely burned and two Frenchmen, Lieutenant Thomas Dillon and T. F. Leitch, were injured today when fire destroyed the old Panorama building, 61-67 Hubbard court.

Four was entertained for a time that a score of tramps had been burned, but no bodies were found in the ruins.

FAIR EDITORS MAY SOON BE INVITED TO MEET WILSON AT SEAGIRT

Josephus Daniels, of North Carolina, Suggests Democratic and Independent Press Men Come to Little Capitol.

FLATTERING REPORTS FROM NEW YORK STATE

Roosevelt Admitted to Have Strong Following in Minnesota, But Electors May Be Secured for Governor.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 16.—Democratic editors throughout the country soon may be invited to gather at Seagirt for a conference with Woodrow Wilson.

Josephus E. Daniels, national committeeman from North Carolina, had a long talk with the governor tonight in which he broached the plan for a meeting of editors of democratic and independent papers, the time to coincide with the annual meeting of the American Newspaper Publishers Association in New York next month.

"I like the idea very much," said Governor Wilson tonight. "It is beginning to feel like a campaign." He added after his conference with Mr. Daniels and Mr. McKim: "We are organized and are getting momentum."

The two visitors brought the governor a report by George M. Palmer, democratic state committeeman in New York, after which "every senatorial district in New York," declaring that the Wilson force "held the state safe."

The governor also received a report by Fred R. Lynch, national committeeman in Minnesota, stating that while the Roosevelt movement was strong, the Wilson forces "would carry the state."

Governor Wilson said he was much interested in dispatches from California telling of the speeches in his behalf by Mrs. Gertrude Atherton.

"I met her some time ago at a dinner," remarked the governor, "and she said she would take to the stump."

CHINA'S PRESIDENT EXECUTES SWIFT VENGEANCE

Several Generals Accused of Plotting Against Republic Are Seized and Quickly Put to Death.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
London, Aug. 16.—The dramatic arrest and execution of several Hun generals, including Chang Chen Wu, alleged to be the head of a plot recently unearthed at Hankow, have caused intense excitement at the Chinese capital, according to the Peking correspondent of the Daily Telegraph.

The army officers arrived at Peking from Hankow a few days ago.

President Yuan Shai Kai received messages from General Li, the vice president of China, proving the completion of the general in Maryland, the army officers arrived at Peking from Hankow a few days ago.

YOUNG WOMAN VICTIM OF BRUTAL OUTRAGE

Chicago, Aug. 16.—While waiting for the train at Rock Springs station tonight, Miss Mabel Hoot, a superior, was assaulted by three men. She was rescued by a passing train.

From the description furnished by the girl it is believed by local authorities that the Chicago girls assaulted in the robbery were the same as those who were assaulted in the robbery at Rock Springs.

At the time when the Payne-Adams bill was put through congress it was currently reported that the cotton schedule for instance, was written by a then private citizen of Rhode Island, now a senator from your state, Mr. Lippitt. The republican purpose is to have future tariffs written by the St. Leger of the party.

TURKS MASSACRE MANY CHRISTIANS

Cyprus, Montenegro, Aug. 16.—Reports are circulating tonight of another terrible massacre of Christians by Mohammedans in Albania. A large number of Christians supported by the Christian population in the Berama district of Albania which lies close to the Montenegrin frontier, a fierce fight ensued and many Christians and children are reported to have been murdered by wholesale. Many girls were made captives.

A large number of Christians and their families have taken refuge in Montenegro.

NAT. C. GOODWIN OUT OF DANGER

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 16.—Dr. George Anderson, of Santa Monica, announced tonight that the condition of Nat. C. Goodwin, the man who was injured yesterday when his rowboat was dashed upon the rocks north of here, was much improved today, and that his recovery was assured.

JUAREZ IS A TOWN WHICH HAS NO COUNTRY

Rebels Have Evacuated Border City and Federals Have Not Yet Reached It; Citizens Patrol It.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
Juarez, Mex., Aug. 16.—The Mexican border town today bears the distinction of being probably the only municipality of civilization which has neither local government nor allegiance to any national government. By the evacuation of the town last night and early today, the rebel troops which have infested Juarez since the beginning of the present revolution, the town and countryside were left without civic protection of any kind. But tonight Juarez is quite orderly, patrolled by police who do not know for what political party or national government they are employed.

Consular agents of three nations, together with the merchants of the town, mostly Americans, Germans and French, today saw to the appointment of a police chief and a force adequate to prevent looting or disorder.

Thomas Edwards, American consul, and Max Wehler, German agent, of Juarez, together with Mexican Consul Enrique E. Lorente, of El Paso, arranged for the appointment of the police even before the last of the rebel soldiers had quit the town and before their departure, seeking the customhouse. The welfare of Juarez, a town of normally about 15,000 inhabitants, located opposite El Paso, Tex., is in the hands of this neutral body.

When the dim light away Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the United States flag in front of the city hall and made another address.

Three hours later Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the United States flag in front of the city hall and made another address.

When the dim light away Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the United States flag in front of the city hall and made another address.

When the dim light away Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the United States flag in front of the city hall and made another address.

When the dim light away Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the United States flag in front of the city hall and made another address.

When the dim light away Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the United States flag in front of the city hall and made another address.

When the dim light away Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the United States flag in front of the city hall and made another address.

When the dim light away Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the United States flag in front of the city hall and made another address.

When the dim light away Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the United States flag in front of the city hall and made another address.

When the dim light away Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the United States flag in front of the city hall and made another address.

When the dim light away Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the United States flag in front of the city hall and made another address.

When the dim light away Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the United States flag in front of the city hall and made another address.

When the dim light away Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the United States flag in front of the city hall and made another address.

When the dim light away Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the United States flag in front of the city hall and made another address.

When the dim light away Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the United States flag in front of the city hall and made another address.

When the dim light away Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the United States flag in front of the city hall and made another address.

When the dim light away Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the United States flag in front of the city hall and made another address.

ROOSEVELT SPEAKS FOR PROGRESSIVE PRINCIPLES IN POLITICS

Bull Moose Leader Declares Ordinary Voter Has Nothing to Hope for Through Either Democrats or Republicans.

"WE STAND FOR A PROTECTIVE TARIFF"

Third Platform, He Says, Has Faced All Issues and Stands for Labor and Business Against Privilege.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
Providence, R. I., Aug. 16.—The cheering and song and prayer the progressive party's national campaign was opened here tonight. Theodore Roosevelt came to Rhode Island, which he described as a horse-ridden state, to open the campaign and receive a welcome which, as he put it, would have done credit to Kansas.

When Colonel Roosevelt reached Providence he found several thousand persons massed in the square before the railroad station and on the street leading to his hotel. The crowd blocked the way and cheered him until he stood up in front of the crowd and made a speech. He was hailed a second time in front of the city hall and made another address.

Three hours later Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the United States flag in front of the city hall and made another address.

When the dim light away Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the United States flag in front of the city hall and made another address.

When the dim light away Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the United States flag in front of the city hall and made another address.

When the dim light away Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the United States flag in front of the city hall and made another address.

When the dim light away Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the United States flag in front of the city hall and made another address.

When the dim light away Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the United States flag in front of the city hall and made another address.

When the dim light away Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the United States flag in front of the city hall and made another address.

When the dim light away Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the United States flag in front of the city hall and made another address.

When the dim light away Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the United States flag in front of the city hall and made another address.

When the dim light away Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the United States flag in front of the city hall and made another address.

When the dim light away Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the United States flag in front of the city hall and made another address.

When the dim light away Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage of the city hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the