

LEADERS PICTURED IN NEW MEXICO BOOK

Edition Issued in Denver Gives Biographies of State's Prominent Men.

Pictures of more than 400 representative New Mexico men, together with a biographical sketch of each man, interwoven with historical facts of note, are in the first of a two-volume edition entitled "Representative New Mexicans," which has just been issued by C. S. Peterson, of Denver. Data for the second volume of the edition is now being gathered.

The fact that New Mexico is now a state, coupled with the right waged for nearly fifty years to gain admittance into the Union, makes this the first authentic biography of her leading citizens, of undoubted value.

Contrary to the natural first conclusion that a book of this kind would be filled with pictures and autobiographies of politicians, lawyers, and "would-be," the first volume of "Representative New Mexicans" contains 400 sketches of farmers, ranchers, merchants and miners and but 100, or one-fourth of its total, of officers and statesmen. And only those officials whose achievements have won renown are mentioned in the book. It is a reliable guide for those wanting to know "who's who" in the new state. It is also of untold value as a newspaper reference book, for which purpose it was readily compiled.

Peterson is sending free a copy of this book to each newspaper and each public library in New Mexico, so that its future as a reference library is assured. The book is printed on good enameled book paper and is substantially bound in buckram, with leather corners.—Denver Rocky Mountain News.

"DEMOCRAT"
FOR SALE

On account of property interests which will require my close and confidential efforts, I have concluded to sell the New Mexico State Democrat. A better field for large circulation and advertising patronage can not be found in the southwest than right here in central New Mexico. With the certainty of a democratic administration after March 4, 1913, the state democrat is a good investment. Inquire, if desired.

UNSETTLES ALL MARKETS

Initial Dealings in Stocks Show Decline, Weakest Issue Being Canadian Pacific; Foreign Sales Depressed.

Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.

New York, Oct. 9.—Foreign developments were responsible for another setback in the stock market today. The Balkan situation caused demobilization in Paris, increased the unsettlement prevailing on the Berlin Bourse, and added to the state of depression in London.

Initial dealings here showed declines of a point over two points, the weakest issue being Canadian Pacific. In the late afternoon, when trading was lighted, a part of the early losses were retrieved. The most notable exception among high grade issues was Canadian Pacific, which was persistently dressed for sale, some of the offerings coming direct from Berlin.

The government crop report was the sustaining feature of the final hour. The corn conditions on October 1st was 82.2, a slight gain over last month. Money was more firm, cash loans going to 4 per cent before the close. A slight advance was reported in 90-day rates with some reduction for the longer periods. Foreign exchange strengthened on account of the European war scare.

Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—War news overshadowed everything else in today's market. In consequence, there was a net advance of 3 1/2 to 4 1/2 cents, with the feeling at the close strong.

Foreigners were reported active buyers and American speculators showed even keener desire to take advantage of a possible big bulge in prices.

The government crop report, which turned out to be against the bulls, came too late to affect the market. December swing from 21 1/2 cents to 23 1/2 cents, with last sales 23 1/2 cents above last night, at 23 1/2 to 24 1/2 cents.

Corn closed 1/4 cent to 3/4 cent up, oats closed at a gain of 1/4 cent to 1/2 cent. Provisions closed dealer by 3 cents to 17 1/2 cents.
