

DIVORCING PLAN OF BIG FIVE IS UNSATISFACTORY

Proposal To Sell Packers' Stock Yard Interests To a Boston Concern Is Faulty, Commission Says.

(Special Correspondence to The Journal.) Washington, Sept. 17.—The plan proposed by the big five packers to dispose of their stockyard interests to F. H. Prince & Co. of Boston, will not result in the separation of the stockyards from packer interests, the federal trade commission declared today in a report to Attorney General Palmer.

The commission gave two reasons for its conclusions, as follows: The long time stockyards relations of F. H. Prince with the packers have been such that the plan will not result, in the opinion of the commission, in a divestment of the stockyards from the packer interest.

DIVERSIFIED FARMING IN TEXAS PROFITABLE

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE.) Corpus Christi, Texas, Sept. 17.—Diversified farming can be made to pay handsomely, according to Clay Roberts, former lumber dealer of Corpus Christi, who has completed a year's experiment with a five-acre tract in the outskirts of this city.

Mr. Roberts said he had done no irrigating but had cultivated his land constantly. The first crop, onions, was planted last fall, resulting in a gross return of $75. Potatoes next were planted and yielded $110 gross an acre.

HIRAM JOHNSON IS GIVEN HIGH PRAISE BY COX

Governor Admires California Senator For His "Frankness and Lack of Ambiguity or Hypocrisy."

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE.) Sacramento, Calif., Sept. 17.—In an address here today opening his California campaign, Governor Cox of Ohio, democratic presidential candidate, praised Senator Hiram Johnson, republican, who resides here, as an exponent of progressive and again flayed "big business" and republican leaders supporting Senator Harding.

Although they differ fundamentally on the locus of malices, Governor Cox said he admired Senator Johnson for frankness and lack of ambiguity or hypocrisy. "He and I do not agree on international policies," said Governor Cox to a large theater audience at a noon meeting, "but I respect the man for his candor."

"I have looked with admiration throughout the years against reaction. He fought it with Roosevelt and he continued consistently the contest which began in 1912, through the primaries and the convention of 1920 just as Roosevelt would have done."

"As an Ohioan, I give to you the assurance that the observation made by a distinguished citizen of our state to the effect that Hiram Johnson was a blackguard and unfit to associate with decent men is not in the view of our people. If Hiram Johnson had been a candidate before the republican primaries in Ohio this year he would have carried them."

"If the reactionary senatorial oligarchy gains control of the government in this campaign, it will so manipulate the power of patronage that the progressive republicans will either be compelled to join another party or to form one of their own."

Some years ago a Spaniard named Godinez offered to subject himself to the electric chair in Sing Sing prison. The offer was refused, but he proved later that he was able to stand a charge far higher than that used in the prison for the purpose of electrocution. At an exhibition before medical scientists he stood between two electrodes and permitted a constant stream of lightning to pass through his body without suffering any harmful result.

BOSTON WOOL

Boston, Sept. 17.—The Commercial Bulletin tomorrow will say: "Reports from the good market are rather conflicting but seem to indicate that a fair business has been done by some of the principal mills on the better types of worsted cloths. This would seem to be indicated also in moderate sales of wool for cloths of this description. The demand for goods seems to be reviving slowly, although the trade is hopeful that presently it will increase very considerably."

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW

New York, Sept. 17.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: "Divergent and conflicting influences rob the trade situation of uniformity. The broad general statements may be made that trade, as a whole, not better than fair, industrial operations are maintained, but below the speed of some months ago, that collections are only fair to slow but that good, warm weather is helping the corn market to mature nicely, and that dryer weather in some states has made for rather better reports from the south's leading staple, cotton."

In the textile trades and in wearing apparel generally, the advance of the season and the necessity of making buying decisions offset to some degree the hesitation bred by uncertainty as to future prices, the result being a sort of compromise in which actual needs and immediate requirements govern purchases.

East Las Vegas, N. M., Sept. 17.—S. W. Stewart, of San Diego, Calif., might have accumulated a good sized fortune if he had taken an offer made him here in 1878. This property is in the business heart of the city now, and is worth many thousands of dollars. Mr. Stewart, who is here on a visit, regrets he did not take the property.

TEXAS MAN WILL GO TO GERMANY TO BE MARRIED

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE.) Corpus Christi, Tex., Sept. 17.—After more than ten months of effort to obtain proper passports, W. P. Bub, a young farmer of the Realitos (Texas) district is preparing to start overseas to claim for his bride a German sweetheart whom he left in the occupied area around Coblenz.

During the war Mr. Bub served with the American army in France and later was stationed in Germany in the army of occupation. There were orders not to fraternize with the enemy but when the "enemy" happened to be a nice-looking young woman, orders were disobeyed in many instances. Mr. Bub did and when he left Europe he had promised to return for his sweetheart.

His first application for passport was made through the office of the United States commissioner here. Some time later, on January 10, this year, his passport issued. It proposed to route the young man through France and in anticipation of a speedy trip to Germany Mr. Bub left Texas in high spirits. His enthusiasm received a jolt when he reached New York for he was informed by port authorities there that his routing was impossible and that he would have to obtain a passport routing him through Holland before they would issue it.

Returning to his home, the Texan made application for the passport designated and after more delay received it. By this time, however, pressure of business kept him at home until the six months' limit expired and a new passport was required.

Following a conference with steamship agents recently, in which he was told that if he procured a passport to Switzerland he could leave almost immediately for Hamburg, Mr. Bub returned to Corpus Christi and made application for a third passport. He expects to leave for New York as soon as the papers arrive. He said he would bring his bride with him to his farm near Realitos.
