

WE violate no confidence, and commit no indiscretion in saying that the Army of the Potomac will be reviewed by the President within a few days.

THE SHARP BROTHERS in Kentucky sent their sympathizers squirming and writhing in all directions.

STAND BY THE TICKET. Every loyal man should be on the alert to secure the triumphant success of the Union ticket at the next election.

THE UNION COUNTY AFFAIR. But one sentiment prevails the minds of the loyal men of Illinois, relative to the recent rebel outrages and murder in Union County.

EX-RESIDENT FILLMORE. Ex-President Fillmore, the signer of the Fugitive Slave Law, and who publicly said in 1850, that the South would be justified, if a President should be elected who would support the Fugitive Slave Law.

THE ALLEGED IMBROGLIO. The venerable, rather than venerated, National Intelligencer, publishes approvingly the remark of the editor of this city, that there is no Illinois faction of the Democratic party, contending for peace at any price.

OPERATIONS IN THE SOUTHWEST. There can be no service to the country by an editorial on the present dry weather, in relation to our western army operations.
