

HOW TO KEEP THE OLD SOLDIERS

The time is fast passing when a large number of our volunteer soldiers will be entitled, under the provisions of their enlistment, to quit the army, and return to their homes and the ordinary avocations of civil life.

Our Canada Neighbors

The Quebec Chronicle of a late date says news is said to have reached that city that five regiments were ordered out from England in consequence of the American Government having refused to furnish them with arms.

Marine "Devils" on the Way to the South

The steamer Ericson left New York on Friday, for the South, with a heavy cargo of marine troops, and a detachment of the 1st and 2nd regiments of the 1st Marine Corps.

The Great West

Our territorial domain in the far West may truly be characterized as great. This a few years ago was a vast and unexplored territory.

Table with 4 columns: State or Territory, Population, Area, etc. Lists states like California, Texas, Nevada, etc.

A Child of the 'Fugitive Slave'

Thomas Sims—the first fugitive slave sent back from Boston under the Fugitive Slave Law—has again escaped into liberty.

WHAT CAUSES THE DELAY.

It is now sixty days since Congress adjourned. The great and decisive campaign has been opened. The Union will be saved or lost before the end of the year.

THE LAST OF THE STAFF.

By order of the Secretary of War, the personal staff of General McClellan has been dismissed. The hero of Antietam is to be sent home.

THE BUSINESS OF A REBEL

The business of a rebel is a very profitable one. He has many ways of making money, and he is not afraid to do it.

THE NEW CONFEDERATE TAX BILL

The new Confederate tax bill bears pretty heavy on the shoulders of the rebels. It is thought in Richmond that it will have the effect of breaking down many persons who have heretofore carried on a successful trade.

THE OPELOUSAS CANYON

The Opeous Canyon, in Louisiana, is a very beautiful and interesting place. It is a deep and narrow gorge, with high, steep sides.
