

REAL ESTATE.
THE
Chicago Land Co.
OFFER FOR SALE
INSIDE
REAL ESTATE.

This Company was to sell within the next few months its entire list of unsold property. We have

8,000 FEET OF DOCKED WATER FRONT, AND 600 LOTS FOR HOUSES.

We think parties desiring Sites for Manufacturing, Sites for Iron Foundries, Sites for Grain Elevators, Cannot fail of finding satisfactory locations, both as to cost and convenience. The attention of Property Proprietors is particularly called to this tract. It is all situated between Chicago-av. and North-av., from Halsted to Noble-sts. We offer entire blocks of water front, already docked, on the river and the canal, and entire blocks adjacent to the water front, both having railway track connections. Also blocks of various sizes lying on the Northwestern Railway, with from one to three street fronts, at moderate rates.

Chicago-av., Division-st., and North-av. are all built to grade and paved right through the property and beyond the river, so that teams have short routes to the locality over Nicolson Avenue, by taking any of the main thoroughfares from the South Division.

THE RESIDENCE LOTS

Are very desirable to mechanics, both in location and price. The property is offered in single lots, or in such lots or parcels as purchasers may want, and at prices so low as will insure their sale. The amount of money to be paid is fixed about as the buyer may wish—long extension being given to the balance at 7 per cent interest. Apply to

MAHON D. OGDEN,

Trustee, or

H. B. BOGUE, Secretary,

Office of Ogdens, Sheldon & Co., Room 24, northeast corner Madison and La Salle-sts.

AUCTION SALE

OF

36 Residence Lots,

On the highest ground inside the old city limits. Sale to take place on the ground,

Tuesday Next, Oct. 22.

These lots are situated east of the Powell House, and near Milwaukee-av. They are accessible by street cars, three lines of omnibuses, and the new Chicago & Pacific Railroad, depots located within two blocks. Trains will run every 30 minutes each way. Fare on either of these but 5 cents, which renders this property as accessible as any on the West Side. Ground is high enough to get a dry cellar.

We have retained 100 of this season, at prices ranging from $450 to $600 each. Sale made to close partnership interest. Every lot must be sold.

Title is perfect. Full Warranty Deed Abstract given each purchaser when first payment is made.

TERMS OF SALE—Five cash on lot; balance in four equal payments, payable in 12, 18, and 24 months, with 8 per cent interest. A deposit of $50 will be required on the ground. Omibuses will leave our office at 1:30 p. m. Tuesday, Oct. 22.

For full information and free tickets to sale and return, call at our office. Office open every evening until 9 o'clock.

STOREY, ALLEN & CO.,

126 West Washington-st.

TO RENT.

OFFICES IN THE

Tribune Building

Are nearly finished. Several are yet untaken. Fire-proof, with vaults. English tile floors throughout. No offices in the city equal these in every first-class respect. Plans of the Tribune Building can be seen at the office of

W. C. DOW,

Room No. 1, Nevada Block.

STATIONERY.

J. D. ROBERTSON,

STATIONER,

Blank Book Manufacturer, and Commercial Printer,

NO. 179 EAST MADISON-ST.,

Is now prepared to supply his patrons and to furnish all kinds of STATIONERY. The trade generally are invited to inspect his stock, which is complete in every branch.

FURNITURE.

FASHIONABLE

FURNITURE!

W. W. STRONG FURNITURE CO.,

353 to 359 W. Randolph-st., Chicago.

Branch Salesmen, Wabash-av. and 22d-st.

We call special attention to our stock of Low Priced Goods suitable for present demands.

RUDOLPH & THOMALEN

153 WEST WASHINGTON-ST.

FINISH MEDIUM

FURNITURE.

Small expenses, small profits, low prices.

FINANCIAL.

Loans Negotiated

On real estate, in the city or suburbs, at current rates.

G. HUBBARD, JR.,

126 East Washington-st.

REAL ESTATE.
THE MOST ATTRACTIVE
SALE OF THE YEAR.
Beautiful Grove Lots,
EACH 50 FEET FRONT,
AT AUCTION
ON THE GROUNDS,
AT WASHINGTON HEIGHTS

ON SATURDAY, OCT. 26, 1872, by

C. C. THAYER & CO.,

Real Estate Auctioneers and Brokers.

These lots are in the Vincennes Road and Brokers' block, the west 1/4 of section 16, Township 33 N., Range 12 E., containing 10 acres, and having a half-mile of frontage on the Vincennes Road, which runs from the northwest to the southeast line of this property. The lots are situated on a beautiful grove, and on a high, healthy, and elevated position, and cannot be surpassed. The Rock Island & Pacific Railroad passes through the southeast corner of the subdivision, at which point a depot will be built, and the Washington Heights Branch Railroad runs along the west line of this property, and at its junction with Vincennes Road and Sharpshooters Park-av. a depot is being built. With two depots upon the property, great advantages and facilities are given. In the immediate vicinity of this subdivision improvements are rapidly going on, and a number of houses are being erected, and the property is being improved by parties interested in property in this subdivision, and we have assurance that it will be a success. In brief, for health of location, attractiveness and accessibility, the Vincennes Road Subdivision is not surpassed.

All interested in possessing pleasant suburban homes, or in making a profitable investment, should attend this sale. Title to property perfect. Abstract of the Vincennes Road Subdivision is not surpassed.

Terms of sale, one-fourth cash, balance in two, two and three years, with interest at 6 per cent. One-tenth of 10 per cent will be required on the day of sale, and the balance paid on or before the 15th day of November.

A free train will leave the depot of the Rock Island & Pacific Railroad, on Saturday, Oct. 26, at 10 a. m., and return after sale.

All lots will be served on the ground.

All go who go, for a pleasant ride to this charming suburb will prove beneficial to the health, and a liberal extension will be given to the balance at 7 per cent interest. For particulars, inquire at the office of the Auctioneers.

C. C. THAYER & CO.,

186 East Madison-st.

FOR SALE.

One of the best corner lots, 50x100 feet, on West Madison-st., west of Halsted-st., in the West Division. Renting for over $4,000 per annum. Must be sold this week. For particulars, inquire at the office of the Auctioneers.

D. COLE & SON,

Real Estate Agents, 185 West Madison-st.

SILKS.

SPECIAL SALE OF SILKS.

CARSON,

PIRIE & CO.,

329 WEST MADISON-ST.,

in order to reduce their stock of

PLAIN, COLORED, FANCY, AND

RICH BLACK SILKS, offer the following inducements to purchasers for the next thirty days only.

ONE-FIFTH OFF,

Or 20 PER CENT DISCOUNT will be deducted from all purchases of the above goods during the time mentioned.

The regular prices of these goods will remain unaltered, so that customers can see that this offer is made in good faith; the discount will be deducted from the face of the bill.

This stock consists of all the best shades of plain colored Gros Grains, Failles, Gros de Afrique, Taffetas and Poul de Soies. Fancy Stripe Silks in White, Grey and Black grounds in large variety, a few of them as low as 75c yd. All of our Stock of Rich Black Silks over $3.25 per yard, consisting of elegant Gros Grains, Cachemires, Sublimes, etc. of Bonnet's and other best makes.

Black Silks lower than the above price will be sold at cost, but the discount of 20 per cent will not apply to them.

We will also offer during this sale genuine Lyons Cloak Velvets, at such a sacrifice that we will place them $3 to $5 a yard lower than the lowest market price.

BUSINESS CARDS.

Sheppard & Streeter

BUY AND SELL

Real Estate,

NEGOTIATE LOANS,

Rent Buildings.

186 AND 188

East Madison-st.

UNION FOUNDRY WORKS,

N. S. BOUTON, President,

Corner Fifteenth and Dearborn-sts.,

Are prepared to do all General Jobbing Work, Car, Bridge and Rolling Mill Castings.

ORDERS SOLICITED.

COR. FIFTEENTH & DEARBORN-STS.

MISCELLANEOUS:

SPLENDID OPPORTUNITY!

For a Liberal Newspaper man, with $500. Such an opportunity is but seldom met with. Address "X," Tribune office.

GLAZED AND COLORED PAPER

At Culver, Page, Hynes & Co's,

118 and 120 Monroe-st., Chicago.

CHANGE OF FIRM

MR. JOHN B. RAYMOND and MR. HENRY C. BARNARD have become partners in our house, dating from Oct. 1.

FRANKLIN MAO VEAUGH & CO.,

Chicago, Oct. 18, 1872.

REMOVAL.

Schneider Bros. have removed their Real Estate Office to 123 La Salle-st., Rooms 7 and 8, Oriental Building.

MEETINGS.

Shoemakers, Attention.

A mass meeting to consider the relation of wages to labor will be held at 7:30 Dearborn-st., Monday evening, Oct. 22. All shoemakers are requested to be present.

POLITICAL.
Grand Liberal Rally at Cairo on Sat- urday.

Senator Trumbull Replies to

Speaker Blaine's Chicago Speech.

Enthusiastic Liberal Meetings

at Tuscola, Ill.

Speeches by General Black, Governor

Bross, and Others.

How Senator Spencer, of Alabama,

Proposes to Secure a

Re-election.

LIBERAL RALLY AT CAIRO.—SPEECH OF SENATOR TRUMBULL IN REPLY TO BLAINE'S CHICAGO SPEECH.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

Cairo, Ill., Oct. 19.—The Liberals had a monster torch-light procession and demonstration here to-night. Large delegations came by steamer and special trains from Paducah, Mound City, Columbus, and other adjacent towns. Senator Trumbull addressed a vast audience of six thousand persons in one of his most forcible and effective speeches. He replied as follows to Speaker Blaine's Chicago speech:

"Mr. Blaine, Speaker of the House of Representatives, in speaking of the Liberal movement since, said: 'From the beginning this has been a campaign of extraordinary vigorous lying,' in which I quite agree with him, but in which I have been disappointed. The Liberals with whom he acts. For my own part I have never indulged in personal attacks upon any one. I have spoken freely of existing evils, and of the abuses of the Government, and of corrupt acts of officials, but of private transactions, and of individuals as such, never. Mr. Blaine, in endeavoring to defend himself and the management of the Senate from the charge of having unfairly organized and packed the committees of investigation with partisans and special friends of the officials whose conduct was to be investigated, said that by Mr. Trumbull's and Mr. Schure's vote on the committee to be packed against the Administration of General Grant, Mr. Blaine did not and cannot adduce any proof in support of his charge. He said: 'Neither of us ever desired more than that the friends of investigation should be fairly represented upon the committee.' Mr. Blaine says: 'Certain allegations against the management of the Navy Department in the New York Sun. Mr. Trumbull came and said that an investigation would be moved in the House by Governor Blair, and he said: 'He intimated to me that he hoped that there would be more fairness in the House investigation than had been shown in the Senate. I told him, of course, I could not say anything about the appointment of a select committee, but what I would do in the future must be judged by what I had done in the past. Mr. Blaine says: 'I have not seen Mr. Blair's reply to my suggestion for a fair committee. Can it be that he has forgotten his assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied to let Chairman and Mr. Schure be consulted by the committee, as soon as the resolution was adopted? Has he further forgotten that he intimated immediately on the adoption of the resolution, that Governor Blair was unwilling, in view of the frequent packing of committees with special friends of the Administration, to undertake the investigation of the alleged abuses in the Naval Department, unless he could be assured in advance that he would have a fair committee. It was to obtain that assurance that Mr. Blair, who offered the resolution, would be satisfied