Delusive Dispatches from Kellogg to the President.

New IBERIA, La., May 7.-Couriers arriving from St. Martinsville this evening, report skir-mishing all day, with no serious results so far. Badger came out of town this evening, with his Napoleon 12-pounder and about 25 men, to coerce the citizens. After firing a few rounds, he was compelled to beat a hasty retreat, large bodies of citizens being on all sides and rapidly closing in on him. The citizens are in excellent spirits, and want for nothing. Wagons are coming with supplies from all points and long distances. Deblane can capture the town any time he feels so disposed, but the object is more o resist Kellogg's Government than to have any bloodshed. Several Metropolitans have deserted. To-day large numbers of citizens are ready o move when called upon.

New IBERIA, May 8.—The latest advices from St. Martinsville report the situation unchanged. During the skinmish of yesterday afternoon a young lady of 16 was wounded in the neck, and one man in the arm. It appears that the police fired on some houses, thinking there were armed men within. Badger's position is considered precarious, and his retreat may be expected at any time. The Mayor of the town has been imprisoned for high treason. The number of Metropolitans wounded are less than heretore reported. The people here are less excited to-day, but firm. All look for startling news. Some white men were heard urging the negroes to take up arms yesterday, and one threatened to "buck and gag" one of our best citizens for discountenancing such a proceeding. The project, however, has failed, so far as the negroes are concerned. They say it ls not their fight. NEW OBLEARS, May 7 .- The following was received to-day: WASHINGTON, May 7.

To W. P. Kellogg, Governor of Louisiana:
The President directs me to say to you that he deprecates an aggressive policy, and that the United States authorities are not to be used except in an emergency. The officer in command of the department in which Louisiana is included has been sent ruli-instructions in regard to the course which the President desires him to pursue. You will, therefore, take no action which would require the sanction of the President without orders from these headquarters.

New Orleans, May 8.—Senator West telegraphed the following to Kellogg to-day from Washington: "If you are threatened with violent combinations too powerful to be overcome by your State forces, and you think it necessary to require the aid of the forces of the United States, make a requisition upon the President in accordance with the Constitution of the United States, make a requisition upon the President in accordance with the Constitution of the United States, simply stating the fact, and that your Legislature cannot be convened, and I know that every means will be placed at your disposal to fully maintain your authority."

Orders have been sent by the War Department this morning reinforcing Gon. Emory.

An extra Republican says: "Gen. Emory has received the following dispatch, and will act upon the instructions without delay:

New Orleans, May 8.—The Evening Picayune has the following:

After the crack of the whip or the pistol-shot, or whatever it was that frightened Kellogg last evening, he jumped into his carriage and was driven at a furious rate to the St. Charles Hotel. Kellogg gotout, and in a very nervous manner, and as pale as a ghost, inquired for Mr. Bob Rivers, the proprietor of the hotel. When he came Kellogg seized him by the arm in a very exceed manner and hurried him into Rivers' back office. His first words were, "Mr. Rivers, I am in great trouble." Said Mr. R., "What is the matter?" "I have been shot at. I don't know what I have done to this people that they should desire to take my life. What shall I do?" clasping his hands in his extreme agitation. "I'll tell you what I would do if I were in your place. I would pack up my trunk and leave the city at once. The people don't want you here." Kellogg asked, "How can I get away with safety? I have tried to do my best for this people. Why should they desire to kill me?" "No," said Mr. Rivers, "Governor, you have not done your best; you have deceived every man who has placed any confidence in your word. You promised several gentlemen in my presence that if ever you became Governor you would not commission that negro, Brown, as Superintendent of Públic Education. You had not been in office twelve minutes before you had commissioned him. Besides you ought to know best yourself whether you were elected Governor or not; but you must be satisfied now that you are not even the choice of you ought to know best yourself whether you were elected Governor or not; but you must be satisfied now that you are not even the choice of the negro, and every white man in the State repudiates you. You have everything that men fight for in this world. You have wealth and talent, and you are a man of family. Be satisfied, and don't try to govern a people who hate you. You have escaped this time, but this is not the only attempt which is likely to be made upon your life, and perhaps you may not escape in the future."

future."

After some further conversation, Kellogg sent for some Deputy Marshal or police, and was driven to Gen. Emory's headquarters.

BRASHEAR CITY, May 8.—About forty mounted Metropolitans crossed the Teche to-day, en route to St. Martinsville. The balance, about fifty, returned to New Orleans this evening.

The United States troops are still here awaiting. The United States troops are still here awaiting transportation. Arrangements had been made for transportation, with the agreement that the Deputy United States Marshal should not accompany them. The boat they were to leave on came in sight, but, from some unknown cause, turned back in the direction of Franklin, leaving the troops on the wharf. They were very much disappointed on seeing the boat turn back, appearing anxious to reach their destina-

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

Washington, May 8.—The Administration is greatly perplexed about the alarming condition of affairs in Louisiana. It was not generally believed here that the opposition to the Kellogg Government was so formidable. Kellogg himself, in his communication to the President and the Attorney-General, represented that the Mc-Enery faction was insignificant, and would not offer open resistance. A short time ago, a telegram was received from Kellogg, stating that the people were paying their taxes, and that the receipts were larger than those of previous years. It turns out that these were delusions. Had the President been fully aware of the true condition of things, he would no doubt have made a stronger appeal to Congress for its action. It will be observed that for the present the authorities here have decided to proceed cautiously. A collision between the troops and the people will, if possible, he avoided. Kellogg has not asked for troops, but his latest dispatch indicates that he no longer regards the opposition he has to contend with as a trivial affair.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—A consultation was held at the War Department this morning botween Gen. Sherman, Acting Secretary of War Robeson, Atty.-Gen. Williams, and Senator West, of Louisiana, the subject being the condition of affairs in Louislana. It was decided to instruct Gen. Emory that he should call for whatever troops were necessary to enforce the laws and preserve the public peace, but not otherwise to interfere, except in assisting the proper authorities in car rying out the processes of the courts. Review of the Money, Gold, Bond, Stock, and Produce Markets.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

NEW YORK, May 8.—The money market after p. m. became decidedly easier. The street rates about 3 p. m. for call loans on approved stock collaterals were reduced to 6 per cent, with stock collaterals were reduced to 6 per cent, with final transactions at 5. During the greater part of the day, however, money was not abundant. There were evidences of the same class of manipulations as were employed in making stringent money-rates last week. It is scarcely probable, however, with the continued large remittances from the interior, that any artificial means will be successful in raising money-rates, though this was attempted to-day.

The stock market was weak and lower early in the day, when prices declined 1/2 to 1 per cent in the general list, but it was higher in the afternoon. Canton was exceptionally weak late in the day.

was alternately strong and weak, and ranged between 117% and 117%. The rates paid for carrying, to-day, were 5, 4, 436, 23%, 5, 6, and 7 per cent; for borrowing, 1-64, 1-32, 3-64, and 1-16 to flat.

Government bonds were firm at the close.

There is a fair inquiry for flour, with limited arrivals, especially of low grades. These are better and in demand. Medium extras are quiet and irregalar. Family grades are in fair request and steady. The pork market is again very dull, and a few lots sold in the jobbing way realized $18.25. For future delivery there is very little demand, and prices are 50c lower. We note a sale of 500 brls for June delivery at $18.00. Extra prime is quiet at $14.00: prime is dull at $17.50 @18.00. Cut meats are quiet, and meet with very little demand. Dry salted shoulders are in fair inquiry. Western tierced hams rule dull at $11½@12½c; city hams, $11½@12½c. Bellies are quiet and firm. Lard is weak and declining. Very little business accomplished today.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune. OTTAWA, May 8.—In the House of Commons esterday, Mr. Nelson moved a resolution in favor of establishing reciprocal trade between Canada and the Sandwich Islands, with a view of anticipating the efforts making by the United States to secure the command of the Pacific trade. The Government promised its consideratrade. The Government promised its consideration.

Mr. Mills' motion, in favor of a Senate elected by the local Legislatures, instead of a Crownnominated one, gave rise to an interesting debate. The general feeling in Canada appears in favor of an elective Senate, but many fear to make the change at the present moment, and are disagreed as to the mode of election. It is a question to be considered apart from party politics.

Only 107 members were in the House, but the motion was defeated by 15 majority.

Macdonald and his colleagues. Nothing but the consciousness, not merely of guilt, but the consciousness that it can be proved, could make him act as he did on Monday and Tuesday."

born Jan. 10, 1804, in Easton, where he died, and where he spent the most useful years of his life. With his brother Oliver, he succeeded to the manufacturing business of his father. The shovels made by this firm came into world-wide use. His connection with the Pacific is fresh in the minds of the public. There is no doubt that the energy and confidence with which he embarked his own fortunes in that enterprise did much to insure its success. When the first decision was made by the Secretary of the Treasury, a few years ago, that all the earnings of the Union Pacific Railroad should be retained by the Treasury and applied to the payment of the arrears of interest due from the Company to the Government, the effect was so depressing upon its securities that he found himself unable to meet the heavy engagements he was carrying. He appealed to his creditors, who gave him an extension of time which enabled him fully to recover himself. His political career was inconspicuous. For two years he was a member of the Executive Council of Massachusetts, in 1860 and 1861. He entered Congresa for the first time in 1862, and was re-elected four times, remaining in his seat till the expiration of the last Congress.

He devoted himself while in Congress solely to legislation connected with railroad matters and manufacturing, and in the JUDICIAL. Farmers' Convention at Centralia-J. P. Johnson Nominated for Judge of the Twenty-third Circuit.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune. CENTRALIA, Ill., May 8.-The Convention called by the Central Farmers' Club, for nominating a candidate for the Twenty-third Judicial Circuit, composed of Marion, Washington, Raudolph, Clinton, and Perry Counties, assembled to-day. Twenty-sevon clubs were represented by sixty-five delegates. The Clinton delegates refused to act with the Convention, and Perry vas not represented. Committees on Credentials, Organization, and Resolutions were appointed. In the afternoon session, after the organization, an effort was made to postpone to a ater day. There was evidently an organized plan to break up without nominating. A former Representative in the Legislature from Marion, named Merrit, was so disorderly that the police were ordered to take him, and the farmers seemed determined to make a nomination. The names of Ames Watts, of Nashville; Schaffer, of Salem: J. Perry Johnson, of Randolph, and William Stoker, of Marion, were announced as candidates. One of the delegates stated that certain questions were to be propounded to the candidates. Mr. Stoker withdrow his name, announcing that he was a candidate, but not subject to the decision of that Convention. Mr. Watts peremptorily declined to answer any questions that might come before him for judicial decision, and withdrew. Mr. Johnson was called for, but he was not in the house. It looked as if the Convention would break up, and a vote was called for, and, in brief time, Johnson was nominated, beating Shaffer two to one. The usual resolutions against monopolies and railroads, and in favor of farmers cutting loose from parties, prevailed, and the Convention then resolved to send for Mr. Johnson to see what he had to say for himself. turned to make their nomination a success. He painted the distress of the farmers, and urged their independent organization. He denounced Court-House rings and politicians.

Mr. Johnson has hitherto acted with the Democratic party. The nomination was ovidently not satisfactory to many farmers, it being considered by some a set-up job. Messrs. Watts and Stoker will doubtless be the candidates of the Democratic and Republican parties. Mr. Johnson is a respectable lawyer, about 40 years of age; wea District Attorney from 1864 to 1863, and served with acceptability. His friends claim that he never compromised with rum-sellers, and paid thousands to the Treasury, in the shape of fees and fines. Others claim that he has been a railroad attorney.

The Convention passed resolutions looking to a general organization for the canvass, which will doubtless be spirited and lively. Old par-The Convention passed resolutions looking to a general organization for the canvass, which will doubtless be spirited and lively. Old parties seem to be about equally divided in the movement here. The policy pursued by the farmers of nominating Judges for their own interests is severely criticised by some, who say it looks like impaneling a jury to convict.
