INSURANCE.

How West Virginia Companies Are Organized.

Insurance Becoming a Family Business.
Amount of Capital Required.

Never before in the history of this city was there such necessity for people to be cautious in regard to the insurance companies they insure their property than at the present time.

The withdrawal from the city of the National Board company has brought here a number of irascible wild-cat concerns, which intend to make money during the present excitement.

It is easy for a company to prepare a statement showing that it owns an immense capital stock, and that it had mortgages on valuable property.

It is almost impossible to get a true picture of the financial condition of these companies, and it is almost impossible to get a true picture of the financial condition of these companies.

THE COURTS.

Record of Business Transacted Saturday.

In the notice yesterday of injunctions having been granted by Judge Bogert in several tax cases against H. B. Miller et al., an unintentional injustice was done the County Attorney, Mr. Rountree, and it may be well to explain the matter more at length.

The cases were all similar in their character, being filed by stockholders of various companies against the County Treasurer and the company in which each respective complainant was a stockholder.
