INJURED WHILE AT WORK.

John Brown Breaks Ribs As Result of Runaway.

Yesterday afternoon John Brown of Sanders, Montana, was driving a load of posts down a hill into a coulee when the posts slipped forward and jammed into the horses' legs frightening them so that they started to run away. The wagon was tipped over in the mixup and Brown thrown off. Several of the logs rolled off and fell on top of Brown breaking a few ribs and injuring his shoulder.

He was brought to the local hospital and the physician in charge says that although quite a serious fall, Brown will recover in a short time.

DEVAUL ACQUITTED IN HIGH COURT

HE IS FOUND NOT GUILTY OF RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS.

Al Devaul was acquitted last night of receiving stolen property by a jury in the district court which deliberated but ten minutes. The case took two days for trial, during which time many witnesses were on the stand. Mr. Devaul was accused of receiving four said to have been stolen from the McCormick company. There was absolutely no evidence to connect him with the crime.

Major General Stobart, commander of the Knights of Pythias, was in the city Saturday and held a meeting at the local castle of the knights.

He has been on a trip of inspection throughout the United States, investigating the uniform ranks and installing new lodges.

Several members of the lodge here have signified their intention of starting a uniform rank, and it is expected that one will be organized shortly.

Major General Stobart has a new idea in regard to the uniform rank. His idea is to have the government equip the rank with rifles and in case of a war the rank will be drilled and in shape for service in the army. He asserted that about 100,000 members of the Spanish American war soldiers were volunteers from the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias. It is the idea to protect the country by offering the rank to the army as volunteers in the event of war.

He made a good talk to the local members and left Sunday.

FILED ON CLAIMS.

Horatio A. Redpath, of LaCrosse, Wis., W. A. Longley of Laurel, and Wesley Parent of Laurel all filed claims on land in the Lake Basin region yesterday.

WANT A DEPUTY FOR BILLINGS

TO LOOK AFTER THE HUMANE BUREAU WORK HERE.

WOMEN WILL URGE IT

State Humane Officer J. M. Kennedy Says One is Needed—Bureau Doing Excellent Work on Small Appropriation—Humane Officer Travels Much.

An agitation has been started by some of the women of Billings looking to the appointment of a deputy humane officer for eastern Montana with headquarters in Billings.

At the present time State Humane Officer J. M. Kennedy has but two deputies, P. J. Gilligan, who looks after Silver Bow county and has headquarters in Butte, and Walter Sholes, who looks after the work in Lewis and Clark county and has headquarters in Helena.

Mr. Kennedy himself looks after the work of the state humane office in other portions of the state and it has become so large that it is almost an impossibility to attend to it. One day he may be in the eastern portion of the state, and that night be called to the western portion. The cost of transportation is considerable and the appointment of a deputy in one end of the state would reduce it, as well as permit the state bureau for child and animal protection to better look after the work in the state.

Mr. Kennedy's recent travels show how much territory he covers. When he was in Billings early in the month he had been in Flathead county, had ridden 212 miles in one day and was in Billings bound for Dawson county. He arrived in Billings last night to look after an adoption matter, coming from Missoula, having made the trip twice from one end of the state to the other in one week.

One of the things which handicaps the state bureau of animal and child protection is the lack of funds. Under the appropriation there is but $150 available every month to defray its expenses, with the exception of Mr. Kennedy and his two deputies, which are paid out of the salary fund. Were it not for the courtesies extended by the Northern Pacific and Great Northern in transportation, etc., it would prove almost impossible for the state humane officer to properly conduct the affairs of his office.

The bureau is doing a good work. According to Mr. Kennedy, in one county alone there are three men charged with rape, who have been arrested through the efforts of his department. Hundreds of children have been given good homes through the efforts of the department, some of them now being in Billings.

Mr. Kennedy expects to look after the McGann children, whose mother was shot and wounded by her husband Michael McGann last summer and he will take them to the state orphan's home in a few days.

"There is no doubt but what a deputy is needed in the department," said Mr. Kennedy in response to an inquiry last night. "But the way conditions now stand the amount allowed the department does not permit the employment of one. I hope, however, that by the next session of the legislature some effort will be made to make a larger appropriation, so that the work may be extended."

Mr. Kennedy left yesterday for the western part of the state, but will return to Billings in the near future to look after some other children.

IDEA ADVANCED BY A PROMINENT MEMBER OF ORDER.

EXHIBITS ARE STILL COMING IN

MANY FINE VEGETABLES

Showing Made in the Chamber of Commerce by the Farmers of the Valley Surprising to All Visitors to the Building Yesterday.

A fine collection of exhibits was received at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday.

A goodly part of the exhibits came from the Walker ranch, about a mile from Billings and consists of many varieties of the squashes, some of which are indeed beautiful specimens. They include the Hubbard, English, Boston and several varieties of summer and winter squashes. There are two squashes in the building that open the eyes of every one that sees them. One weighs 125 pounds and the other 80 pounds. This is the record squash so far for Yellowstone valley.

There are also some beets from the Walker ranch, including the yellow and globe tanker, and giant half sugar beet, averaging 10 per cent sugar. It is about half of the sugar beet and half table beet.

Cucumbers and mangelwurtzer, and kohlrabi are also among the exhibits. Mr. Walker also contributed some old fashioned eastern red clover, which is new in this section of the country. Cabbage, Japanese winter radish and fall red radish are also among the stuff. The radishes are of extraordinary size, and said to be very palatable.

Among the apples received are some very large specimens of Wolf River red apples, also donated by Mr. Walker.

Some Wealthy and Alexander apples were contributed by I. D. O'Donnell. Among them is a cluster of four fusiform looking apples, all grown on a small branch and within half an inch of each other. A specimen of this was received several days ago, being a cluster of six fine Wealthy apples of extraordinary size, but they fell apart and could not be shown in a cluster.

Red and white corn by the sack fulls, mammoth squash, long tom squash, crabapples and many other kinds of fruit and vegetables are being received daily by the commerce.

Secretary Decker yesterday expressed a desire for a show case to exhibit some of the apples and other small fruit, as it would keep the dust from gathering on them.

MANY ARE CALLED ALL ARE FINED

BIG SESSION IN POLICE COURT YESTERDAY MORNING.

A large Monday morning class lined the mourners' benches in police court yesterday and may were the tales of trouble told to Judge Mann.

John Doe was first up. He was found guilty of spitting on the sidewalk and for the thoughtless, though nasty act, he paid $5.

Jack Lannan paid $5 for engaging in a few strenuous rounds with C. L. Walker. Walker forfeited a $5 bond on the same charge. It was the same old story of the men filling up with the juice of the corn and then picking up chairs to enforce their remarks in an argument.

Ole Hanson was drunk and did not deny it, so he throw up a five spot for the fun he had had while putting away the malt extract.

Mrs. Jennie Doe drank too much red ruin Saturday night and was brought to jail when she was seeing pink turkeys wearing sunbonnets and blue flying toads on the walls of her room. She paid $5, being perfectly sober in court, the only reminder of her night out was a horrible thirst and a splitting headache.

GAME WARDEN AND FOUR INDIANS KILLED IN FIGHT

rifle bullets struck Peyton in the breast and he fell bleeding to the ground and in rapid succession sent four shots after the murderers, every shot taking effect and bringing the Indians to their end.

Peyton was one of the most fearless members of Game Warden Scott's staff, and was a dead shot. He was feared by the Indians, having arrested many of them on previous occasions for similar offenses.

A party left Ovando to bring in the body of Peyton. The inquest will be held by Coroner Marsh in Ovando Thursday.

The dead warden has a family living at Ovando consisting of a wife and two children.

Yellowhead was one of the Indians killed, the others are unknown. The squaws escaped.

MODERN MILKMAN IS NOW IN TOWN

SPECIAL TRAIN OF MILCH COWS IS IN THE YARDS.

DEMONSTRATION DAY

Five Nice Gentle Cows Will Give up Lactical Fluid Tonight, not to a Pretty Milkmaid, but to an Unromantic Machine.

The dairy special from the Montana Agricultural college at Bozeman, arrived in Billings this morning and will remain here all day. The train consists of two coaches. A lecture coach which is built like an auditorium and the baggage car where five dairy cows are housed during the trip.

The first lecture today will be given in the car at 2 o'clock by Professors F. S. Cooley and W. H. Elliott of the Bozeman experimental dairy station. The professors will tell of the correct care of cows, their feeding and stabling. In the evening at 5 o'clock the cows will be milked by the new milking machines which have been found thoroughly satisfactory. This will be quite a novelty for Billings people, who have never seen it in action. Thirty cows can be milked with the machine and much better, it is claimed than with the human fingers. Another lecture will be given at 7:30 in the evening in the car. The special coaches will then be taken to Miles City on No. 4.

The eight men with the train are delighted with the success they have had on the trip. At every stop the car was crowded with interested people and it is thought that many have been educated in the modern dairying ways through the work of the professors with golden cream special.

While he was in the east he saw Senator Dixon, Chairman Frank H. Hitchcock, of the Republican national committee and the other officers of the committee. He spent some time in Detroit, Milwaukee, Chicago and Washington, and wherever he was, he says that the sentiment for Taft was unusually strong. He says there can hardly be any doubt, but what he will be elected.
