J. S. Brewer, one of the early settlers of this part of Montana, was in the city from Moccasin Friday and Saturday. Mr. Brewer has been a resident of this section since 1864 and says that during all that time he has never seen the country look so well as it does now. Barring hail or some unforeseen calamity, he is certain that every rancher on the benches will harvest the biggest crop in history this fall.

What might have proved a serious accident, occurred Saturday afternoon near the Day residence, near the circus grounds. A horse hitched to a buggy, in which a lady and several children were riding, became unmanageable and ran down the big hill, nearly running over Lyle Smith. Further down the road the occupants were thrown from the rig and the fractious animal stopped. None of the occupants were seriously injured, although badly shaken up and frightened.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Johnson, of Lincoln, Nebraska, arrived in the city the latter part of the week and will spend the remainder of the heated season with their son, W. J. Johnson, of the First National bank. Mr. Johnson paid the office of the Democrat a pleasant visit Saturday. He has been in the newspaper game for many years of his life and says that the smell of ink and the rumbling of the presses makes him feel at home. He is a scholarly, genial gentleman of the old school and his visits to Lewistown, all too infrequent, are hailed with pleasure by numerous acquaintances made here upon the occasion of his first trip.

For Sale—800 acres first-class wheat land; 550 acres in good state of cultivation; convenient to market; fair improvements; will sell part or all. The price is right. W. A. Caldwell, Moore, Mont. 6-27-4t

Kendall Miner: A. B. Bernier has been creating quite a stir out on his Dog creek ranch. He has lately been displaying his architectural skill in building a residence for Mrs. McLain's fowls. He also built a very artistic mail box, which carries an ad. for Mr. Bernier's trade and bears the inscription, "Valley View." Now some real estate men in Lewistown have seized on that name and applied it to one of their new additions. Barney ought to institute proceedings to restrain them on the grounds of priority. Not content with all this hullabaloo he had a runaway last week and was thrown from the wagon and quite badly shaken. Barney is bound to keep things lively.

Captain Croft is in the city today from his ranch near Windham.

Apply to Watson and Eastman, Architects, for specifications. Address bids to Chairman Board of Trustees, care Bank of Fergus County, Lewistown, Montana.

Rev. William Remington, formerly of this city, stopped over Sunday and Monday on his way home from Philadelphia, where he has been attending the Baptist convention. Rev. Remington left this morning for San Diego, where he is at present located.

Earl Wineman, the leading young attorney of Stanford, was a visitor to the county seat yesterday and paid the office of the Democrat an appreciated call. Mr. Wineman says that business is fine in Stanford and that the pretty little burg is growing rapidly, a number of new business houses and residences now being in course of construction. Although it has been somewhat dry over that way for the past two or three weeks, the grain outlook is splendid, and Stanford will be the market place for several hundred thousand bushels of wheat, oats and flax this fall. With boosters like their brilliant young lawyer, Stanford cannot help but forge ahead at a rapid pace.

PARK MASS MEETING.

Mayor Marshall Issues Call for Gathering This Evening.

A mass meeting of all interested in the plans submitted by the several property owners who are offering the city park sites, is hereby called for Tuesday evening, July 11, at 8 o'clock, at the court room. The special committee recently appointed to thoroughly investigate the matter and to recommend a method of procedure, will make its report, which will be an important one. A big attendance is desired.

Men and women who are interested in the matter are urged to be present, as some definite steps will doubtless be taken to secure a park for Lewistown.

JOHN S. MARSHALL, Mayor.

At the Princess.

The bill at the Princess is especially attractive this week and includes what is probably the best vaudeville show that has ever appeared in this popular playhouse. There are four vaudeville acts and each one is first-class. This new bill was presented for the first time Sunday night and many were turned away or compelled to wait for the second performance.

Easily the biggest hit on the program is Baby Virginia, the clever little four-year-old child, who enjoys the distinction of being the youngest soubrette on the stage. She is as efficient in carrying her lines as any old-time actor. She has a charming voice and her singing is most pleasing to her hearers. Baby Virginia appears with Elsie Van Nally, who is a singing, dancing and talking comedienne and quick change artist of more than average ability. They form a duo of artistic entertainers hard to beat.

Rand & Byron introduce an eccentric comedy, containing singing, dancing, talking and acrobatic stunts that are highly entertaining. Their acts alone are well worth the admission price.

In addition to the above acts, Smith the ventriloquist, offers many amusing incidents during his act that is entertaining to both young and old. The moving pictures are also of that high-class variety which has characterized the Princess program in the past. The program shown this week in every way deserves the liberal patronage it is receiving.

INTERESTING GAME AT PHILBROOK SUNDAY

G. L. FREIDLINE PROVES TOO STRONG FOR JUDITH VALLEY BOYS.

With the ever reliable Freidline in the box, Lewistown won a close game from the fast Philbrook aggregation on the latter's grounds last Sunday afternoon. Although a high wind prevailed throughout the contest, some spectacular fielding was pulled off and the White Wings had to fight every inch of the way, the final score being 4 to 3.

Lewistown and Moore each won a game here the Fourth. The visitors got away with the morning game, which was a very ragged contest, by a score of 10 to 9. Evans, who was in the box for the locals, was effective, but very wild and received poor support. "Bubby" Bullard led with the stick, getting two home runs.

The afternoon game was a hard fought affair, but the locals had a little the best of the luck and also played the faster game in the pinches. Tom Baker, Bullard and "Red" Shaeffer put up star exhibitions on the defense and Bullard again poled out a home run, sending the ball clear across the race track and driving in two runs ahead of him. "Bubby" was called out for not touching third base but that did not detract from the merit of the clout, and the run was not needed, the final score being 7 to 1. Freidline pitched his usual star game and his own fielding helped to pull the big fellow out of a few holes. Moe caught a fine game and all of the boys were right on their toes from the tap of the gong.
