H. A. Rediker, of Lewistown, called on us first of the week. Mr. Rediker is a new-comer on the creek, where he intends to engage in the business of harness and saddlery. We believe he has chosen a good point and trust he will met with substantial encouragement from the residents of the Judith Basin.

in speaking of eattle, Gov. Brooks says the increase this year bids fair to exceed any previous. The cows are all in excellent condition, thus insuring healthy, strong calves. The pass winter taken as a whole, was the most congenial to stock, experienced for several years—the Eastern press to the contrary notwithstanding.

An experienced cattle man says the recent snow fall will work no injury to stock. He rather are it snow several days than rain. It is hoped the snow will entirely disappear before the lambing season begins, which is only a couple of weeks hence. A few bright days will raske a wonderful change in the appearance of ranges.
