THE FIRE FIGHT.

On last Wednesday evening just after midnight, the residence of Mr. Jo B. Bennett, of No. 608, was discovered to be on fire.

All efforts to put it out were unavailing. The house and near outbuildings were a total loss.

The furniture, including a piano and a lot of what Mr. Bennett is one of the best men of his community, and is now seventy-two years old with a family to care for and he the only male person in the family.

He is now disabled by paralysis, involved financially, and deserves the help of his neighbors and friends.

It is proper to say that his financial troubles out side of this misfortune, grew out of his liberality as a public spirited man.

Will not everybody help him a little. We write this without consulting with him. His loss is full $3,000. Old, infirm, no help, no money, unable to work himself, no where to live, will not liberal hearted men in this county help him some? He has always been willing to help the needy and unfortunate when able, which has been nearly all his life.

We are poor and hard run as all newspaper men are, but we will start the list with $5 00. Who will follow suit. Do not delay, for winter is coming on, and he ought to have help to build a house at once. It is supposed that the house caught from a spark falling back after leaving the top of the chimney.

Ben Nole's Ride.

Mr. Nole, Mr. U. A. Hoopes, Dr. Faught and Charles Wallace led him to Mr. James Drake's mason patch where Mr. W. A. Wallace, Geo. Martin, and Drake were watching for them.

All understood what was up, but Nole, and Wallace, when Drake, Martin, and Wallace fired on them. All ran, and Nole made for his horse and tried to out loose all the horses but failed to have a knife.

He aimed to switch his horse but could not, and jerked the top of a bush out to get him loose. He mounted and lit out, for he had no time to spare, as Drake, Martin and Wallace were close after him.

He was three miles from home, and made it in just seven minutes, over the roughest road in Kentucky. The watermelon rogue is broken of sucking eggs. He was the worst scared man I ever saw. Stewartsville, Ky. G. W. M.

Happy Papa.

A young lady came to the residence of our County Judge, W. F. Gregory, last Saturday evening.

She was rather scantily dressed but had a dose of strychnine, thinking it was quinine.

Mr. Gates left a short time after the mistake occurred, and hence we do not know how it will terminate, but the impression was, that he could be saved.

We hope so.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE. All persons having claims against the estate of the late Heczekiah Ward, deceased, are hereby notified to present them, properly proven, to the undersigned, at his farm on No Creek, or to Mr. Henry & Hill, at their office in Hartford, on or before the 25th of December next, or be forever barred.

This Sept. 3, 1877.

R. A. WARD, Executor of Heczekiah Ward.

Fresh Meats. I will have nice fresh meats, mutton, beef, bologna and all other kind of sausage, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday morning at my shop, which I will sell as cheap as can be gotten anywhere in town.

LOUIS KENNEDY.

A Terrible Mistake.

We learn from Mr. L. W. Gates, of Calhoun, who reached here yesterday evening, that Mr. A. J. Aver, of Calhoun, by mistake took a young morning of a dose of strychnine, thinking it was quinine.

Mr. Gates left a short time after the mistake occurred, and hence we do not know how it will terminate, but the impression was, that he could be saved.

We hope so.

A key that will wind any watch at A. H. COX, which occurred at her home in Owensboro recently. She is the only daughter of Mr. Steele, of our town, and was a very amiable woman. She leaves a husband and two children.

Disaster. (Scene, Hartford House—Time, last week—Young man badly struck—Staring at object of attraction—Beautiful young lady observing the gaze of the young man. Don't sit staring at me in that way, if you love me just say so, or if you are too bashful to tell me so just squeeze my hand Y. M. jumping up and going towards Y. L. Well, just hold her out here and if I squeeze as hard as I love, there, want be a whole bone left in it.

I box of fresh lemons at E. T. WILLIAMS'.

Counterfeiters. We learn from good authority that the notorious counterfeit John Evans, who was arrested and held in bond by U. S. Commissioner, G. C. Wedding, and gave bond and "vanished," has been arrested and is now in jail in Owensboro.

We learn that Mr. Paul Morgan has been arrested in Owensboro one day last week for passing counterfeit silver. We have not heard the particulars, but hope he is innocent of any wrong in the matter.

School books of every variety and kind at F. W. BARNES'.

The Largest Yet. Mr. Thomas Hamilton, living about eight miles below town, in the direction of Calhoun, brought to our office a leaf of his present crop, and measured 2 1/2 inches wide and 4 1/2 inches long, allowing shrinkage for curing, as other leaves in our office have shrunk, and we estimate that it was 30x45 inches when green. Let our exchanges dry up about big tobacco. This leaf has been measured by more than twenty different persons.

Cold Show. Persons wishing to compete for the premium offered by V. B. Morton and S. S. Stahl, will have their stock at the Fair Grounds, in Hartford on Saturday, Oct. 27, 1877. Premium, $10.

For Sale or Trade. Several second-hand SPRING-WAGONS and Buggies. J. F. YAKER.

SAVE $20: THE WORLD RENOWNED WILSON RECEIVED THE GRAND PRIZE MEDAL DIPLOMA CENTENNIAL EXPOSITION 1876.

AS THE BEST FAMILY SEWING MACHINE. Its competitors receiving only an award for some special feature of their machines.

The World-renowned Wilson Shuttle Sewing Machine. It requires no special instructions to use it; an Illustrated Direction Book is furnished with each machine.

ITS PATENT AUTOMATIC "CUT OFF" on the hand wheel prevents the machine from running backwards, and obviates the necessity of faking the work from the machine to wind thread on the bobbin, which must be done with all other Sewing Machines, to the great annoyance of the operator, especially in faking, hemming and ruffling. It does one-third more work in a given length of time than any other Sewing machine.

WITH EVERY MOTION OF THE FOOT THE MACHINE MAKES SIX STITCHES. These Wilson Machines will do as much work in one day as four other Machines.

It requires no special instructions to use it; an Illustrated Direction Book is furnished with each machine.

IT CANNOT GET OUT OF ORDER, AND THE ADJUSTMENTS ARE ABSOLUTELY PERFECT. A properly executed Certificate is furnished with each machine, guaranteeing to keep it in repair, free of charge, for five years. Machines sold on easy terms of payment, and delivered, free of charge, at any Railroad Depot in the United States where we have no Agents.

Send for Illustrated Catalogue. Agents Wanted. For full particulars address WILSON SEWING MACHINE CO., 87 Broadway, NEW YORK; NEW ORLEANS, LA.; or CHICAGO, ILL.
