

A NERVOUS WOMAN

Huntersville, W. Va.—After I got over the influenza last spring I was all run down and suffered from functional disturbances. I suffered with bearing pains and was so nervous I felt as if I would go to pieces. My breath was so short that I could not walk up hill at all or hardly walk up stairs. Having used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription with good results when I came into womanhood, I decided to try it again. I have taken three bottles and am feeling fine."—MRS. NELLIE J. BUSCH.

WARNS AGAINST SPINACH

Chicago Health Official Investigates Shipment That Killed Four

Chicago. —Health Commissioner Robertson has issued a warning against all city consumption of canned spinach.

He also warned restaurant keepers and housewives against allowing any canned food to remain in the cans after opening, and promised exhaustive tests into the chemical qualities of other generally used canned vegetables distributed here.

Canned California spinach shipped from Chicago killed four persons and poisoned twenty in Grand Rapids last week. Three other investigations of the shipment are under way. Michigan authorities are running down the individual orders Government chemists are preparing to test the canned food and the National Canners' Association is completing its analysis of samples taken from the Michigan hospital. All shipments are being traced and sales stopped.

The AMERICAN LEGION

ALONG THE LINE OF MARCH WITH THE NATIONAL SERVICE MEN

(Copy for This Department Supplied by the American Legion News Service.)

OHIO CHAMP FOOTBALL TEAM IS COMPOSED OF LEGION MEN

OHIO STATE'S 1920 ELEVEN IN ACTION.

Left to Right—Slyker (E), Spiera (T), Trotts (G), Nemecsek (C), Welch (G), Muffman (T and captain), Taylor (E). Backfield—Workman, quarterback, has just passed the ball to Deig, with Stinchcomb and Cott forming interference.

When the Ohio State university football team, champions of the Western conference, hit the line, it had much of the Chateau-Thierry and Argonne punch with it, for ten of the eleven regulars composing the first team are war veterans and members of the American Legion. Moreover, the team, which defeated Illinois university for the conference title, was coached by a Legionnaire.

Legionnaires on the team say that the only reason why the team is not all Legion is because Harry Workman, sophomore quarterback, was too young to enter the service. Seventeen members of the first squad are Legionnaires.

Ohio State won from Chicago, Michigan, Wisconsin, Purdue, Oberlin and Ohio Wesleyan and scored 58 points in conference games against 20 for its opponents. American Legion members carried the ball over the goal lines for 14 touchdowns out of a total of 20 made by the team during the 1920 season and also scored five of its touchdowns out of seven made against conference teams.

OBJECTIVES OF THE LEGION

National Commander Galbraith Outlines What Is Planned to Be Accomplished During the Year.

The objectives of the American Legion for the year 1921 were told by F. W. Galbraith, Jr., national commander, in a recent speech in Cincinnati, at a dinner attended by Legionnaires and business men.

Mr. Galbraith cited the disabled man's problems as the Legion's paramount concern and termed the finding of a satisfactory solution as "one job that is going to be done."

"Woe unto the man," he added, "or the bureau or bureau chief who fully stands in the way of paying the honorable obligation the government owes these men. Whoever he is he will have to get out."

He warned against the activities of the I. W. W. and kindred organizations and outlined the position of the Legion as follows:

"The time has come when a line must be drawn between loyal and disloyal Americans. We do not claim to have a monopoly on patriotism but because of our service our loyalty is a little clearer to our hearts and is a little more intense. We intend to crush this thing, if it ever raises its head, that we already have fought and licked."

Mr. Galbraith also spoke of the desire of the Legion to unite with the veterans' associations of the allies, in order to promote international amity.

"People accuse us of being over-enthusiastic," he said. "They declare that we believe ourselves to be the only patriots. God knows we are not. If we were it would be a sorry day for the nation. We know we have a hundred million associates and we ask them to help us because without their good will and assistance we can accomplish nothing."

STATE SUPERINTENDENT ADVISES EDUCATIONAL BOARD

At its first meeting on the first Saturday in March, after organizing, each county board of education has the power to appoint a county superintendent whose term will begin in January 1922. In many counties, it will be desirable to appoint the county superintendent as early as possible to the end that the county superintendent may not become involved in the coming political campaign. I feel confident that no county board will appoint any person superintendent because of political affiliation. When appointed, no superintendent should be inclined or permitted to participate in partisan politics. County boards have no greater obligation and no greater opportunity than to put this office upon a professional rather than a political basis. That is the purpose and the spirit of the new law. Wherever a superintendent now in office has proven himself conscientious and capable, he should be re-appointed; wherever a superintendent has proven himself derelict in discharging his duties, he should not be re-appointed. County boards may appoint a superintendent for one year or for two years or for three years or for four years. The term for which the superintendent is appointed is determined solely by consideration of the welfare of the schools of the county. Wherever the superintendent is competent and is supported unanimously, it will benefit the schools to appoint for a four year term. No divided board should appoint for more than one year. No superintendent should be appointed who does not at the time of his appointment hold a proper legal certificate. No person should be appointed superintendent who will not give his entire time to the office. In every case, at least a living salary should be paid. The law does not permit any salary less than twelve hundred dollars. Superintendents should be appointed by written contract only. The form of contract to be used will be sent from this Department within the next few days.

Let me urge again that the chances of the children in each county depend largely upon the action of the board in the appointment of the superintendent. The character and the conduct and the capacity of the person appointed should, in every case, be above suspicion. In making the appointment, the board does not represent any party, any faction or any section, but the whole county. The schools of the county will be what the county superintendent makes them. It will not improve the schools of any county to supplant an incompetent or dishonest superintendent with one equally incompetent or dishonest. County boards are no longer confined to their own county in making their choice. Whenever a suitable man within the county cannot be found for this position, county boards should not hesitate to seek elsewhere for a suitable superintendent. No person should be appointed superintendent who in the recent election of county board members violated the spirit or the purpose of the new school law. The best man that can be found anywhere is none too good for the children in any county. The whole State is watching the newly elected county boards and the improvement of our public schools waits upon their action. I am pleading and praying that the county boards everywhere do not betray our children in these appointments.

With genuine good wishes,
Sincerely,
GEO. COLVIN, State Supt.

FINANCING IS DIFFICULT

New York, Feb. 5.—There have been rumors for several weeks on Wall Street that Henry Ford has been seeking large financial accommodations from the eastern banks, but that he was not prepared to meet the terms they proposed. The sum needed by Mr. Ford has been stated variously at from $75,000,000 to $116,000,000, but there has been no confirmation of the reports.

It has been said repeatedly that one of the terms of the bank loans has been strong representation in the management of the Ford enterprises and that Mr. Ford has positively refused to release control.

This position of the automobile maker is more or less confirmed by his attitude in getting rid of his partners who grew up with the business until he and his family control practically all of the shares of the company.

In connection with the various rumors to the general situation, the New York Times printed a long special from Detroit giving what purports to be a review of the affairs of Mr. Ford. It recalls the numerous resignations of important officials in the Ford Company, including the withdrawal of ex-Mayor Cousins, who was vice president of the company, and is said to have been paid $37,000,000 for his interests; the Dodge brothers, who are said to have received a large amount, and others who were paid lesser sums.

GANDER LEADS BLIND ON

Takes Sightless Animal to Pond and Back to Field

Greensboro, Ala., Feb. 5.—A queer and interesting tale of an extraordinary friendship existing between a gander and a blind ox on the farm of Baxton Holcroft, in the southern end of the county, was brought to Greensboro.

Each day, so the story goes, a stately gander, with his breast full of sympathy and his head full of responsibility, leads an ancient and totally blind ox to a nearby pond for water. The gander, walking just in front of the ox, quacks and then, in order that he may be followed by the sightless animal, and when the pond is reached the gander stands guard while his charge drinks his fill. Frequently other cows try to attack the blind animal, when the gander flies at them, biting and flapping his wings till he puts them to rout. When the ox has finished drinking the gander leads him back to the field.
