In our council report last evening an error was made in crediting the new proposition with regard to the south side hose house to Mr. Keblenbrink. It was introduced by Mr. Kennepohl.

The Druids will go to view the remains of their late brother, James Clingenpeel, in a body this evening. Meet at the hall at 6:45 and proceed to the house at 7 sharp. All brothers invited to be present.

Train No. 2 on the C. R. & M. due here at 9:30 came in two hours late again this morning, which has been the usual thing since the cold spell. It seems to be due to the condition of the engines and will be overcome as soon as the new engines arrive, which will be soon.

A polo team has been organized among the Garfield school boys. The line-up is as follows: First rush, Jessie Ryder; second rush, Claude Graber; center, Walter Morgan; half back, John Shallenburg; goal, Earl Van Etten; captain and manager, Jessie Ryder; extra, Richard Cutter.

The Rev. W. H. Patterson, who has been supplying the pulpit at the United Presbyterian church for the past two Sundays, went to Columbus and Pittsburg this morning. He was well liked here socially as well as a preacher. The Rev. S. R. Lyons of Dayton will supply the pulpit next Sunday and will be here for several days.

Dr. Samuel Ferris of New Castle is dead and the funeral occurred this afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Mahin officiating. He was born near Brookville in 1822, located at New Paris in 1845, and went to New Castle in 1856. He was a member of the M. E. church for fifty-five years. He was a partner for seven years of Dr. Carterline at Liberty.

The Bronson repertoire company goes from here to Hamilton where they finish the week. They have made a return date for Richmond and will be here again in the spring at the Gennett. Mr. Bronson has made many personal friends here who will be glad to see him again at any time. He says the Keystone repertoire company who are to be here in about two weeks for several nights will be found worthy of patronage.

Mrs. Dr. J. A. Brown and daughter, Helen, of Germantown, O., are in the city guests of F. A. Brown and other relatives. The doctor went on with a big hunting party. The party consists of thirty men from Eaton and that vicinity who are going after big game in northern Wisconsin. They passed through in a special car on the Panhandle this morning for Chicago where they take the Wisconsin Central and will be gone several weeks. They were equipped with all sorts of supplies for a great time in the woods.

The program committee for the senior public high school has been appointed as follows: Chairman, Robert Moore; Hazel Lough, Florence Endsley, Merle Williams, May Burke, Harry Ross, Will Jenkins, Gordon Graves, Miss Mering. Active work on rehearsals will begin at once.

In circuit court the jury were out just twelve minutes in the damage case of Harris vs. Penrod last evening, and would have been out but seven minutes but for delay in getting to the judge. They found for the defendant. The suit was for $2,000 damages for assault and battery.

Billy Wilson, the trap drummer, who has been with Ringling Bros., is expected home in about two weeks. He will probably be added to the Gennett theater orchestra so long as he remains at home, which will not be long as he usually goes with some of the traveling companies during the show season.

Fry Bros. are getting nicely settled in their new quarters in the old Haynes & Spencer building, and though they have not yet placed all the machinery they expect to be working by the first of next week. They have new modern machinery and are well fixed for business. They will put on all their old force and have lots of work ahead in addition to 2,500 swings which they are behind on orders on account of the fire.

The elections are attracting much attention here and a good deal of this interest is not so much political as on account of the guessing contests which will be decided as soon as the results are known, and amounts to a good deal of money here. One of the contests announced by a Cincinnati paper had $175,000 in it last Friday and was a great deal more by yesterday. In this city this species of gambling was well patronized. In one shop alone there was $40 sent out in one day. There were hundreds of dollars sent out of town that way.

Don't miss Knollenberg's fur opening. Read our ad. in today's paper.

John Kline writes back from South Carolina, where he is playing in the orchestra of the Eclipse Stock Co., that "by the time the people down here get up and get their breakfast and look around a little it is time to go to bed. They mainly sit around and tell the 'niggers' what to do. The 'nigger' does everything but drink the whisky. The white man tends to that and looks at the 'bosses,' as they call it. This morning we wanted some printing and I went to the printing office. 'You all will have to wait till the cap comes down,' said the printer. At noon the cap wasn't there and at 2 o'clock he had gone to court, and we got the printing after the show was over that night. I never saw an ox hitched to a buggy before; I see it here often. The rich have fine teams here, but the poor class have some of the worst beasts I ever saw.

The county commissioners are in session and have been all week, but there is no business before them of any interest to the general public.

Littlefield, who had such a time here last week over his new wife and his old money, has returned to the west. The wife was still at Muncie at last accounts.

The suit of Frank C. Vaughan vs. Thomas Mertz, over a disagreement in the settlement of an account is on trial before the jury in circuit court this afternoon. The amount involved is $25.

"Some years ago while at Martinsburg, W. Va., I was taken with cholera morbus, which was followed by diarrhoea. The doctor's medicine did me no good. I was advised to get a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I did, and it cured me sound and well."—G. A. Morris, Embreeville, Pa. Sold by A. G. Luken & Co. and W. H. Sudhoff & Co.

A Violent Attack of Croup Cured.

"Last winter an infant child of mine had croup in a violent form," says Elder John W. Rogers, a Christian Evangelist, of Filley, Mo. "I gave her a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and in a short time all danger was past and the child recovered." This remedy not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the symptoms appear, will prevent the attack. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by A. G. Luken & Co. and W. H. Sudhoff.

The First Time
You Go Broke

You can probably step into our office and walk out with ten dollars or fifty dollars, or whatever you need. Perhaps you could not get it until a few hours later in the day. Perhaps you could not get it at all. But that is improbable.

Of course, we do not loan to everybody that "goes broke." We discriminate. But we loan to most any one. There is no bankers' red tape about our business. We use our judgment. Anyone holding a good permanent position can borrow on his personal note.

We also loan on household goods and store fixtures without removal, and on jewelry, watches, etc., left in pledge.

Low rate, easy payment, Golden Rule treatment.

Business strictly confidential.
