Theo. Woodhurst is at Cincinnati today on a real estate trade.

Park Gipe and Grover Piper of East Germantown are in town today.

Mrs. H. C. Swafford of Muncie arrived this morning to visit Mr. L. C. Hoover.

Miss Florence Haines of Easthaven went to Eaton this morning for a visit to friends.

Arthur T. Ballenger of Green township announces that he will be a candidate for sheriff.

Watson's Big Burlesque show at the Phillips Thursday night.

Levi Brown has the place vacated by Will Rowlett in the pattern room at the P. & N. works.

Miss Nellie Mawhood left this morning for Asheville, N. C., for the benefit of her health.

The Rev. Geo. Hill returned from Cambridge City this morning where he was on business for several days.

Sale bills posted up announce the sale of Charley Taylor, on the 21st, on his farm between Fountain City and Webster.

Earl Widup was able to be at his office yesterday for a little while, but is not yet sufficiently recovered to be able to attend to business.

Travel is still light on the railroads. Many druggists came in today, more than for a week past, but not the usual number of them at that.

The Rev. E. O. Ellis delivers an address on temperance at a conference at Clear Springs Friends' church near Knightstown on Friday afternoon next.

Thirty people including a first class vaudeville entertainment and chorus of pretty maidens.

Dr. J. E. Taylor and daughter, Julia, went to Utica, N. Y., this morning to attend the funeral of Mrs. Taylor's father, Mr. Snell. Mrs. Taylor is already there, and was there at the time of Mr. Snell's death.

A man from Bowling Green, O., was in the city this morning looking over the field with a view to introducing a new line of artistic manufacturing here, being mirrors and etched glass work. His intention was to locate here if he received proper encouragement, but when last seen he was discouraged and probably left the city.

The boom which the transfer business has taken in the past two weeks since Turner went into the business again has made Richmond to have about the best facilities in that line in the state, and travelling men all remark it. Green has just come on the street with a new rubber tired bus that is a beauty and a sight to see. At both depots at the arrival of trains the number of really fine carriages and busses give the town a very metropolitan appearance.

The manner in which outside territory is being thrown open to us by the traction lines is a frequent subject of conversation. One of the unexpected things, however, is the invasion of this market by outside dealers. Dunbar, the Centerville grocer, is selling lots of goods here and sending them over on the street cars. The traction company are figuring, too, on a sort of club house and theatre at Centerville for next season at which plays will be given on certain nights of the week. They do not expect to try to run a theatre every night as was tried last season.

In several of our churches the ladies have been removing their hats during the services, and at the evening services it has been the custom for many of the ladies to come without any hat or bonnet. Now that the cold weather is here and ladies' head gear is to be even more large and heavy during the winter, and they still can not come with bare heads, the matter is being discussed. The fact that the church floors are mainly flat makes a lady's big hat even more obstructive than it would be in a theater where the floor is inclined. The same point is being agitated at Indianapolis and other towns around us. At Anderson where Mrs. Governor Durbin resides and attends the Presbyterian church, that lady has announced that while she would not wear a large hat or bonnet to church she does not consider it proper that a lady should sit through a service without anything on her head and she will not do it. This was in reply to the announcement of the minister that he should request the removal of hats and bonnets after the Sunday just past.

"November's as pleasant as May." All sing.

Richmond lodge of Masons have work in the first degree tonight.

Bruce Miller is in Illinois this week introducing his fire extinguisher.

Charley Swain was at Winchester yesterday inspecting the rural routes there.

S. G. Snyder and wife of Lafayette are visiting J. C. Horrell and family.

Jeff Meyers will start up in business again on north ninth street next week.

Ed Harris, who was recently declared insane, has been admitted to the asylum.

The board of control of Easthaven met yesterday and let the usual monthly contracts.

Born, to James M. and Lillian Le Fevre Martin, 310 north fifteenth street, a son, first child.

At Grace M. E. church Wednesday evening from 5:30 to 7:30 a chicken dinner with dumplings, &c. will be served.

Richmond lodge of Odd Fellows had work on three candidates last night and there was a very large attendance.

The Ladies' Penny club will have a call meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Kate Ayler, 502 Main street.

Mrs. Harm Carrington of New Richmond, O., arrived this morning on a visit to her father, Arthur Brown, who is very ill.

At the meeting of the Druids last evening two candidates were initiated and the applications of three others were accepted by ballot.

Miss Turpen has a dramatic voice brimful of temperament, of good range, and unusual purity. Hear her tomorrow night at Pythian temple.

Mrs. Levi Williams of Elwood, who was visiting friends here, returned home today, accompanied by Mrs. M. Dennis, who will spend the balance of the week there.

The Artist Recital of the Musical club tomorrow night at the Pythian temple promises to be a rare treat. Come and hear Miss Geyer and Miss Turpen.

Josh Hunt was at Winchester yesterday. He has been in the hickory nut market this fall, buying all the nuts in sight, and has made a neat little sum thus far.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of Whitewater Monthly meeting of Friends will meet at the home of Mrs. Timothy Nicholson, 132 south ninth street, Wednesday afternoon at 2:15 p. m.

The Mrs. Rebecca Johnson, who died at Seymour and was buried Sunday afternoon, was the wife of Daniel Johnson, a brother of Calvin and Samuel Johnson, once the best known printers in this part of the state.

In the regular chapel exercises at high school yesterday orations were delivered as follows: Life in Mexico, Gordon Grave; Cultivation of the Sunflower, Martha Sloan; Farm Life, India Smelser; A Trip to Niagara, Lucille Mayr.

Every one should hear Miss Julia Geyer tomorrow night at the Pythian temple. "Miss Geyer takes every one by surprise by her admirable playing. It was a delightful musical treat to hear her."—The Queen, London, England.

Lodge work is heavy in this city this fall. It is usual for the lodges to have much initiatory work at the beginning of winter but this winter seems to be a record breaker in that line. Not a lodge in the city but has from one to a dozen candidates to initiate at each meeting.

The flats which Walls & Harris are getting out of the old Christian church are a surprise to everybody. They are putting on the initiation stone finish on the outside which is becoming so popular here, and rearranging the interior in modern fashion so that four families can live there—two families above and two below.

Sternberg, the young German who is thought to be wealthy and who is unquestionably off his normal condition of gray matter, is still in the county jail and improving somewhat, though his mind is still affected. His people, who were written to by the German consul at Cincinnati through the efforts of Mr. Zeyen, have made no reply as yet but will be heard from by the last of the week no doubt.

"Miss Julia Geyer plays with excellent intelligence, with good tone, finished phrasing and a warm color."—New York Times.

Guy Middleton has secured a position at Indianapolis which he will take as soon as his health will permit. He plays the flute at the English opera house and will be able to stand the work as he has but eight performances a week at the most, and part of the time less than that. They never have more than two matinees a week at that house. He gets a fine salary. Good flute playing.

Bon Ami

Cleans and polishes the house from kitchen to parlor, pots to statuary, paint to mirrors.

Royal Baking Powder has not its counterpart at home or abroad. Its qualities, which make the bread more healthful and the cake of finer appearance and flavor, are peculiar to itself and are not constituent in any other leavening agent.

ers for orchestra work are scarce and hard to get and draw about as good salaries as leaders on that account.

In circuit court this morning a divorce was granted Caroline Jackson from Alonzo Jackson.

The meeting of the W. F. M. S. of the Friends' church has been postponed one week on account of the death of Mrs. Chapman of Earlham college.

The officers of the American Window Glass company passed through this afternoon in a special train on their way east after inspecting their properties in this state.

Mr. and Mrs. James Martin are happy today over the safe arrival of an eight pound baby boy. Mrs. Martin was with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. LeFevre, north fifteenth street.

E. H. Wright of Bellevue, O., is visiting J. C. Horrell. He was a son-in-law of the late William C. Bond.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright celebrated their golden wedding last summer, at which the venerable Mr. Bond was present. Seldom that a father lives to be present at his daughter's golden wedding.

Ed Dalbey has his samples now, fully, for his line of calendars, of which he makes a specialty at this part of the year. The calendar as an advertising medium has become a recognized necessity. Mr. Dalbey's productions in this line are famous for their beauty and appropriateness as well as their cheapness.

We learned in a quiet way today that there is every prospect of one of the most prominent men in this government coming here for one evening during the state Y. M. C. A. convention here. An invitation has been extended and conditionally accepted. Further particulars will be given tomorrow.

The tendency of the Pennsylvania railroad company is to encourage temperance among their employees, and it has been fostered to an extent to make it noticeable all over their system. On that account attempts are making to have some of their officials send some of their head men here during the temperance meetings next week and with excellent prospects.

A Washington dispatch of yesterday states that: "President and Mrs. Roosevelt entertained at dinner James B. Sheffield, Ansley Wilcox of Buffalo, at whose house the President took his oath of office, President John R. Proctor, of the civil service commission, and Mrs. Proctor, and W. D. Foulke, of Indiana, the newly appointed civil service commissioner, and Miss Foulke."

The club of Bumpknickers from Muncie came down Sunday to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. Renk, and also to help celebrate Mr. Renk's birthday anniversary. They brought with them a nice present. The afternoon was spent in taking a drive over the city. The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowers, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Stauff, Mr. and Mrs. Max Pitzner, Mr. and Mrs. Will Ricks, Mrs. Groundheit, Muncie; Mr. and Mrs. Phil Zuttermeister, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peer, Mildred Stauff, Pauline Ricks and Thine Zuttermeister.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

LEDBETTER—Elijah Ledbetter was born in Wayne county, Indiana, on the 11th day of May, 1834, and died in Winchester, Indiana, on the 9th day of November, 1901, at the age of 67 years, 6 months and 3 days. His father and mother came to Wayne county seventy years ago, and settled on a farm southwest of Economy. They came from Guilford county, North Carolina, and were strict members of the old-time Friends church, the mother being a sister of Barry Coffin and others of the noted family of Friends.

Special Meeting of Wayne County Council.

Notice is hereby given that a special meeting of the Wayne Co. Council will be held at the office of the auditor of Wayne county, Ind., at 10 o'clock a. m., Tuesday, Nov. 19, 1901. ALEX S. REID, Auditor Wayne Co.

Town Burned.

Cumberland, Md., Nov. 12.—The mining town of Thomas, W. Va., on the West Virginia Central & Pittsburgh railway, was almost destroyed by fire early today, which started in the Gersberger hotel. Twenty business houses and seventy dwellings burned. The homeless have been sheltered in box cars.

The Washington club will meet at the home of Mrs. John Bayer, 138 south eighth street, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

"Some years ago while at Martinsburg, W. Va., I was taken with cholera morbus, which was followed by diarrhoea. The doctor's medicine did me no good. I was advised to get a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I did, and it cured me sound and well."—G. A. Morris, Embreeville, Pa. Sold by A. G. Luken & Co. and W. H. Sudhoff & Co.

WEBSTER.

Abner Harvey has a very sick child, with peritonitis, and is still in a critical condition.

James Borton, who has been at Indianapolis for some time, is spending a few days at home with his parents in this place.

The creamery is now making about 200 pounds of butter a day.

The distemper has been very critical among the horses in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Morton McMahon and family took dinner at John Mendenhall's last Sunday.

Charley King has put up a new wind pump. Mr. Susan Irwin put up one two weeks ago. It seems as though wind pumps have come to be a necessity instead of a luxury.

Rev. Harter preached an interesting sermon at the M. E. church last Sunday afternoon.

The shredding is pretty well done in this vicinity.

Every farmer is uneasy about his hogs on account of the hog cholera being so near.
