WISDOM.

Through the Silent medium of the pen,
We Communicate our thoughts to men:
Though at great distance We remain, by this we Express our love to Men.
But when we meet, Each other we greet, with the Language that we Speak, we Express our love that is from above
With that Spirit in the form of a dove;

Language is Style, human Speech, and we to God Should be thankful for Such a glorious blessing
Language is divine, and originated with God, given to Man that he might Understand to Teach his neighbor Jehovah's plan.
the bible teaches men that language is divine, and God the giver of all good, that mortal man can find.
First god Expressed him self to man by words, to Show the plan, after this the gospel was written, that we might more fully understand.

See the news on her pages, Salvation from god For all ages, Accept and live, refuse and die, has Ever been, the gospel Cry. May we its importance learn and cleave to Jesus, and be Spiritually discerned.

That, which distinguishes, man from the beast, is a gift of god not the least, he has given it to men, that he might understand, his love for us all over the land.
See, then the obligations of man, to god, for Salvation's plan, See the duty's we ow to god in order
To Sana distruction rod.

How could you bear to hear him say,
Depart accursed, far away,
With Satan, in the lowest hell,
Thou art for ever doomed to dwell.

In conclusion, let me Say, when I look, Around and See the present Condition of men I am led to believe that Trans Angels will Shortly Stop rooling Men Have run to Such an Extent in Sin that the tole of the death bell has got to be a very Common thing the Silent Chambers of Unfaily graves are fast filling up, Intemperance Has covered the land of ours and is filling more graves than Contagion it appears that the people are becoming consummated Dead men are gon to rest, but let living men awaken to a Sense of duty.

Laporte District Sunday School Union Convention.

The convention convened at the M. E. church in Plymouth, Wednesday evening May 8th, at 7 o'clock P. M. Rev. L. Nebeker in the Chair, Rev. J. L. Boyd was chosen Secretary.

Singing until 7:30, was led by Prof. J. W. Ruggles.

Devotional exercises were led by Rev. James Johnson.

Rev. E W. Lawhon then read an interesting and able address upon "The relation of the Sunday Schools, to the Secular Schools of the Nation."

On motion of J. L. Boyd, Rev. Aaron Wood and G. W. Nash, Esq., were appointed to respond to the address of the evening, instead of Revs. Sanders and Cissell, as announced in the Programme.

Rev. Bro. Nash, of Northern Indiana Conference, was introduced, and Prof. Ruggles sang "Sowing and Reaping."

Announcements were made, and session adjourned with Benediction by Rev. Nash.

THURSDAY MORNING, May 9th.

Convention met at 8:30. Rev. James Johnson read the 2d Psalm, and led in prayer.

Prof. Ruggles took charge of the music, and the first half hour was occupied in singing and prayer.

Responses to the address of the previous evening were made by Rev. Aaron Wood and G. W. Nash, Esq.

Mrs. McClure, of Laporte, was announced as a delegate from Laporte Sunday School, and Rev. Bro. Slosser of the German Reformed Church, was invited to a seat in the Convention as an honorary member.

The time assigned to Archibald Beal, Esq., in the Programme, was assigned to the discussion of "The relation of the Sunday School to the Secular Schools of the Nation," and was occupied by G. W. Nash, Esq., Revs. Wood, Johnson, Lawhon and Boyd, Sr.

"Christian Awake!" sung by the convention, led by Prof. Ruggels.

Committee on Resolutions was appointed, consisting of Dr. Fravel, G. W. Nash and Rev. Sanders.

Rev. George M. Boyd defered his address on "The relation of the Pastor and Superintendent, to the Sunday School and to eachother."

Owing to the absence of Bros. Brooks, Skinner, and Robinson, Bro. Fravel and Lawhon were appointed to discuss the address of Rev. G. M. Boyd.

Bro. Fravel and Lawhon occupied the time they desired, and Bro Wood followed, with some historical remarks, giving the time when the relation of the Pastor to the Sunday School was defined in the Book of Discipline.

On motion of Prof. Ruggles, Bro. Fravel was appointed to discuss the subject assigned to Bro. Beal, viz: "The best Books and how to use them."

He spoke well on the "Library Question," thinking histories and good S. S. papers accomplished more than our old Library Books.

Bros. Nebeker and Nash responded to Dr. Fravel's address.

Rev. Bro. Mikels, of Valparaiso, was invited to a seat in the Convention, as an honorary member, and requested to take a part in the discussions.

The Convention called for a song, and Prof. Ruggles sang "I am the Way."

Bro. J. P. Early read an excellent essay on the subject assigned to him.

James Johnson offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Essays of this Convention be published in the county papers nearest where the authors of the essays reside, or left to the discretion of the Secretary to secure their publication elsewhere.

On motion, convention adjourned with the Benediction, by Bro. Mikels.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Convention was opened with religious services conducted by Rev. Aaron Wood.

Reports from the Sunday Schools of the District were called for. James Johnson, G. N. Brooks and J. P. Early responded for Laporte. Laporte Circuit, Hannah, SanPierre, New Carlisle, Door Village, North Liberty, Walkerton, Knox and South Bend, 2d charge, were called for and no response.

E. W. Lawhon presented a report from Rolling Prairie. Westville was represented by the only superintendent from abroad. T. Fravel, M. D.

George M. Boyd reported for first charge, South Bend, and J. L. Boyd for Plymouth.

The Convention sang "Our Call," and Rev. James Johnson gave a short address on music, and was followed by J. S. Bender, Esq., in quite a musical speech.

A few remarks from Prof. Ruggles, on music, and the convention adjourned to give room for the musical rehearsal by the Sunday School.

EVENING SESSION.

CHILDREN'S MASS MEETING.

Opened by singing "All hail the power of Jesus' Name," after which Dr. Aaron Wood led in prayer.

The Convention then sang "Pass me not."

On motion of J. L. Boyd, it was ordered that Prof. Ruggles lead the Convention in singing; after which Rev. Bro. Sanders read his essay on 'Catechetical Instruction." "Seek the Little Wander," was sung, "The Good Old Way" was sung, and Rev. G. M. Boyd addressed the children. "Stand on the Rock" was sung by request, and T. Fravel, M. D. addressed the children. Prof. Ruggles sang "Will it Pay," the Convention joining in the chorus; and, by request, he sang "The Evergreen Mountains of Life."

Dr. Wood addressed the parents briefly, and Convention adjourned with Benediction by Bro. Sanders

FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 10.

Convention opened at 8 30., L. Nebeker in the Chair. "Heavenly Treasure" was sung as the opening hymn.

Rev. Aaron Wood led in prayer. "Unto Him that Overcometh" was sung, and Rev. E. W. Lawhon led in prayer.

Responses to Rev. Sanders' essay, was the first thing taken up in the morning. Rev. Aaron Wood first spoke on the manner of catechetical instruction. Among other things, he gave the incident of Bishop Asbury giving him the catechism, when a boy, it resulting in his conviction of sin. The definitions of the old catechism had been to him a strong defense.

Bro. Ruggles followed. He thought the mistake in catechetical instruction consisted in the manner of presenting it.

Bro. Wood responded to some points of Prof. Ruggles' remarks. Rev. G. M. Boyd gave his manner of using the catechism. Among other remarks, he said he found this part of ministerial work among the most difficult. G. W. Nash, Esq., thought the true manner of teaching was, "first to awaken a desire in the children for instruction, and all will be plain."

J. N. Brooks, Esq., gave his address on "Prayer: Its relation to Christian Teaching, and how shall the Teacher instruct pupils therein?"

Responses to the subject were made by J. L. Boyd. He thought the true manner was, first, to give the example, then define it by the best authorities, more especially the Bible proofs. Teach the Omniscience, Omnipotence, Justice, Goodness, Wisdom, and Omnipresence of God. The Priesthood of Jesus in relation to their own.

General discussion took place, in which all the members of the Convention took a part.

On motion of Aaron Wood, it was ordered that so much of the Programme as refers to the Question Drawer be dispensed with.

Prof. Ruggles led in singing—"All the Way Through."

The Convention went into the election of officers for the coming year, resulting as follows:

L. NEBEKER, President.
JOHN P. EARLY, Vice President.
J. L. BOYD, Secretary.
E. W. LAWHON, Corresponding Sec.
T. W. SALE, Treasury.

Managers—Dr. T. Fravel, G. W. Nash, J. Brownfield, F. Taylor, R. H. Sanders, James Johnson.

G. W. Nash, Esq., submitted the report of the Committee on Resolutions, which was adopted.

Geo. M. Boyd offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention are hereby tendered to the citizens of Plymouth, for their hospitality in entertaining the Convention.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Convention are hereby given to Prof. Ruggles for his attendance and services, and the excellent way in which he has conducted the music of the Convention; and this Convention recommend the Prof's. Book to our Sunday Schools.

Rolling Prairie was fixed upon as the place for next session of the Convention.

Prof. Ruggles offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The reports of the Sabbath Schools in this district at the Convention are so meager, and the attendance so small, therefore, be it Resolved that we appoint a Committee to draft a blank report, which shall be in the hands of the Secretary of the District Convention, to be distributed to the Schools of this District, four weeks prior to our Semi Annual Convention, with a request that it be filled up and certified to, and forwarded by a delegate, or by mail to the Convention.

President and Secretary were appointed the committee.

Convention then adjourned with Benediction by J. Johnson.

We, your committee on resolutions, respectfully submit the following report:

1. That though the Sunday School is independent of all secular schools, having its own field of labor, having its own essential characteristics, yet its advocates and friends may gain much by working as far as possible to build on the foundation of an intellectual education, and supply the religious training that must of necessity be wanting in them. General diffusion of knowledge in the public schools, calls for a high grade of mental culture in the Sunday School teachers. Since we cannot force religious teaching upon the masses, contrary to the will of the majority, nor would we if we could; yet we have a mission to raise the standard of public morals and religious culture in the coming voters of our American people, that the majority will give us wise and high toned teachers, and no others, to teach the children of our public schools.

2. That though many of our Sunday School Books are trashy and weak, yet this is no argument against S. S. Libraries. The people will read books of some kind. Good books of a high standard of literary and religious character should be obtained, and the children and youth should be encouraged to use them. It might be well for our Sunday Schools to to establish Reading Rooms, and make them attractive by the best of books, papers and magazines.

3. That the attempt to prove the existence of God, the immortality of the soul, and such subjects of faith, and revelation, by the common logic of the schools, in the Bible classes of many of our Sunday Schools, generally fails to accomplish the thing intended, and is productive of much harm. We commend to all S. S. teachers the beautiful instructive paper on this subject, by J. P. Early, ordered published by this Convention.

4. That more attention should be given in Sunday Schools, to committing scriptures to memory. The many "golden texts" that lie at the foundation of the religion of Christ, should be well studied, then committed.

5. That music should be more a distinctive feature of our S. S. than at present, by many schools. Not singing only; but the simple rudiments should be taught. We commend the method of Prof. J. W. Ruggles to our schools, as worthy of our hearty support.

6. That no Sunday School teacher or christian can teach as the Master taught—without prayer and belief in the Holy Ghost. Every person must comply with the condition of the gospel, before he can expect to know spiritual truth.

7. The general spirit of this Convention, during this session, has been good; the work assigned has been well done; the papers were carefully prepared; all present have been made wise by the thought evolved and better by the sweet songs and religious sympathy.

8. It is the sense of this Convention that the Pastors and Superintendent's relation to Sunday Schools, and to eachother, are well defined in the Discipline; and more attention should be given to it by both Pastors and Superintendents. We recommend the perusal of the essay read by Rev. G. M. Boyd, to this Convention, to our Sunday School workers as explicit on this subject.

J. L. BOYD, Sec'y

Bourbon Correspondence.

BY TATTLER.

BOURBON, IND., May 13, '72.

Yesterday the Quarterly Meeting of the M. E. Church was in session, and a large number of persons were in attendance, and a great many good preachers and other good people.

The election is over and a number of new officers were elected, for the purpose of carrying on the town government, and they have already been sworn in and have commenced work, and already our citizens can feel that they have a live Board of Trustees and Marshal.

Both of our brick yards are in full blast, and ere long brick can be had of the best quality and in abundance in this town.

Quite a number of houses will be painted during the next two weeks in this place and it will make a big difference in our appearance.

Lawrence & Matchett are opening up a very large and well selected new stock of goods in our town this week. They undoubtedly will be a leading firm in this city, and will cause a large amount of business to come to Bourbon, as they intend to pay large prices for produce of all kinds.

We have not been away attending the Cincinnati Convention; but have been at home attending to business. But now as our time has been improved, we think some of running for Congress on the "Specie Payment" Platform. If nominated and elected, we wish it understood that we wont give any bribes, but will receive all the presents offered that we shall consider of any value.

Next week I will try and hash up a few items for you, which I hope you may have more cause to appreciate.

COL FAX

The "English abroad" is often as "muddled a man" as Josey Ladle himself. He has an unhappy faculty of getting things mixed in the most hopeless and inextricable fashion. In matters American this peculiarity has been manifested so often as to be regarded as characteristic of the Briton. Here is a ludicrous illustration of it. Not long since a veritable John Bull stepped into the office of the Arlington House, Washington, and asked the clerk where he could see Colonel Fax.

"Dont know any such a man," said the gentlemanly clerk. John looked puzzled.

"Don't know Col Fax?"

"No, I am blessed if I do. What is his business?"

The Englishman's surprise rose to a point of blank amazement.

"How long have you lived here, Mister Clerk?"

"Five years."

"Got any acquaintance at all?"

"Know everybody."

John gave a curious look, and then deliberately walked out of the office muttering to himself: "Lived here five years, knows everybody, and couldn't tell me where to find the Vice-President Col. Fax."

PINE CREEK, IND., May 13, '72.

Editor Republican:—Pardon my boldness in writing to you, but as every neighborhood has its chronicler, I presume it is no more than right that ours should have one also.

Wheat looks splendidly, and the recent rains will help to improve it.

The farmers are busily engaged in planting corn, and from present indications, there will be an unusually large crop.

Mr. Webb is preparing to build a large barn. Messrs. Wyant & Chart are intending to build dwelling houses, and in fact every thing looks finely.

We have organized our Sunday School under the superintendance of Mr. Sarbe, the best of all Superintendents.

We have also engaged the services of Mr. Deakon as music teacher, who is no doubt the best teacher we have ever had, although his antecedents do not extend to Chicago. FARMER BOY.

John Coburn, Chairman of the Committee on Military affairs, in the House, recently notified Mr. E. V. Smalley, a Clerk of the Committee, and a Reporter for the New York Tribune, that his services were no longer needed, since the nomination of Mr. Greeley for President. The reason for the removal was that Mr. Smalley favored Mr. Greeley's election, and from his position as Clerk, and occupation of Reporter for the Tribune, he ought not to hold the office. Mr. Smalley objects to his removal for opinion's sake, and longs for the return of the good old times when men were appointed to office for their honesty and capability. His theory would be right if there were no honest and capable men, who support the Republican party, to fill the office; but as there are a few left, it would be quite as well to give the position to one of them. Mr. Smalley probably received his appointment when he was friendly to the party then in power, and urged his claims for the position on that ground. There is a good deal of humbug in this whining about removal from office for opinion's sake.

The New York Tribune claims that the removal of Mr. Smalley from the Clerkship of the Military Committee of the House of Representatives, gave Hon. John Cobarn, Chairman of the committee, an opportunity to gratify his spite. There does not appear to have been any spite about the matter. Mr. Smalley, as Clerk of the committee, had an opportunity to vent his opposition to the administration through the columns of the Tribune, and to get paid for doing so, while he was receiving pay from the Government also.

The Republicans in White county, held their nominating convention on Saturday the 4th inst. The following named gentlemen were selected as candidates:

Auditor—GEORGE UHL.
Treasurer—ISRAEL NORDYKE.
Sheriff—ENOCH J. DUNHAM.
Coroner—Dr. J. A. WOOD.
Surveyor—Dr. C. A. G. RAYHOUSER.
Commissioner—2d Dist. A. M. DICKENSON.
" 3d Dist. M. R. CARTMELL.
Real Estate Appraisor—C. S. LITTLE.

The Tennessee Democratic State Convention almost adopt the Liberal Republican Presidental nomination. They refer the matter to the National Democratic Convention to be held July 9th, in Baltimore. They think it would be unwise for the Democrats to make a nomination.

DEMOREST'S YOUNG AMERICA for June, is on our table; it is a budget-full of entertainment of the right stamp for our juveniles. "Mice at Play," by Neil Forrest, and "Just My Luck," are continued and become more interesting. $1 per year; or with a valuable premium, $1.50. Published at 838 Broadway, New York. Every boy and girl should have this valuable juvenile magazine.

Hon. M. G. Sherman will most likely be nominated for State Senator for this District, at Plymouth on the 29th, by acclamation. He is a man of ability, and has had considerable Legislative experience.—Laporte Herald.
