

DENISON AND VICINITY

E. Gulick returned Saturday from his Dakota trip.

Thos. Lister was a Dow Cityite Monday afternoon.

Miss Bernice Osborn was a Vailite on Saturday last.

R. A. Romans transacted business at Charter Oak Monday.

The Misses Rae of Dow City were Denison shoppers yesterday.

F. L. Johnson, of Kiron, was among the visitors in Denison on Monday.

Attorney P. E. C. Lilly took the early train Monday for Des Moines.

Mr and Mrs. B. J. Sibbert made an overland trip to Schleswig yesterday.

Robert Molsed, of near Vail, was a business visitor at the hub yesterday.

Mrs. Henry Cummings entertained friends from Charter Oak on Monday.

Jno. McNertny of Manilla was a business transactor at Denison on Monday.

Mrs. Sears McHenry and two daughters went to Logan to visit with relatives.

Judge Conner was called to Carroll Monday to transact business of a legal nature.

Mrs. J. U. Wise of Dow City visited her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Seemann, over Sunday.

Robert Grason has been quite sick the past few days, but at present is on the mend.

Herman Carstens, of the Farmer's Home, is having his hotel building reshingled.

Messrs B. J. Sibbert, Frank L. Evans and John Lass were Monday visitors at Schleswig.

Mr Sam V. O'Hare and Miss Lulu Maguire drove down from Vail Sunday afternoon.

Rev. Talbot, of Mapleton, will hold services at the Episcopal church on next Sunday evening.

Sime Bros. have a new advertisement on the fourth page which will at once attract your attention.

Mrs. Hattie Allen returned from Council Bluffs on Monday afternoon, where she visited her aunt.

One man reported to us this morning that he fell into that dangerous hole by the Germania Hall last night.

Mr. F. Stoecks returned yesterday to his home in Dodge, Nebraska, after a pleasant visit with Denison relatives.

The German Methodists will hold their services in the Episcopal church until their new building is completed.

Mrs. Theo. W. Walker went to Waterloo on Saturday last where she will visit a week with her son, David, and family.

E. J. Young, oil inspector for this district, goes to Audubon tomorrow morning on business connected with his office.

Robert Hagenow is out at Lincoln, Nebraska, building a new house for his brother August. Robert is a good workman.

T. J. Garrison has had a gas plant placed in his fine residence. He is now well supplied with light as he also has electricity.

Messrs. Emmet and Omer Malone of near Charter Oak were in Denison on Monday making some purchases in the clothing line.

J. U. Wise, the up-to-date undertaker of Dow City, is in Omaha attending a three days lecture course on embalming, dissecting, etc.

A carriage load of young people consisting of Misses Alice Knaut, Allie Sewell, John Harrison and E. T. Koser drove to Vail Sunday afternoon.

Bishop Morrison will be at Vail Friday evening and conduct services in the Episcopal church. There are a number of Denison people planning to go down.

Joe Bradley's friends were pleased that he was able to be out on Sunday last. He has had quite a siege of sickness, but is now ready for work again.

Miss Edith Laney went to Vail this afternoon to make arrangements for an entertainment which she will give Wednesday evening, November 29, assisted by local talent.

The Hunt store buildings at Deloit are soon to be moved to lots adjoining the new postoffice location. It is reported that one of the buildings will be occupied by a bank.

Mr. Chas. McHenry of Union township was a pleasant caller yesterday. He says the republicans of Union are highly pleased with the vote in that township this fall. They have a right to be.

J. L. McClellan and son, J. B., and John James, have completed moving the buildings from old Kiron to the new site. These gentlemen did a greater share of the housemoving and all their work was very satisfactory.

Wanted—Some Good Milling Wheat. I will pay 55 cents a bushel for good milling wheat. Bring it in. 93-4-5 GEO. MENAGH, Denison, Iowa.

WELCOME THE BRAVE.

Woodmen of the World Entertain the Soldier Members Saturday Evening.

The Woodmen of the World and the Woodmen Circle entertained last Saturday evening in honor of Messrs. Armstrong, Foderberg and Dixon, three of their fellow sovereigns who were in the Philippine service. About a hundred Woodmen and ladies were present, and the evening was enjoyable spent. There was plenty of music and sociability and then a light luncheon was served. Mr. H. A. Cook presided as toastmaster with admirable tact and eloquence. Prof. W. C. Van Ness gave a toast filled with words of welcome and kindly thought, Miss Ivens represented the women's side of war in a very acceptable manner. F. W. Meyers responded to the toast "Our Country" and Mr. G. L. Caswell spoke wittily of "Our Lodge", arousing much laughter and applause. During the program of toasts Messrs. Armstrong and Foderberg were called upon, both made happy responses but assured the audience they would rather stand the insurgents fire than to make a speech. Mr. Armstrong said the Woodmen had succeeded better in one night than Aguinaldo had in many months, for they had captured three members of the Fifty first Iowa white Aguinaldo had captured but one. At the close of the literary program Prof. Van Ness entertained the audience with some stereopticon views and some illustrated songs which were sung by all with hearty good will. The evening was a most pleasant one and will be long remembered both by the Woodmen and by their boys in blue.

A DELIGHTFUL PARTY.

Mrs. Carl F. Kuehnle Entertains Half a Hundred Ladies on Saturday.

Mrs. Carl F. Kuehnle gave one of the most pleasant afternoon parties of the year, last Saturday complimentary to her guests, Mrs. Zeising of Waterloo, and Miss Armbruster of Marshalltown. The guests were admitted by Miss May Zeising, while Miss Lydia Belle Kuehnle did the honors of the dressing room. For the afternoon's amusement the hostess had provided a novelty in the way of a drawing and guessing contest. The ladies given the title of a book to illustrate by an original drawing and all present were then asked to guess the title from the illustration. Some of the drawings were unique and very cleverly executed. Mrs. S. McHenry and Mrs. R. A. Romans were entitled to the joint honor of being first in the contest, while Mrs. B. F. Philbrook and Mrs. C. L. Voss were tied for second honors. The afternoon was brightened by musical selections by Miss Armbruster and Miss Agnes King. The guests were invited in parties of ten into the dining room. The round dining table was beautifully decorated with fern leaves and Venetian vase of gorgeous yellow chrysanthemums. A delicate luncheon was served the ladies and it was not until the shadows of evening had grown long indeed that the merry gathering adjourned. Our ladies were greatly pleased at this opportunity of again meeting Mrs. Zeising and Miss Armbruster.

K. P.'s WELCOME SOLDIERS.

Last evening at Castle Hall Dowdall Lodge No. 99 gave an informal reception to the soldier boys returned from the Philippines, who were members of the order. After a brief session of regular business it was announced that Bro. Pease would take charge of the after meeting. This gentleman made an ideal toastmaster and each one called upon by him responded readily. Speeches were made by Bros. Geo. Richardson, Carl F. Kuehnle, A. D. James, G. L. Caswell, James Armstrong, H. A. Cook and W. C. Rollins. Refreshments were served and the evening spent in sociability. A. D. James and James Armstrong were the guests and their stories of the trip to the Philippines and of incidents occurring while there, were very entertaining.

HOTEL CHANGES HANDS.

Negotiations were closed yesterday whereby Mr. A. D. Wilson disposed of his hotel business in Denison, Mr. W. W. Cook of Omaha being the purchaser. The consideration was $7,000.00. This hotel has enjoyed a good business in the past and as Mr. Cook is an experienced hotel man it will continue to merit patronage. We are informed the new proprietor will take possession immediately.

Mr. Wilson and his excellent family have no intention of leaving Denison but will occupy one of the flats owned by Mr. W. on Sweet street.

Mr. Cook is most cordially welcomed to Denison, and we predict for him success in his new venture.

NEW FIRM.

Mr. V. E. Wilcox and Mrs. M. D. Wright have purchased the restaurant business of W. C. Rollins and taken possession. Mr. Wilcox hails from Wall Lake and is an experienced man in the business, while anyone who has drunk coffee at the old settlers' picnic, can speak for Mrs. Wright. The room will be newly papered and a new stock added immediately. We are sure the new firm will succeed.

Geo. Menagh is having a large warehouse erected south of the C. & N. W. tracks, to be used for the storage of grain.

Frank McAlpin, of Vail, stopped in Denison between trains on Monday. He took the evening train for El Reno, Oklahoma, where he has purchased a farm.

There were a number of Charter Oak people in Denison doing trading Saturday. It is an undisputed fact that Denison draws trade from all over the county.

Messrs. F. O. Ivens, C. Stoecks, A. F. Kadoch and Fred Kadoch made Schleswig a visit last Sunday. Mr. Stoecks wishing to see the new town before leaving Iowa.

O. A. Patterson, of Mt. Vernon, O., has accepted a position with the Stewart Lumber Co. as bookkeeper. Mr. Patterson comes highly recommended and is cordially welcomed to our city.

Thos. Munsey of Arion was a REVIEW caller Saturday. He says his corn crop is not as heavy as he expected owing to the last heavy wind before being fully matured, which blew the corn down.

Charley McWilliams was in the city Monday afternoon. As the result of a kick from a horse he is quite lame. The horse struck him on the left leg just above the knee, causing considerable pain.

Messrs. King & King, the flour and feed men, have arrived in Denison, and are now getting their stock in readiness for the trade. These gentlemen come highly recommended and will no doubt do a good business.

In another column will be found an advertisement of Mrs. Fannie E. Newberry's works. The writer and her work are well known in Denison. We know of no better Christmas gift than a good, healthy book.

Mert Morrill, of Washington, surprised his many friends in Crawford by dropping in on them Monday. He has been away from Crawford county a number of years and consequently received a cordial welcome.

Earl E. Riddle of Coon Grove was a pleasant caller at this office on Saturday. While here he took occasion to leave his subscription for his REVIEW. Mr. Riddle is one of the prosperous young men of his community.

Rev. Judd of the Episcopal church preached to good congregations both morning and evening on last Sunday. After the evening service a meeting of the members was held and it was decided to organize as a congregation.

Street Commissioner Pearson informs us that the street work for this season has about ended, only a few patches here and there remain to be finished. The city is now looking after defective sidewalks and any found are being repaired.

Mr. S. J. Woodruff has accepted a position in the circulation department with Wallace Farmer and will have charge of the state of Nebraska. Jay is a hustler and will doubtless make a good success.

The story "Nada, the Lily" continued in this issue is proving very interesting. The story deals with aboriginal life in South Africa before the coming either of the Boers or the English and is told in Haggard's well known exciting style.

Mr. W. L. Brown has sold his farm in Washington township and next week will move to Newton, Kansas, where he will make his home in future. Mr. Brown is a capable, industrious man and we wish him and his estimable wife every success. The REVIEW will go with them as a twice a week letter from the Iowa home.

Manager Richardson tells us that his telephone company intends in the near future to replace all the ordinary Blake call boxes now in use in the business houses with the Long Distance calls at no extra expense to the patron. This we believe will be a great convenience over the old system and all will appreciate the change.

R. M. Wilcox has moved his laundry to the handsome new building just erected by him, and he is now busily engaged in getting the machinery into place. The new room looks as neat as a pin, and is in every way a model one for an up-to-date business. Miss Wilcox will preside over the office work, giving R. M. and Will Smith, his assistant, more time for the work of the laundry. Mr. Wilcox's success is a shining example of what hard and faithful labor can accomplish. We are glad to note such successes and assist in making them wherever possible.

Frank L. Evans, contractor and builder, has just completed the plans for the Schleswig hotel, to be erected by Johannes Jochims. The plans call for a 25 room building, the size of the main part to be 38x33, 30 feet high with a ten foot porch on the entire frontage. The entire building will be heated with steam. On the ground floor there will be nine rooms including two parlors, hall way, trunk room, dining room and kitchen. All of the chambers are nice size. Mr. Evans has arranged everything about the building in a most convenient manner, taking in the smallest details. This gentleman is a contractor and builder of ability and should be secure the contract will give the best of satisfaction.

This Week! Frank E. LONG In Repertoire

THE LONGEST ABSTRACT.

Longest Instrument of the Kind Ever Filed in the County.

The longest abstract ever made in Crawford county was made this week in completing the transfer of a half interest in 180 acres of land in sections 7, 8 and 17, Milford township, from N. L. to C. J. Hunt.

The land was first sold by the government as timber lands in 2, 3 and 5 acre lots—the largest parcel being 20 acres. Each of the lots has been sold and resold, sold for taxes, sold in every old way, until finally Hunt Bros. conceived the idea of buying them all in. It has taken a number of years to accomplish this. The length of the abstract is shown by the fact that there were 191 deed transfers recorded on the property. The land lies just east of Deloit and its increased value has probably fully repaid Hunt Bros. for their trouble.

DEATH OF MRS. SAMUEL GIBSON

Beloved Wife of a Former Crawford County Citizen Dies at Council Bluffs.

The many old friends of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gibson were greatly grieved to learn of Mrs. Gibson's death which occurred at Council Bluffs on Tuesday, November 14th. Mrs. Gibson had been in ill health throughout the summer and her death was not entirely unexpected. The funeral services were held in the Trinity Methodist church of Council Bluffs on Thursday last. The esteem in which she was held by her new made friends in Council Bluffs was evidenced by the large attendance at the obsequies and the tenderness and sympathy shown by all. Mr. Francis Gibson, Mr. Solomon Gibson and Mr. Thomas Rae were present from this county.

Mrs. Gibson was fifty-five years, she leaves a husband and one son to mourn her loss. Mrs. Gibson was well known and greatly beloved by many residents of this county where the greater part of her life was spent. The bereaved husband has as yet made no plans for the future, but it is hoped by many that he may decide to make his home with us once more.

The score of the football game between Dunlap and Denison last Friday was 0 to 0. The game was filled with kicking, mouth kicking we mean, and was anything but a clever exhibition. The Dunlap boys kept threatening not to play unless the decisions were all in their favor. The moral is that a college team should never play any but a college team.
