

The Denison Review

Review Publishing Company,
(Incorporated)
R. P. CONNER, Manager.

Published every Wednesday at Denison, Iowa

Entered at Denison postoffice as second-class matter.

Advertising rates furnished on request.
Telephone—23.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.
One year .....$1.50
Six months ..... .75
Paper sent to foreign country... 2.00

CORRESPONDENCE.
Communications relating to news and editorial matter should be addressed Denison Review.

REMITTANCES.
Remit by draft, express or postal order payable to the Review Publishing Company. Only two-cent stamps received in payment of mail accounts.

F. W. MEYERS—Editorial Writer.

JACKSON ITEMS.

James Kerrigan, who has been taking care of his brother, William, during his illness, has returned. He reports the brother much better.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koch called at the Auen home in Sac county Sunday.

Dick Smith visited with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dose Sunday.

Harry Pahl called on his friend, Mr. Christensen, last Tuesday morning.

Miss Nellie Nelson, of Boyer, visited with Mr. and Mrs. David Calderwood the latter part of last week.

Chas. O'Donnell sold his work horses to Will Lawler for the sum of $325. He is looking for a driving team now.

Dr. Johnstone, of Carroll, was again in Jackson on professional business Thursday.

Fred Rickers called at the Wm. Myers home Thursday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Dreessen entertained their friends and neighbors on Saturday, in honor of Mrs. Dreessen's birthday.

O'Donnell Brothers are busy buying and selling cattle. Any one having cattle to sell will do well to see them.

Frank Dozark moved the poultry house, purchased from Mr. Graham, of Boyer. He saved carpenter's wages by buying it already made.

Mrs. Julius Jans was a business caller at Denison last Monday.

A party was given at the Rudolph Rhode home last Friday evening. A pleasant time is reported.

The county bridge builders are busy in this township putting in and repairing bridges.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koch and son, Clarence, visited with Mr. and Mrs. John Koch Saturday and Sunday.

A large crowd of people gathered at the Center school house Friday evening to spend a few hours with the teacher and scholars, who were assisted by a number of young men who gave a very nice program, after which Jas. McLaughlin sold sixteen baskets, netting the sum of $16.50. This money will be used to pay for the organ and other useful school articles. We wish to thank all who attended the entertainment for their help in the up-building of our schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Buck and son and Mrs. Rickers and Anna Rickers, from West Side, were visitors at the Julius Dreessen home Sunday.

We have ordered a full line of school books again. Thirty-five new books have been sold since December.

Henry Clausen has rented the Clint Paine section southwest of West Side for the coming season.

Geo. Foley called at the Chas. O'Donnell home Friday.

Hans Mau, of West Side, is staying with his aunt, Mrs. Hans Henriksen.

The basket social at the Joe Rickers school Wednesday evening, April 24th, was a success. The proceeds were $27.85.

Katie Madden, who is attending school in Vail, visited with her parents over Saturday and Sunday.

James Kerrigan is doing mason work for Martin Peters.

VOIL ITEMS.

Dr. J. M. Young made a visit to Bayard Tuesday of last week.

B. Bamford, of Denison, was here Tuesday on business.

Wm. Byrnes was in West Side Monday on business.

Wm. Enebach was a county seat guest Tuesday.

John Simonson, of Avoca, was a guest at the M. Dobler home last week.

Frank Mitchell made a trip to Denison Tuesday of last week to cash in the scalps of three wolves.

Miss Joanna Walsh spent Friday in Denison with her sister, Mrs. Naughton.

Mrs. A. Novotne and young son, of Oto, have been visiting relatives in and around Vail for the last couple of weeks.

Mrs. Lizzie Molseed spent a couple of days last week in Omaha.

When a man lacks faith he is pretty apt to find his engine stalled on life's up-grade.

Ben Casey, a former Vail boy, but now living in Chicago, was calling on old friends here Sunday.

J. W. Watson, of Marinette, Wis., was in Vail on business Monday.

Mrs. Thos. Powers went to Manilla Monday for a visit with relatives.

Miss Anna Murtagh spent Sunday in Denison with friends.

Mrs. Ed Olson spent Monday in Denison.

Mrs. Joe Harrington spent the last week with her sister, Mrs. Thomas Fitzpatrick near Denison.

Mrs. P. Lane spent Tuesday in Denison with relatives.

Ed Duffy went to West Side on business Saturday.

Joe Duffy is sporting a new automobile, which he bought of B. O'Donnell last week.

Chas. Fitzsimmons, of Elk Point, S. D., made a brief visit here last week with relatives.

Miss Mae Lynch was calling on friends in Denison Friday.

R. Enright was here from Denison a couple of days last week on business.

Miss Elia Krueger was an over-Sunday visitor in Omaha.

Mrs. P. Brogan and Miss Maggie Scanlan were business visitors in Denison Monday.

Dr. T. J. Bierne was up from West Side Tuesday on business.

On Monday J. J. Breen purchased of Harlow Chapman the farm known as the Dan Dougherty place, two miles west of Vail. Possession is to be given March 1, 1913.

John McGovern went to South Omaha Monday last to purchase a car of young cattle.

Joe Hickey, of Aspinwall, was transacting business in Vail the first part of the week.

Jas. Sheridan took his departure Tuesday for a month's stay in the west.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Wm. D. Mitchell

MORGAN ITEMS.

Henry Vogt, of Charter Oak, was out in Morgan last week looking after his farm.

Minnie Pauli is now clerking in Gutenberg's store at Schleswig.

Mr. and Mrs. Backhaus and children spent last Saturday and Sunday visiting relatives in Ida county.

Mrs. J. Lorenzen is now in the Ida Grove hospital, where she underwent an operation and the last report was of her good condition.

Henry Schwartz, of Schleswig, was an over-Sunday visitor at his parental home.

Mrs. Vogt and daughter, Manda, visited relatives in Charter Oak Saturday.

J. R. Jensen and Gustav Else made a business trip to Denison last Saturday.

Jas. Watson is having an addition built to his residence on Somerset street before moving into it.

B. O'Donnell and Joe Duffy were in Omaha the first of last week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCormick and daughter, Marie, went to Omaha last Thursday to witness their son, Pete, graduate as a dentist from Creighton college.

John McCarty spent a part of last week in Denison with relatives.

Mrs. A. Short and daughter, Anna Mae, spent Friday with Denison friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John McMahan drove over from Manilla Wednesday and spent the day with relatives.

Joe Kinney was a business caller in Denison Wednesday.

Mrs. M. Dobler went to Carroll last Wednesday to visit friends.

Art Adams made a trip to Denison Monday.

M. Staak, of Carroll, was here on business Friday.

J. Murphy was a county seat caller Saturday on business.

Misses Regina Molseed and Nell Hickey spent Saturday afternoon at West Side.

John Holland was a passenger to Omaha Monday on business.

Mrs. E. T. Quirk has been visiting relatives in different parts of South Dakota for the last couple of weeks.

Mrs. J. Jorgensen visited with West Side friends last week.

A number from here attended the dance at West Side Saturday night and report a fine time.

P. J. Lawler, from near Breda, was a Vail visitor on business the last of the week.

F. Lewis spent the first of last week in Omaha on business.

Mrs. Chas. Magill and children returned last week from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Rutherford, at Ross, Iowa.

Mrs. R. C. Hawley was calling on Denison friends Monday.

Mrs. Mike Kral and daughter, Julia, spent Tuesday in Denison visiting with friends and doing some trading.

Mrs. John Champion and son spent the first of last week in Denison.

Frank Simon was in Denison on business Tuesday.

Rev. J. G. Waterman, of West Side, was a Vail caller Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike DeVaney spent a couple of days last week in Omaha.

Mrs. F. Koester and two daughters were shopping in Denison Tuesday.

Mrs. C. Paine, of Kennebec, S. D., has been visiting her many Vail friends for the past two weeks.

Wm. Byrnes spent a couple of days last week in Omaha on business.

Mrs. F. Hanns and children, of Denison, visited here last week at the A. Etzel home.

Mrs. Marie Mangan has purchased the Wm. Maguire residence on North Somerset street, but will not move into it until fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunn, of Charlotte, were calling on relatives here last week.

Ben Casey, a former Vail boy, but now living in Chicago, was calling on old friends here Sunday.

J. W. Watson, of Marinette, Wis., was in Vail on business Monday.

Mrs. Thos. Powers went to Manilla Monday for a visit with relatives.

Miss Anna Murtagh spent Sunday in Denison with friends.

Mrs. Ed Olson spent Monday in Denison.

Mrs. Joe Harrington spent the last week with her sister, Mrs. Thomas Fitzpatrick near Denison.

Mrs. P. Lane spent Tuesday in Denison with relatives.

Ed Duffy went to West Side on business Saturday.

Joe Duffy is sporting a new automobile, which he bought of B. O'Donnell last week.

Chas. Fitzsimmons, of Elk Point, S. D., made a brief visit here last week with relatives.

Miss Mae Lynch was calling on friends in Denison Friday.

R. Enright was here from Denison a couple of days last week on business.

Miss Elia Krueger was an over-Sunday visitor in Omaha.

Mrs. P. Brogan and Miss Maggie Scanlan were business visitors in Denison Monday.

Dr. T. J. Bierne was up from West Side Tuesday on business.

On Monday J. J. Breen purchased of Harlow Chapman the farm known as the Dan Dougherty place, two miles west of Vail. Possession is to be given March 1, 1913.

John McGovern went to South Omaha Monday last to purchase a car of young cattle.

Joe Hickey, of Aspinwall, was transacting business in Vail the first part of the week.

Jas. Sheridan took his departure Tuesday for a month's stay in the west.

Henry Vogt, of Charter Oak, was out in Morgan last week looking after his farm.

Minnie Pauli is now clerking in Gutenberg's store at Schleswig.

Mr. and Mrs. Backhaus and children spent last Saturday and Sunday visiting relatives in Ida county.

Mrs. J. Lorenzen is now in the Ida Grove hospital, where she underwent an operation and the last report was of her good condition.

Henry Schwartz, of Schleswig, was an over-Sunday visitor at his parental home.

Mrs. Vogt and daughter, Manda, visited relatives in Charter Oak Saturday.

J. R. Jensen and Gustav Else made a business trip to Denison last Saturday.

Jas. Watson is having an addition built to his residence on Somerset street before moving into it.

B. O'Donnell and Joe Duffy were in Omaha the first of last week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCormick and daughter, Marie, went to Omaha last Thursday to witness their son, Pete, graduate as a dentist from Creighton college.

John McCarty spent a part of last week in Denison with relatives.

Mrs. A. Short and daughter, Anna Mae, spent Friday with Denison friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John McMahan drove over from Manilla Wednesday and spent the day with relatives.

Joe Kinney was a business caller in Denison Wednesday.

Mrs. M. Dobler went to Carroll last Wednesday to visit friends.

Art Adams made a trip to Denison Monday.

M. Staak, of Carroll, was here on business Friday.

J. Murphy was a county seat caller Saturday on business.

Misses Regina Molseed and Nell Hickey spent Saturday afternoon at West Side.

John Holland was a passenger to Omaha Monday on business.

Mrs. E. T. Quirk has been visiting relatives in different parts of South Dakota for the last couple of weeks.

Mrs. J. Jorgensen visited with West Side friends last week.

A number from here attended the dance at West Side Saturday night and report a fine time.

P. J. Lawler, from near Breda, was a Vail visitor on business the last of the week.

F. Lewis spent the first of last week in Omaha on business.

Mrs. Chas. Magill and children returned last week from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Rutherford, at Ross, Iowa.

Mrs. R. C. Hawley was calling on Denison friends Monday.

Mrs. Mike Kral and daughter, Julia, spent Tuesday in Denison visiting with friends and doing some trading.

Mrs. John Champion and son spent the first of last week in Denison.

Frank Simon was in Denison on business Tuesday.

Rev. J. G. Waterman, of West Side, was a Vail caller Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike DeVaney spent a couple of days last week in Omaha.

Mrs. F. Koester and two daughters were shopping in Denison Tuesday.

Mrs. C. Paine, of Kennebec, S. D., has been visiting her many Vail friends for the past two weeks.

Wm. Byrnes spent a couple of days last week in Omaha on business.

Mrs. F. Hanns and children, of Denison, visited here last week at the A. Etzel home.

Mrs. Marie Mangan has purchased the Wm. Maguire residence on North Somerset street, but will not move into it until fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunn, of Charlotte, were calling on relatives here last week.

Ben Casey, a former Vail boy, but now living in Chicago, was calling on old friends here Sunday.

J. W. Watson, of Marinette, Wis., was in Vail on business Monday.

Mrs. Thos. Powers went to Manilla Monday for a visit with relatives.

Miss Anna Murtagh spent Sunday in Denison with friends.

Mrs. Ed Olson spent Monday in Denison.

Mrs. Joe Harrington spent the last week with her sister, Mrs. Thomas Fitzpatrick near Denison.

Mrs. P. Lane spent Tuesday in Denison with relatives.

Ed Duffy went to West Side on business Saturday.

Joe Duffy is sporting a new automobile, which he bought of B. O'Donnell last week.

Chas. Fitzsimmons, of Elk Point, S. D., made a brief visit here last week with relatives.

Miss Mae Lynch was calling on friends in Denison Friday.

R. Enright was here from Denison a couple of days last week on business.

Miss Elia Krueger was an over-Sunday visitor in Omaha.

Mrs. P. Brogan and Miss Maggie Scanlan were business visitors in Denison Monday.

Dr. T. J. Bierne was up from West Side Tuesday on business.

On Monday J. J. Breen purchased of Harlow Chapman the farm known as the Dan Dougherty place, two miles west of Vail. Possession is to be given March 1, 1913.

John McGovern went to South Omaha Monday last to purchase a car of young cattle.

Joe Hickey, of Aspinwall, was transacting business in Vail the first part of the week.

Jas. Sheridan took his departure Tuesday for a month's stay in the west.

Henry Vogt, of Charter Oak, was out in Morgan last week looking after his farm.

Minnie Pauli is now clerking in Gutenberg's store at Schleswig.

Mr. and Mrs. Backhaus and children spent last Saturday and Sunday visiting relatives in Ida county.

Mrs. J. Lorenzen is now in the Ida Grove hospital, where she underwent an operation and the last report was of her good condition.

Henry Schwartz, of Schleswig, was an over-Sunday visitor at his parental home.

Mrs. Vogt and daughter, Manda, visited relatives in Charter Oak Saturday.

J. R. Jensen and Gustav Else made a business trip to Denison last Saturday.

Jas. Watson is having an addition built to his residence on Somerset street before moving into it.

B. O'Donnell and Joe Duffy were in Omaha the first of last week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCormick and daughter, Marie, went to Omaha last Thursday to witness their son, Pete, graduate as a dentist from Creighton college.

John McCarty spent a part of last week in Denison with relatives.

Mrs. A. Short and daughter, Anna Mae, spent Friday with Denison friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John McMahan drove over from Manilla Wednesday and spent the day with relatives.

Joe Kinney was a business caller in Denison Wednesday.

Mrs. M. Dobler went to Carroll last Wednesday to visit friends.

Art Adams made a trip to Denison Monday.

M. Staak, of Carroll, was here on business Friday.

J. Murphy was a county seat caller Saturday on business.

Misses Regina Molseed and Nell Hickey spent Saturday afternoon at West Side.

John Holland was a passenger to Omaha Monday on business.

Mrs. E. T. Quirk has been visiting relatives in different parts of South Dakota for the last couple of weeks.

Mrs. J. Jorgensen visited with West Side friends last week.

A number from here attended the dance at West Side Saturday night and report a fine time.

P. J. Lawler, from near Breda, was a Vail visitor on business the last of the week.

F. Lewis spent the first of last week in Omaha on business.

Mrs. Chas. Magill and children returned last week from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Rutherford, at Ross, Iowa.

Mrs. R. C. Hawley was calling on Denison friends Monday.

Mrs. Mike Kral and daughter, Julia, spent Tuesday in Denison visiting with friends and doing some trading.

Mrs. John Champion and son spent the first of last week in Denison.

Frank Simon was in Denison on business Tuesday.

Rev. J. G. Waterman, of West Side, was a Vail caller Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike DeVaney spent a couple of days last week in Omaha.

Mrs. F. Koester and two daughters were shopping in Denison Tuesday.

Mrs. C. Paine, of Kennebec, S. D., has been visiting her many Vail friends for the past two weeks.

Wm. Byrnes spent a couple of days last week in Omaha on business.

Mrs. F. Hanns and children, of Denison, visited here last week at the A. Etzel home.

Mrs. Marie Mangan has purchased the Wm. Maguire residence on North Somerset street, but will not move into it until fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunn, of Charlotte, were calling on relatives here last week.

Ben Casey, a former Vail boy, but now living in Chicago, was calling on old friends here Sunday.

J. W. Watson, of Marinette, Wis., was in Vail on business Monday.