

Denison Local

Send us your news.

Yes, Denison observed Flag day. Chas. Bollen made a business trip to Omaha last Wednesday.

J. D. Newcom was a business caller in the city Friday from Deloit.

Louie Grill, of Schleswig, was a pleasant business visitor in Denison Friday.

Carl Richardson was in Des Moines several days last week transacting business.

Attorney J. P. Conner and L. W. Powers made a business trip to Charter Oak Friday.

Mrs. M. C. Fuller returned Thursday from a visit with friends and relatives at Boone and Colo.

Mrs. Peter Bruhl, of Ricketts, spent several days in Denison last week visiting her sister, Mrs. H. P. Hansen.

Mrs. Augusta Hamley was up from Omaha over Sunday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bollen.

Bert Miller and Ed Larson were taken before Mayor Laub Monday and fined $10 each for fighting on Sunday.

J. Peter Jensen was down from Schleswig Friday attending to some business matters at the county capital.

Miss Kate Kelly came up from Des Moines Sunday to attend the funeral services of Mrs. Haug Monday forenoon.

Mr. L. E. Wright, prominent farmer and stock raiser residing near Dunlap, transacted business in Denison Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wiblishouser and Mrs. Herb Fuller motored to Wall Lake Friday morning and spent the day visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Liscomb motored up from Dunlap Saturday for a brief visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Bamford.

Phillip Baker, who has been attending college at Ames, has returned to Denison and is helping out in the county engineer's office.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stollenberg and little daughter were down from Schleswig over Sunday visiting at the home of Mr. E. K. Burch.

Miss Anna Petersen, of Streeter, Ill., arrived in the city last Friday for a two weeks' visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bollen.

Miss Naomi Stock was in Mapleton several days last week attending the commencement exercises of the high school and visiting friends.

Prof. and Mrs. F. N. Oiry and daughter, Carmen, were in Schleswig last Wednesday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jurgen Schroeder.

Mrs. J. L. Miller, Mrs. John Anderson, Mrs. G. Jordan and Mrs. B. Richardson were down from Deloit Saturday shopping and visiting with friends.

Miss Grace Hamford returned Monday from Sac City, where she enjoyed a few days' visit with her sister, Miss Fanchon, and her aunt, Mrs. Hattie Ferrell.

After a two weeks' visit in Denison with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Wygant, Mrs. Gaylord Weeks and children departed for their home at Springfield, Mo.

Mrs. Ellen Heiden and son Malcolm and Mrs. Sarah Riddle and son Earl went up to Lake View Thursday morning, where they enjoyed the week end at that popular resort.

Mrs. Elizabeth Petersen and daughters Mrs. Thomas Thompson and Miss Anna Peterson were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Rachwitz in Denison over Sunday.

Mrs. Wilson Kipp and daughter, of Seattle, Wash., arrived in Denison on Thursday for a three weeks' visit at the homes of her mother, Mrs. L. A. Sewell, and sister, Mrs. R. O. McConaughy.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Garrison and son Earline and Raymond Garrison, of Council Bluffs, drove to Lake View Thursday, where they will enjoy a month's outing, having rented a cottage at Lake Wood.

Paul Caswell left last week for Cherokee, where he has a position as linotype operator on the Times for the summer months. He will return to Iowa City this fall to resume his studies at the State University.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Voss and Loyal, Mrs. E. Gulick and Mrs. L. M. Shaw motored to Lake View Thursday, where they enjoyed the day visiting some of the Denison people who are spending the summer there.

Mrs. Ed Lies and daughter, Margaret, who reside at Waterville, Wash., arrived in the city last Thursday for an extended visit with her parents, M. and Mrs. R. Knaul. Mr. Lies contemplates coming to Denison for a visit while his family is here.

Mrs. Carl Richardson enjoyed a few days' visit last week from two school girl friends, Miss Helen Moberly, of York, Pa., and Miss Della Moberly, of Newton, Iowa. They departed Monday for Estes Park, Colo., where they will enjoy a few weeks' vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Caswell departed last Thursday for Chicago where they took a special train conducted by the National Editorial Association for the east to attend a convention. They will visit New York and Philadelphia and at the latter place Mr. Caswell will attend the convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World in the interests of the Iowa Press Association, of which he is field secretary.

Announcements were received in Denison the latter part of the week by friends of John Luck announcing his marriage to Miss Emeline Spencer, which occurred at Des Moines, last Wednesday. Mr. Luck is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Luck, of this city, and for some time was in the employ of the Balle Brothers Co. For the past year or two he has been traveling for the Luthie Hardware Co., of Des Moines. His bride is a resident of Lake View and is a most estimable young lady. Mr. and Mrs. Luck will make their home at Fort Dodge.

Miss Lovie Morris, of Deloit, visited friends here Monday.

Miss Vesta Riddle was a shopper in Denison Saturday from Dow City.

Arnold Brockman was a business caller in the city Friday from West Side.

Mrs. C. L. Voss visited her sister Mrs. J. S. Melson at Jefferson Sunday.

Miss Thelma Meyer underwent an operation at the Meehan hospital last week.

Mrs. J. W. Mills enjoyed a few days' visit last week from Mrs. Stearns, of Logan.

Miss Kate Powers, of Vail, is taking treatment at the Dr. Meehan hospital this week.

James Menagh visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Menagh in Omaha Sunday.

Daniel Hemphill, of Buck Grove, was a pleasant county seat business caller Monday.

Miss Zeila Patterson, of Rodney, Ia., spent several days in Denison last week visiting friends.

Mrs. John Schnoor is spending a few days this week at Manning visiting her sister, Mrs. Bolte.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Voss went up to Lake View Sunday and enjoyed the day at the Cushman cottage.

Walter Lingard was up from Dow City Saturday transacting business and calling on acquaintances.

J. V. Barborka and son Clifford were passengers to Omaha Sunday morning where they enjoyed the day visiting friends.

Mrs. J. Schwartzbach left Monday evening for Carroll, where she is spending the week visiting at the home of her son Jess.

Mrs. Edith Mullen and son of Clinton arrived in Denison last Thursday for a visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. W. Ferguson.

Miss Ella Harding will leave this evening for a two weeks' vacation trip to Chicago, where she will visit relatives and friends.

Messrs. Emil and William Detthorn were in Denison from West Side Friday attending to some business matters at the county capital.

Mrs. W. T. Wright and daughter Miss Edna are spending a few days in the city this week at the home of Mrs. P. A. Smith, sister of the former.

Mrs. C. L. Ducander and little son departed Monday for Maquoketa, where they will make a two or three weeks' visit with Mrs. Ducander's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Marnin and son and Mrs. Frazier and son Carl, residents of Adair, were guests at the home of Dr. J. J. Meehan several days last week.

John Buck had the misfortune to fall from a bicycle Sunday and break his collar bone. The accident was a most painful one and will necessitate his giving up his carpenter work for a few days.

Harve Ferrell stopped off in Denison over Sunday for a visit at the home of his aunt, Mrs. T. W. Bamford. He was on his way to his home at Sac City after spending two weeks in Dunlap visiting his sister, Mrs. C. E. Liscomb.

Mr. Kuehnle returned home Saturday after a ten days' absence, attending the national republican convention at Chicago, the commencement exercises of the State university at Iowa City and the Masonic grand lodge at Davenport.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clarke returned Sunday from Chicago, where they spent a ten days' honeymoon visiting Mr. Clarke's mother and sister. They are making their home with Mr. and Mrs. Emil Hugg until fall when they will have possession of the Mrs. Mary McMahon home, which they purchased recently.

Miss Clara Scriver, who teaches in the public schools of Omaha, arrived in Denison Friday evening for a visit at the parental, W. J. Scriver, home. Miss Scriver will act as one of the bridesmaids at the Powers-Lally wedding, and expects to leave the first of July for Aberdeen, S. D., where she will spend the summer visiting her sister, Mrs. R. F. Romans.

Rowland Philbrook, who has been in Denison for the past two weeks visiting his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Philbrook, departed Monday morning for Powell, Wyo., where he will spend the summer in charge of the Episcopal church at that place. Howard Brinker, who was his guest while in Denison, goes to Mateetse, Wyo., where he will have charge of an Episcopal mission.

Miss Marcella Nachtmann arrived in Denison Saturday evening for an over Sunday visit with the Misses Rose and Margaret Clark. Miss Nachtmann at one time was instructor of music in the public schools of Denison and taught German in the high school. At present she is teaching at Bellingham, Wash. She departed Monday for her home at Junction City, Kans., where she will spend the summer vacation with her parents.

Mr. Carl F. Kuehnle continues to have numerous invitations to make speeches all over the state. He is able to accept only a limited number of the invitations extended. He has accepted an invitation to speak at Lineville at the Wayne County Masonic association celebration on St. John's day, June 23d. He will speak on June 25th at Libertyville at the K. P. and Odd Fellows memorial exercises, and at Alta June 28th at the laying of the corner stone of the new public school building.

Ed. Reimer and John Rusterholz left Monday afternoon for Flint, Mich., where they will spend several days visiting the Buick factory. A special train was made up at Omaha Monday afternoon to take Buick dealers to Flint and they joined the party here at Denison. A stop-over will be made at Chicago and on the return trip the dealers will have an opportunity to visit the automobile factories at Detroit. The dealers will be royally entertained on the trip and Messrs. Reimers and Rusterholz contemplate a most enjoyable trip.

Col. C. E. Moore and R. E. Walters were down from Sioux City Monday transacting business.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Pierce were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McHenry near Dow City Sunday.

Mr. Sears McHenry departed Sunday evening for Breckenridge, Sask., Canada, where he will spend a week or ten days looking after the McHenry land interests in that locality.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira C. Gillmor and children departed Sunday for a two weeks' motor trip to points in South Dakota. They went directly to Sioux City, where they stopped off to visit his sister, Mrs. Eli Laub.

Northwestern Shippers.

J. J. Buehler, 1 car of cattle.

I. C. Gillmor, 1 car of cattle.

Nicholson Ice & Produce Co., 2 cars of eggs.

P. T. Plinn, 4 cars of hogs.

Jacob Weiss & Sons, 1 car of sheep.

Sam McCullough, 1 car of cattle.

Doud Milling Co., 2 cars of flour.

Farmers Co-Op. Society, 1 car of hogs.

Illinois Central Shippers.

John Saggau, 2 cars of hogs for Chicago.

Local Market Report.

Corn ..... 55c

Barley ..... 50c

Oats ..... 33c to 34c

Eggs ..... 17c

Butter ..... 23c to 24c

Hogs ..... $9.00 to $9.10

No. 1 hides ..... $12.25

Potatoes ..... 12c

Cream ..... 30c

Chickens ..... 8c

Spring chickens ..... 12c

WEST SIDE ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kelley and daughters Emma and Evelyn, visited several days last week in Omaha.

John Kruse's orchestra played here for a dance at the three mile house Sunday, June 18th.

The hardware store of H. C. Martins and sons is being remodeled by Henry Groenemeyer and his carpenters.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Hagge were at Omaha Wednesday and Thursday. The dance at the opera house last Tuesday evening was not very well attended, but those present had an enjoyable time.

Miss Amanda Kruse, of Denison, attended the dance here last Saturday evening.

Miss Theresa Nickelson left Friday morning for Clinton, where she will visit several weeks with friends and relatives.

Mrs. M. Buton was initiated into the O. E. S. last Thursday evening; the orders of Vail and Denison being well represented. A banquet followed, which everyone enjoyed.

Mrs. Rolfe and children, of Rock Island, are here visiting at the home of Mrs. Rolfe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Elbert.

Patterson & Campbell have received another carload of Fords.

The commission man, Frank Underhill, of Chicago, was here Friday and Saturday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Bond, of Denison, stopped here Friday while on their way to the lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfang, of Arcadia, were here Friday visiting with their daughter, Miss Minnie, who is working at the City Hotel.

James Killen left Friday for Minnesota, where he will visit John Miesz. West Side is going to have a Chau-tauqua this year. It is thought that the dates will be in the first part of August.

Otto Hueschen celebrated his sixth birthday Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Rathje. There were about sixty little people present and everyone had a most enjoyable time.

Irwin Wilson spent Sunday in Omaha.

Mrs. A. Voss and daughter Verna visited friends at Denison Friday.

M. R. Hueschen, A. R. Stareck, Al. Art. Peers and Roy and Carl Moeller motored to Atlantic Friday and returned Saturday.

Julius Hagge's and George Lawler's houses are now finished and the carpenters are working on August Bornhoff's house.

Oscar Wiesman, who has been working for Chris Boock left Saturday for a visit in Kansas. Otto Brown is taking his place.

O. G. Ohnsman, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Ohnsman, who used to live here but now lives at El Reno, Okla., arrived here Sunday for a visit with friends.

Will White, of Jackson township, visited with friends at Denison Saturday.

Miss Lydia Thiedeman visited several days at the August Voss home.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sievers motored to Carroll Friday.

Tom Buton, Jr., who attended the Masonic grand lodge at Davenport, returned Saturday.

The West Side ball players played a game with the Jackson township players Sunday. West Side defeated them the score being 10 to 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Evers visited Saturday and Sunday at the Louie Hoff home near Wall Lake.

Stock shipments for Saturday were: Henry Schoessler, 1 load cattle.

Delmar Benton, 1 load cattle.

C. A. Boock, 2 loads cattle.

Herman Buck, 1 load hogs.

Mrs. A. Voss and daughters, Evelyn and Dorothy were guests at the wedding of Alexander Hanneman and Elizabeth Schwanz, which took place at the Presbyterian church in Denison on June 14th.

Henry Elbert was a Carroll passenger Monday.

M. J. Campbell was an Omaha passenger Monday.

Mrs. John Mumm visited friends in Denison Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Englund visited friends at Oakland, Ia., the first part of the week.

Tom Malloy, of Denison, was here on business Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moeller left Sunday morning for Omaha.

Mrs. Eggert Sievers, Mrs. W. C. White and Miss Grace Tarpy visited friends at Carroll Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sievers, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. White and Mrs. John Smith autoted to the lake Thursday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Boettger, of Mason City, arrived Sunday morning for a visit at the Henry Hansman home.

Mr. Fred Soehl, who was called to Denison to attend the funeral of his sister, returned Monday to his home at Guthrie, Okla.

WEST DENISON ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Houlihan, of Denison, and their guest, Mr. Thompson, of El Reno, Okla., were entertained at the C. C. Houlihan home last Friday.

Mrs. Bauman left last week for a visit with her daughter, Sister Rosalinda, who is ill at the convent of St. Francis.

M. Keating and family spent last Wednesday evening in Denison.

Oscar Flenhold and Gene Owens returned Tuesday from Chicago, where they had been with stock.

Clarence Powell is spending the week at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan, near Arion.

Mrs. Wm. Lenz entertained relatives from Chicago last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kruse visited with Mr. and Mrs. John Evers north of Denison Sunday.

Mrs. Oscar Flenhold and daughters were week end guests in the home of her mother, Mrs. Owens.

Mrs. Frank Houlihan spent Thursday with Mrs. O'Brien.

The Misses Minnie Evers and Mary Stender, of Denison, were week end guests of Miss Ella Moeller.

Miss Lottie Lenz enjoyed a visit with her aunt, Mrs. Wm. Peterson, near Buck Grove last week.

James Hughes and aunt, Miss Owens, spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Flaherty near Charter Oak.

Joe Hedderman and family and Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Houlihan were entertained at the C. Houlihan home Sunday.

ANOTHER GREAT BIG WEEK Of Shoe Bargains At The Boys' Store, Denison, Iowa.

More and Better Bargains for Thursday,
Friday and Saturday. Save 50c to $1.50 ON EACH PAIR.

Mens Oxfords in Black and Tan Russian Calf. Values up to $4.50. $2.19

Mens Gunmetal Blucher Shoes, Another big lot $1.65

Hundreds of pairs of Misses and Childrens Canvas Sandals 88c

Ladies white buck button shoes, sizes 2 1-2 to 5 - $1.48

Ladies Sport Oxfords, all sizes, Thurs, Friday and Saturday only $2.48

Ladies dull kid and patent strap oxfords, footwear that never sold for less than $3.50 for 3 days only at 2.39

Boys oxfords in tan and black 1.39

Ladies laced canvas sport shoes with rubber heels and soles $2.48

See our new Colonial pumps, white kid, reign skin and black kid.

Come to The Boys' for Shoe Bargains

