

"THE PRICE OF PROGRESS"

Hon. George A. Carlson, Former Governor of Colorado, ne of Principal Speakers at Coming Chautauqua

BUCKED THE BOOZE INTERESTS
During War Gov. Carlson Did Much to Arouse Patriotism Among the Scandinavians of the Country

The Hon. George A. Carlson, former governor of Colorado who is to lecture at our chautauqua on "The Price of Progress," is a product of our own middle west. He was born on a farm in Buena Vista county, Iowa. His people were Swedish emigrants who came to this country penniless and friendless in search of opportunities denied them in the old country.

During the war Governor Carlson did much to arouse the patriotism of Americans of foreign parentage, particularly the Scandinavian folks. He knew how to appeal to them because he knew the conditions which brought them here and the opportunities this country had given them. He is said to be a speaker of power and a fighter of the Ole Hanson, Todd Rosevelt type.

Carlson was the youngest governor ever elected by the people of Colorado. His nomination by the republican party and his subsequent election followed a splendid career as district attorney. When he had been in this office but twenty-three days he had caused thirty-eight public officials to plead guilty to the charge of misappropriating public funds.

Carlson bucked the booze interests in Colorado politics and is the man who put Colorado dry.

If the farmers of the county who are in need of help for the farm will but register their wants with the County Agent at the court house, they will have little trouble in getting help. Agent Quist has placed seventy-five men on farms this far this spring, and he has a number of farmers now on his list who are wanting men. There are many more, however, who are seeking help, and the agent will be willing to assist them if they will but register their names with him.

Since leaving Denison, "Pete" has been in many places, following the printing game, as owner and as employee, but has always made money, and he is now possessed of a considerable portion of what we are all striving for. His oldest son graduates this month at Gilmore City.

About Month Ago Deceased Was Taken to Colfax in Search of Relief, but to No Avail

WALL LAKE, Ia., May 27—Special to the Review—Thomas Quirk was born in the seaport town of Peel, Isle of Man, April 16, 1845, the son of Thomas and Eleanor Quirk. He attended the schools of his own locality and at the age of twenty, went to Liverpool. After his return to the Isle he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Cain in 1870, and soon after, the young couple made the trip across the Atlantic, coming first to Halifax, then to Davenport and then to this county, where they settled on a farm in Clinton township.

Mr. Quirk has lived on the place for nearly forty-five years. In Jan. 24, 1895, his faithful wife left him to travel the rest of life's journey alone.

In the fall of 1918 he was taken quite seriously ill, and never fully recovered. About a month before his death, he went to Colfax, Iowa, for treatment. An operation was decided upon, but death came a few days after it was performed, and he passed away at the Victoria Hospital, Colfax, May 22, 1919.

Besides his wife, an infant daughter preceded him. Three children survive him, Lewis, of Clinton township, Mrs. Mary McWilliams, of Odebolt, and George, of Eden township. There are also nine grandchildren, one brother, William, of Clinton township, and two sisters, Mrs. Anna Carran and Mrs. Kate Milburn, Isle of Man.

Mr. Quirk was a man of unquestionable integrity and was interested in the affairs of the community and nation. He was one of those who were instrumental in the building and support of Bethel church in Clinton township, was a member of Lake Lodge, No. 390, A. F. & A. M., Wall Lake, the latter lodge having charge of the funeral services Sunday afternoon from the home of the son, Lewis.

Rev. F. F. Travis of Odebolt, led in prayer, and Rev. W. E. Ellison preached from Job 14:14, "If a man die, shall he live again? All the days of my appointed time will I wait till My change come." The burial was in Odebolt cemetery, beside his wife.

In presenting these bulls to the public, we feel we are giving you an opportunity to purchase some of the best blood lines, coupled with individuality there is in the Polled Hereford Breed, as we exercised great care in the selection of our foundation, buying nothing but the best, as the records of our herd show. We bought our foundation of C. B. Gammon, of Des Moines, who was one of the originators of this breed. Our herd bull EMMETT C is out of a Grand Champion, also ADASTON, which is one of the classiest show bulls and seldom ever beaten.
